Sherrys Showing
Douglas Fairbanks
Today Only.

When Douglas Fairbanks began the filming of "His Majesty, the American," says the management of the Sherry Theatre, where the big picture will be run today only, he broke away from every production tradition that he knew. This new film was to be Douglas Fairbanks' first release through United Artists Corporation—the "Big Four"—and inasmuch as it was to be his last as a genuine independent producer and distributor, Doug took "the bit off the cash box."

"The Virginian"
Coming to Sherrys
On Sunday.

The Great American Romance has reached the screen. At last the west, in all its beauty, romance, drama and magnificence has been captured in celluloid. "The Virginian," coming Sunday to the Sherry theatre, may be called, without exaggeration, an epoch-making picture.

When Preferred Pictures Corporation announced, some time ago, that they intended making a film version of "The Virginian," people were dubious about it. So many great stories, so many classic masterpieces have been butchered and ruined by filming that those who have loved Owen Wister's great story feared that the picture might not do it justice.

They may rest assured. The picture is better than the book. This may seem a startling statement, when it is realized that "The Virginian" has been for twenty years the supreme masterpiece of the west.

The situations which in cold type have thrilled millions are more realized in the picture. Against the most magnificent natural backgrounds ever seen in a motion picture this might drama is enacted by a cast so good that the story might have been written for them.

"The Bat"
Coming to the Arcade
Saturday, March 22.

Wagenhals and Kemper's production of "The Bat," by Mary Roberts Rinehart and Avery Hop-wood will be seen here on Saturday, March 22, as part of its third triumphant tour of the country.
"The Bat" is beyond question, the world's greatest mystery play. It was the forerunner of more than a score of mystery plays that have sought to trade on its enormous popularity. And not one has been able to prove itself a worthy rival to the honors that have been bestowed by the theatre-going public on "The Bat."

"The Bat" comes here with a record that no other play of any type was ever able to equal. It in Chicago for entire seasons in

PASTOR SEAMS DIVORCE—SOBS SHAKE CHURCH

By Condo

Because he preached a fiery sermon in which he denounced "both parties" in divorce and declared that divorce was caused sometimes by both husband and wife being at fault, Rev. W. S. Crandall, pastor of the Boulevard Methodist Episcopal church, left his congregation in tears, precipitated a rift which threatened his church, and has called the tornado, church members say, only by apologizing in person to women in the congregation.

Particularly hurt by the minister's onslaught were the leader of the choir, Ray Hartley, whose wife deserted him leaving him with two small children, and who since has been married again, and one of the leading feminine singers of the choir, Mrs. Richards, who also has obtained a divorce, and a prominent male member, now married to his fourth wife.

Since preaching the sermon Rev.
Crandall told members of his congregation he has seen the error of his way and has offered full and complete apology.

"I only hope you will forgive me," he told one of his leading members. "I wouldn't have hurt your feelings or those of anyone in the church for anything in the world. I couldn't have been thinking of what I was saying."

The sermon, starting mildly and quietly, rose swiftly to such vehement heights that it took the congre-gation's breath. With church members facing him who had lost their mates by desertion or infidelity, he flung at them the challenge that "it takes two to make a quarrel, and both parties are in some way to blame."

The women were worked up to such an emotional peak that at the end of the discourse they were openly sobbing. One of them said that if the apology had not been
