

BOSTON, Mass. (Special).—The bill, which was introduced by Representative J. J. Connelley, of Boston, and passed by the House of Representatives on March 10, 1923, is now before the Senate. It is a bill to amend the National Service Act of 1916, and to provide for the discharge of certain members of the American Legion.

PRESSURE AND SUCTION LIFE'S SECRET, CLAIM

CHICAGO, ILL.—Another key to the secrets of immortality, and a solution to the infinite mystery of life and death has been offered by a group of scientists at the University of Chicago. They claim that life is a process of pressure and suction, and that death is a process of suction. They claim that life is a process of pressure and suction, and that death is a process of suction. They claim that life is a process of pressure and suction, and that death is a process of suction.

RICHMOND, Va.—The American Legion is investigating the vocational training of all world war disabled men in Virginia to ascertain if they are being properly trained for the work best suited to them. Legion state headquarters here has charge of the survey.

ST. PAUL, Minn.—Results of a state-wide poll among ex-servicemen taken by American Legion posts on a scaled compensation show preference for insurance option of payment.

ATLANTA, Ga.—The fourth home for convalescent veterans to be opened by the American Legion in New Jersey, will soon be ready to receive patients. The new home, which is located at Millville, will serve veterans of Atlantic, Cumberland and Cape May counties. The home is designed to serve men who have been discharged from government hospitals, but whose condition is such that they may not immediately enter civil life. The project is purely a Legion affair, and is sustained by funds raised by that organization.

ALBANY, N. Y.—Distribution of the $150 state bonus authorized for former service men of New York will be made through posts of the American Legion. This is a provision of the bill signed by Governor Al Smith, and for which a bond issue will be authorized.

Help Kidneys By Drinking More Water
Take Salts to Flush Kidneys and Help Neutralize Irritating Acids

Kidney and bladder irritations often result from acidity, says a noted authority. The kidneys help filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it may remain to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread; the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse. Again there is difficulty in voiding. Bladder weakness, most folks call it because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is often one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Bladder drinking lots of soft water, also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast. Continue this for two or three days. This will help neutralize the acids in the system so they no longer are a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs, which then act normal again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by acid irritation. Jad Salts causes no bad effects whatever.
