"The Virginian" Filmed in Beautiful Spot in Sierras.

Filming a picture in the primitive cattle country—the one remaining stronghold of the cowpuncher that Owen Wister immortalized—has its handicaps as well as its advantages. Tom Forman made this discovery when he filmed all of the "exteriors" for the elaborate Preferred Picture, "The Virginian," in a wildly beautiful spot in the high Sierras which is almost untouched by the hand of civilization.

Here are some of the highlights of that production which will occupy the screen at the Sherry Theatre today and tomorrow.

Neither automobile nor locomotive ever has been seen in the great cup in the mountains in which the picture was filmed.

The company spent six weeks in camp, nearly eight miles from telephone or telegraph.

Most of the outdoor scenes were shot ten miles above sea level.

Fifty mules were constantly employed in packing supplies to the camp, an eight-hour journey from the end of the wagon road.

A mountain village was built by Director Tom Forman, who had absolute dictatorship over three hundred inhabitants.

"The Bat" Coming To Arcade Saturday, March 22.

"The Bat," greatest mystery play in the recollection of the present generation of theatregoers, will be presented at the Arcade theater on Saturday night by Wagenhals and Kemper, its producers. This masterpiece of mystery plays, written by Mary Roberts Rinehart and Avery Hopwood has withstood every test to which it has been submitted and today is acknowledged to be the greatest play of its kind ever written. It is the one play of modern times that goes back year after year, filling its theaters, many of its audiences having seen it often before.

The record of "The Bat" speaks for itself. No words are needed, nor could mere words, embellish in any way, that record.

Katherine McDonald Plays Four Parts In "Norma O'Neill."

Katherine MacDonald, star of the First National picture "Chastity," opening at the Arcade theatre today, plays four famous personalities in her part of "Norma O'Neill."

"Chastity" is a play within a play, with the star appearing in the role of a struggling young actress.

First, the actress is herself, poised, calm, and repressed; secondly, she appears as a Christian slave in the time of Caesar; third, the player is Lucie and finally, La Tosca.

In each costume, the star's beauty is declared to fit the character.

Supporting Miss MacDonald are such local favorites as Huntley Gordon, Gordon Russell, Glennis Davis, Edythe Chapman, Frederick Truesdell and Lew Mason.

PIONEER RELICS FOUND

THE DALLES, Or., — An ox yoke staple and ring, relics of days when covered wagons drawn by oxen lumbered over the Oregon trail and through what is now known as The Dalles and Columbia gorge were uncovered here today by excavators digging trenches for cable lines leading into the new building of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company.

The relics probably had been buried more than a half a century, in the opinion of local pioneer residents. They will be given to The Dalles Historical society, according to Manager Butcher of the telephone company.

Royal Wines and Liquors Sold in Imperial Palace

VIENNA, (AP) — The ground floor of a magnificent wing of one of the most imposing imperial palaces of Vienna soon is to be opened to the public as a fashionable restaurant, cake shop, and wine room. In the last named will be dispensed the choicest vintages of the former imperial cellars. Thus has Vienna found a partial answer to the problem of how to use advantageously the many buildings which for generations have been in the possession of the ruling family of Hapsburg.

The structure in question was built to be the residence of the ill-fated Archduke Rudolph, son of the late Emperor Francis Joseph. Its windows look out upon beautiful private gardens. The upper floors will be used as a museum, library, and public reading rooms, while on the top story it will be possible for business firms to rent offices.

Radio Broadcast for Japan.

TOKIO, (AP) — Radio broadcasting, an old story to Americans, but yet to be introduced to Japan, will come soon. Two Nagoya millionaires, Kinosuke Kanno and Tominosuke Kadono, have applied to the government for license to form and operate the Nagoya Radiophone Company, capitalized at 500,000 yen. The company expects to serve all central Japan with daily news, market and weather reports, later adding lectures, and concerts.

Swedish School Children Take Readily to Swimming

STOCKHOLM, (AP) — The nation-wide drive in Sweden, which aims to make every school child a good swimmer, has scored notable results in the city of Stockholm, according to official reports.

Systematic competitions have been held jointly by state, municipal, and private schools, and the records show that in some institutions 85 percent of the pupils can swim more than 300 feet at test conditions. In the high schools the average is 38 per cent for the 100 meter distance, while in the grade schools 32 percent of the children can swim at least 80 feet. Nearly 8,000 pupils passed the rigid tests.
