

NEWS of SOCIETY

Mrs. L. I. Busby entertained last evening at the home of Mrs. W. B. Picketts with a delightful bridge party. The evening was pleasantly spent with high honors going to Norman Preen and Mrs. J. I. Ingle, after which a delicious two course luncheon was served.

The art talks and pictures for Sunday evening at the Presbyterian church will be "The Famous Temples and the World's Best Known Abbeys." These lectures are not only interesting and beautiful but are educational and should be attended by the children as well as the adults.

Mrs. O. E. Silverthorn will give a talk on the temple, Chartre, to which she has given much time and thought. Mrs. H. J. Ritter will describe the Westminster Abbey, which is one of the favorite Art subjects. Mrs. Robert Eakin will review Notre Dame and as she has visited this temple, in Paris, will be able to speak with authority and Mrs. Leo Miller will be soloist for the evening.

The public is invited to attend these very interesting evening services, which begin at 7:30 o'clock.

Chapter I. P. E. O. held an unusually interesting meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Cornelia Mossman. After a short business session the subject of "American Art" was most ably handled by Mrs. Mossman, who gave an interesting talk on American artists and presented a series of their works through a series of lantern slides of works of sculpture or paintings. It was a very instructive afternoon and great interest was manifested by all present.

Several members were present from Elgin and before adjournment delicious refreshments were served by the committee in charge consisting of Mrs. Edith Curry, Mrs. Nina Dutton and Mrs. Edna Seliz.

Mrs. William F. Hill, wife of Rev. William F. Hill, pastor of the local Lutheran church, arrived in La Grande with her youngest son, Theodore, after an extended visit with her son, James, living near Mt. Vernon, Washington, before following her husband to this field.

Mrs. F. Schilke left this morning to spend the day in Pendleton, where she will be present at a Welfare meeting, given under the auspices of the Portland school of social work.

Wallowa. (Special to the Observer)—The Women's club of Wallowa are giving a social Monday evening, March 24, at which time the Enterprise club will give a delightful musical entertainment. Everyone is invited and a good attendance is desired.

Wallowa. (Special to the Observer)—A delightful social affair will take place Tuesday evening, March 25, when the Pythian Sisters will give a charming party at the high school gymnasium. These events do not take place often and this one is being eagerly looked forward to. Cards will be a feature of the evening along with a beautiful musical program.

Union.—The Women's club was delightfully entertained Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank Sturill. Following the regular business meeting a very entertaining St. Patrick's program was given, with Mesdames Beryl Hutchinson, Nellie Lattier and Lillie Cross as leaders. The program consisted of an instrumental solo, "Value," by Ethel Wetzel; "The Irishman's Panorama," Jennie Cook; "An Italian Song," Mrs. Hutchinson; Irish Monologues, "The Irish Widow," Agnes Paddock; instrumental solo, Mildred Kennedy; vocal solo, "Irish Lullaby," Edith Phy, and vocal solo, "The Butterfly," Pearl McClay.

Over fifty ladies were present and following the program a delicious luncheon was served.

Union.—The ladies of the Lucky Thirteen club were entertained at a St. Patrick's party Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Martens. A chicken pie dinner was served at 7 o'clock. Following a most delicious dinner bridge was played at five tables, after which a playlet entitled "Sewing Society" was given by the hostesses for the evening, Mrs. Margaret Smith, Mrs. Emily Schuster, Mrs. Fannie Faddock, Mrs. Nellie Lattier, Mrs. Elizabeth Phillips and Mrs. Grace Martens. Everyone enjoyed a pleasant evening.

Union.—A delightful birthday party was given Mrs. Thomas Graham Wednesday afternoon by her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Jacobs. The afternoon was spent socially and a beautiful musical program was given, after which a delicious luncheon was served. Before adjournment many good wishes were showered upon Mrs. Graham, hoping that she would have many more happy birthdays.

Will Be Used

Here is a type of suit that is going to be very much in evidence as soon as the weather permits. The wide checks come in bright and dull color combinations, and the tailored shirt and plain hat are the proper accessories.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Norman Jesse, one of the sophomores, had a birthday Wednesday, and made the mistake of allowing it to become known, at noon the boys rushed for him and from the beating he received one would imagine him to be as old as Methuselah.

Against the date March 25th, when the Chemistry class will be due, many of the high school students are rushing their ideas onto paper. Although the rewards are great, it is not with an eye to this, but to the honor of La Grande High School that each student is bending his every effort to excel. And we have every reason to believe that the best efforts of La Grande High are very good.

There has been considerable excitement, and we might say, envy, the last few days created by some of the stories that are circulating about the "trip to Salem." Some of the boys even learned a thing or two while in Portland, and everyone of them reported having a wonderful time.

The practice in Portland, in the Multnomah Club Gymnasium was enjoyed to the last minute by everyone. The boys also enjoyed the hospitality of Willamette University, the trips through the state institutions, and the view in the new million dollar Elks Temple in Portland.

The last, straggling automobile of enthusiastic La Grande people came home from Salem Wednesday, when Mr. Scanton, conqueror of his ill-fated cat, lenient and reached town. The Student Body has been quite worried over their failure to return with the rest and feel vastly relieved that at last they are back.

Monday afternoon a short assembly was held for the boys. Mr. Torber reminded the boys that the program from the Boy's Stunt Show was to be used for the construction of the new track, football, and baseball fields. The meeting has then turned over to Coach MacTavish who spoke to the boys about the coming track season. This was followed by a short and concise speech on the same subject by W. K. Gilbert.

After school the track boys were again assembled and MacTavish took charge of them. The turnout for track this year is over a hundred, and is the largest body of boys that has ever turned out to support the record that has been set by the L. H. S. the last few years.

