

NEWS of SOCIETY

Social news must be in the hands of the society editor by 9:30 o'clock. Due to the fact that the social page is made up before noon, it is practically impossible to insert stories after that hour. Hereafter, items no matter how important they are, that are delayed beyond that hour, will not be printed until the following day—News Editor's Note.

The Hi Dad dance given last evening to the high school student body in the gymnasium proved to be all that could have been expected from a delightful social standpoint.

It was the first time the Hi Dads had entertained at dancing and the boys and girls were in high gear from the beginning to the close of the event.

Olsen's complete orchestra furnished the music and the gymnasium was decorated by the pupils with the school colors. Dancing began at 8 o'clock and ceased at 11. The balcony was filled with Hi Dads and their wives, all sharing the happiness of the youngsters.

Pledge Membership day of the Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church was held yesterday in the form of a delightful luncheon at the church and an exhibit.

The luncheon tables were beautifully decorated with a color scheme of yellow and green, exquisite spring flowers and candles making the table very effective.

Mrs. E. P. Mossman acted as toastmistress for the afternoon. Mrs. A. L. Richardson favored those present with a beautiful solo of "An Pilgrim" accompanied by Mrs. W. W. Berry at the piano.

Those responding to toast were Mrs. Alvah Duryea, telling what the Bible says of Missions; Mrs. L. E. Doney, telling what the Church says of Missions; Mrs. O. E. Silverthorn, telling what the world says of Missions and Mrs. L. C. Howser, telling the work of the church.

An account of the absence of the president, Mrs. Herbert Hanna, Mrs. Mossman explained the object of the meeting and following the serving of a delicious lunch course luncheon to approximately seventy ladies they retired to the community room of the church where an exhibit was arranged, showing the work of the Missionaries and the result.

Mrs. Woodson Patterson and Mrs. W. A. Hinch, both of Baker, are home guests at the home of Mrs. G. L. Larson.

A very delightful social event took place last evening at the First Methodist church when the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society gave a banquet in honor of the Junior Home Guards, King's Herald, Mother's Jewels, and Little Light Bearer Missionary Societies. About one hundred were present and after singing Wesley's Hymn, the guests were seated at tastefully decorated tables well filled with good things to eat, to which all present did full justice.

Mrs. E. G. Kettin in a very pleasing manner acted as toastmistress and the following program was responded to: Greetings, Mrs. T. E. Pierson; Response, Helen Williams; Violin solo, Louise Leighton; The Origin of the W. F. M. S., Mrs. H. W. Leighton; The Origin of the W. H. M. S., Mrs. Floyd McKennon; Vocal solo, Mildred Webb; Our Young People's and Children's Work, Mrs. R. F. Tyler; Closing Prayer, Mrs. A. R. Cooper.

Miss Friedrick Schilke left last evening en route for Boston, Mass., where she will study music from one of the world's greatest musicians and be a teacher of music in a girls' school. Miss Schilke was teacher of music in the La Grande high school last year and has been attending the University of Oregon until she was given the honor of going to Boston to take up this work. The best wishes of her many La Grande friends go with her on her journey.

A great deal of interest is being manifested in regard to the Sunday evening Lenten services to be given at the Presbyterian church. The program, which is illustrated with lantern slides, is of the world's famous buildings. The ladies in charge are art critics and will make the program one of the best that has ever been given in La Grande. It is as follows:

St. Marks—Mrs. L. B. Moore; Parthenon—Mrs. Albert Hunter; St. Sophia—Mrs. A. L. Richardson; St. L. Dutton, who it is always a great pleasure to hear will render a vocal solo.

The public is invited to attend this excellent program and a very interesting evening is assured.

A special program will be given Sunday evening, March 16, at the L. D. S. Tabernacle, as follows:

M. I. A. Stigan, Margaret Geddes; Reading, "The Lost Word"; Luella Metcalf; Vocal solo, with violin obligato by Miss Dorothy Caldwell, Mrs. Ray Baum; Reading, "The Lost Word"; Clayton Coakley; Musical, mandolin and piano, Mrs. Lester Bramwell and Miss Ruth Bramwell; Selection by Union Mate Quartette; Vocal solo, Elwood Gwilliams; whistling solo, Nephil Combs; Pipe organ solo, John Stoddard; Vocal solo, "Tubby"; Zundel; and baritone solo, Ira Hartley.

Clever invitations are out for a social meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

The Westminster Guild of the Presbyterian church, will meet Monday evening, March 17, at the home of Mrs. A. T. Trilling, 1802 Washington avenue, with Misses Laet, Pechin and Morris as hostesses.

The ladies society, L. E. to the R. of L. E. and E. will meet in regular session at 7:30 o'clock this evening at the K. of P. hall. All members are urged to be present as matters of importance are to be discussed. Refreshments will be served following the close of the night.

Thursday evening Mrs. Mollie Buck was given a delightful surprise party by the Rebekah lodge. A very pleasant evening was spent socially after which delicious refreshments were served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Brong, Mr. and Mrs. John Lowery, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Bonstae, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Suedane, Mrs. W. E. Mc-Clure, Mrs. Chas. Wiggles, Mrs. Stanfield, Mrs. Caimon, Mrs. Vesta Shaw, Mrs. P. P. Childers, Mrs. Ida Maate, Mrs. H. P. Nielson, Miss Jennie Nielson, Miss Gladys Benham, Miss Hug, Mrs. McCall, Mrs. Arthur Welton, Mrs. Mary Simmons, Earl Simmons, Mrs. Mary Andrews, Mrs. L. M. Bramwell and Richard Bramwell.

The Ladies Parish and Mission Society of the Zion Lutheran church met Thursday afternoon at the home of the president, Mrs. Ferdinand Jensen. Reports were so good from the social given by them in February that it was decided to give another social at Riverside Chapel on the evening of April 4th.