An assembly was called Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock to advertise for the Boy's Stunt Show, and to distribute tickets for the students to sell. In this as in most other student activities there is a contest among the classes. The class that sells the most tickets will be given five points, the next, four points, then two and one. Near the end of the school year the number of points won by each class is counted and the class having the most is voted the "peppiest" class in school.

The students were favored with a short skit from the Stunt Show in which James Coker took the leading part. It was very cleverly put on and was enjoyed by the entire student body. The Stunt Show was given Friday evening at 8:15 and a large attendance was present.

The students taking part in the oratorical contest, Ruth Scott, Lillie Leighton, Sam Cochran, Jack Dennis, Douglas Moore, Claude Wilcock, Roy Gates, Elmer Harnden, and Mildred Fox are just finishing up their preparations for the delivery of their orations. Some very good orations have been handed in and more are coming in every day. They are now memorizing them and will be ready to deliver them before the student body on March 31st.

Frank McClung, Marion Headley, Jack Dutt, Alice Hoffman, Geo. Fuller, Alfred Bushnell, Kenneth Frohman, Pearl Keeney, Hilda Holbertson, Ruth Baigeman, Alice Scott and Bertha Howard have entered the contest since it started so that there is now quite a group of them.

La Grande Theatres

Jack Livingston in "Scars of Hate" At Sherrys Today.

If Jack Livingston, the talented young screen actor to be seen at Sherry's today only in "Scars of Hate," could have his way he would recommend a pension for all old horses and let them graze away their lives in peaceful valleys on sun-kissed hillside.

Livingston, who is one of the best known Western stars on the screen, has lived with horses all his life, and is never seen in a picture without one of his beautiful animals.

"Scars of Hate" Livingston is seen doing some of the most thrilling stunts of their careers. Livingston is supported by Mary Wynn, in the role of Marcia Bowers, an eastern heiress who travels west as the ranchman's wife. Al Ferguson as Elliot Howe is said to give a wonderful performance. Comedy skits "My Friend,"

Harold Lloyd Coming Monday in "Safety Last."

The location is twelve stories above the street. Clinging to the side of the building, two-thirds of the way up, with a dozen pigeons roosting on his head is Harold Lloyd. The crowd below, amused but frightened, watch breathlessly while the spectacled comedian continues his upward climb, overcoming the most difficult and hilarious obstacles.

This is just one of the impressions you will get when you see Lloyd's seven-reel Pathé comedy, "Safety Last," at the Arcade Theatre Monday. And what a comedy! There have been riotous two-reel comedies produced in the past by monster comedians, but never before has one been seen in seven reels that inspired at such a fast pace.

How Harold Lloyd performs his stunts is a mystery. It is certain that he did them himself, for his face is seen plainly in every hazardous predicament he encounters. When a young man attempts to climb the side of a twelve story building in the place of a real "human fly" and meets hilarious trouble every foot of the way up the result is a continuous run of uproarious laughter.

An exceptional film event is offered local patrons of the silver screen in the announcement of the coming of "Tiger Rose" at the Sherry Theatre three days beginning Monday.

Good Vaudeville Bill Coming Sunday To Arcade.

At the Arcade Theatre on Sunday this high class vaudeville will make its bid for patronage with an all-star feature bill.

Thomas Potter Dunne, "The Mayor of Hapsyland," reserves all honors as an entertainer, comedian and premier dialectician. Knight and Field Sisters, "Dancing Privileges," two pretty and talented young ladies and a clever gent in a potpourri of singing, dancing, and comedy numbers with plenty of ability and spiritfulness. May & Ed Tenny, an added attraction in a contrivance novelty in which the female in this offering is the only lady who has accomplished this art. The Pantzer Bros., in artistic athletic achievements, are known the world over as premier performers.

Supporting Lenora Eric, are the following: Gorrest Stanley, Joseph Dowling, Andre De Bergeron, Sam De Grasse and Theodore Von Lillie. Also showing a comedy.

Coming to the Arcade Theatre for two performances matinee and night, with the Harvey's Greater Minstrels is the marvelous ventriloquist, known as the King of that difficult art, Johnny Woods, and also pronounced one of our greatest minstrel stars. He not only excels as a wonderful ventriloquist in a musical act but is a great comedian and a wonderful eccentric dancer. Johnny is fat but cannot help it, and he must smile at all times—so Johnny with his perfect round figure and round smiling face can bring a laugh a second at any time he makes his appearance.

Club Notes

The Club Notes, which will appear in the La Grande Evening Observer every Saturday, is open to any club wishing to make announcements of the following week's meetings or other items that would not otherwise be published in the society column.

Love lovers of La Grande will be glad to know that the Neighborhood club has chosen as its club room, the Lady Billington. This room was chosen after a thorough investigation of roses best suited to the locality. The Garden Week committee presented four hardy out of door roses to the club and were very much pleased when they chose the variety. The rose is of a beautiful deep apricot yellow, resembling the club colors. It is an excellent garden rose and the long pointed buds are laping and the foliage unusually handsome.

The club members who know this rose hope that all members of the club will take an interest and plant them in their spring gardens.

A very interesting meeting of the Ladies' Committee of the Neighborhood club was held Wednesday afternoon and plans were perfected for the raising of the funds for this year. Beginning early next week each member will be notified of the different methods or plans for raising the quota in order that the work can be pushed as rapidly as possible. It was also decided to have plants in the business district, where those having articles to sell may have a list of things to be made up such as cooking and sewing or plants that orders might be taken from anyone desirous of purchasing.

Miss Bertha Froudy, of Hill's Department store will gladly take the names of those wishing to make home dresses, children's clothes, aprons, fancy work, etc. Mrs. Eckley and others will have several varieties of Astor plants.