The Lenten Art talks given at Mrs. E. P. Mossman's have set Thursday apart as a day to be eagerly anticipated. Each afternoon brings to people the realization that La Grande is being offered art lectures the equal of any given in large cities.

In a short introduction of the meeting Thursday Mrs. Mossman gave a few of the salient points on the appreciation of art, illustrating her talk with several slides. Monday and Tuesday of Christ's last week were traced through the Biblical stories and illustrated by fine works of art.

Mrs. Albert Hunter with "Driving the Money Changers from the Temple" by Hofman; "The Seduces Tempting Christ" by Cooping, and "The Foolish Virgins" by Cooping, illustrated the points of her talk in a very able manner.

Mrs. Turner Oliver explained the many artistic features which make "The Tribute Money" by Titian one of the world's greatest masterpieces.

The Wednesday Bridge club will meet at the Country club Wednesday afternoon, March 19, with Mrs. A. J. Stango as hostess. The meeting will be held in the afternoon instead of the evening as previously announced.

Little Lace Frills. London.—There appears to be an outbreak of little lace frills. They adorn frocks, hats and the lighter capes. There is an epidemic of them on lingerie and the sleeveless evening gown sometimes has a detached lace frill around the lower arm.

Dyed Ermine. London.—The ermine won't know itself at all this season. Short coats of ermine are popular, as well as such ermine trimming—but while white is seen, the new shades are ermine dyed a cocoa or beige.

Free State Settles Damage Case. BELFAST. (AP)—Danns McCullough has been awarded $54,410 damages by the Free State for the destruction of his music shop in Dublin during Republican troubles. He was formerly Irish envoy to the United States.

The week April 27 to May 1 will be known as "National Garden Week," sponsored by the Neighborhood club of La Grande. National Garden Week is becoming an annual custom of the Federation of Women's Clubs and this year the Neighborhood club is making extensive plans to encourage this idea in La Grande more than ever before.

A definite program has been arranged for this week throughout the nation by the General Federation of Women's Clubs and a definite topic has been selected for each day. Sunday a program on The Garden is to be held in the churches; Monday "The Relation of the Garden to the Home" will be the subject; Tuesday "The Home Vegetable Garden" is the topic; Wednesday "The Garden in the Schools"; Thursday, "Gardening as Promoted by Department of Agriculture and State Agricultural College, etc.," Friday "Our Friends, the Trees," and Saturday "Children's Day."

Suggestions will be given out for the club for garden week and exhibits will appear in public libraries, book stores, etc. Federations with the Women's Clubs in this work and many inspirations are going to come through it.

Artistic Umbrellas. Paris.—Umbrellas for the showing spring day are studiously artistic. This means not only bright colors and queer designs, but also an incredibly sturdy handle and a carefully bulgy way of folding them.

Alpaca Foremost Fabric. Paris.—Alpaca is among the foremost fabrics just now. Though today it may be had in any number of colors, as well as in stripes and plaids, the black, perhaps with a small check, seems to be most favored.

Club Notes. The Club Notes, which will appear in the La Grande Evening Observer every Saturday, is open to any club wishing to make announcements of the following week's meetings or other items that would not otherwise be published in the society column.

ed this past week so that our Primary Department will have full exercises with the finishing of their own room. The morning worship hour will hear the quartet singing the anthem "O Lord, How Manifold are Thy Works" by Maimly and the minister bringing the second of the Lenten series on "Why I Believe in Christianity." It will be a helpful hour. The C. E. meeting at 6:15 in their own room, with Miss Katherine Moran as leader. In the evening hour of 7:30 the Missionary Society will have charge of service and will present pictures, "Famous Buildings of the World." We should all avail ourselves of this privilege. Over the statue, in the great reading room of the Congressional Library in Washington, that represents Religion, one reads these words: "What both the Lord require of thee but to do justly and to love mercy and to walk humbly with thy God?" In this attitude of life we go forward during these Lenten season days endeavoring to make this thought our daily practice in order that a habit might be developed for all our days.—Wm. Crosby Ross, minister.

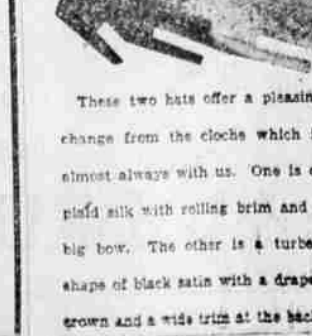

METHODIST CHURCH, SOUTH.—Sunday School 10 a. m. Sermon 11 a. m. Subject of sermon "Mansions of which God Builds His Church." Young people's service 9:30 p. m. Song praise and sermon 7:30 p. m. "Church Night," Wednesday evening. Lesson study 1. Cor. 8th chapter. Stewards meet Tuesday evening at the church, 7:30.—N. D. Wood, pastor.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.—Many thanks to all those who made possible the success of our last Sunday's evening concert, both from a musical and financial standpoint. Your support will insure an encore soon. This coming Sunday morning will again see our Sunday School offering an opportunity to all who care to study God's Truth. The sliding door has been installed

Two Hats. These two hats offer a pleasing change from the cloche which is almost always with us. One is of plaid silk with rolling brim and a big bow. The other is a turban shape of black satin with a draped crown and a wide trim at the back.

Stronger Tires. Without the strength of carcass, tread and sidewalls wherein would you expect maximum tire mileage under all road conditions? In addition to the better materials, expert hand-craftsmanship and improved compounding in these big oversize C-T-C low inflation cords—there is a heavier and stronger body to withstand the road shocks. There is also a C-T-C hand-built Ball-run tire for extreme low inflation, which fits any standard wheel and rim. C-T-C Tires add mileage to almost any casing.
