STRIBLING TO TRY FOR TITLE

Mike McTigue and Georgian School Boy to Don Gloves in Newark Tonight.

NEW YORK (AP)—Mike McTigue, guardian of the world's 175-pound pugilistic togs will meet one of the most formidable opponents in his division in Newark, N. J. tonight when he crawls through the ropes against Young Stribling, Macon, Ga., school boy in a 12-round no decision match.

Physically the two light heavyweights will be well matched. Stribling faces the task of having to stop McTigue or win on a foul to gain the title which the veteran Irish American won [illegible] from Battling Siki. If the battle goes the limit, Mike will not lose his crown even if outpointed.

McTigue has been like [illegible] sensational since with Stribling in Columbus, Ga., last October when the Georgian boy kept himself on edge with a steady campaign of bouts.

The McTigue-Stribling bout will be started at 10 p. m., and is preceded by several preliminaries including a 10-round semi-final match between Paul Berlenbach, hard hitting New Yorker, [illegible]

IMBLER NINE IS VICTORIOUS

Elgin High School Beaten 21 to 1 in Opening Game of Baseball Season.

IMBLER, Ore. (Special to the Observer)—Friday afternoon witnessed the opening of the high school baseball season in this district when the Imbler and Elgin teams met for the initial game at Elgin at the county fair grounds. Imbler captured the contest with the overwhelming score of 21 to 1.

The weather, while not prohibitive to laying, was far from ideal and light showers before the game and during the fifth and sixth innings handicapped the players of both teams.

While the Elgin team was decisively beaten, it nevertheless deserves credit for taking on last year's champions this early in the season and for holding the score down during the early part of the game.

Summary: Score by innings:

Team	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	Total
Imbler	4	[illegible]	1	[illegible]	2	5	3	6	[illegible]	21
Elgin	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	1	[illegible]	[illegible]	1

Lineups: Imbler: Marshall ss, Keown 2b, Wilson cf, Spears c, McKennon 3b, Payne 1b, Stewart lf, Hamilton rf, Ledbetter p, Welch p. Elgin: Hill c, Townsend 2b, McCallister 3b, Wickens p, Cason lf, Richards ss, Meade 1b, Royer rf, Witty cf, Oates p.

Next Friday will find Cove playing at Imbler. Cove is looked upon as Imbler's most dangerous opponent of the season. Preceding the boys' game a five inning game will be played by the girls of the two schools.

Some teams on Imbler's schedule this year are Haines, North Powder, Wallowa, Joseph, Cove and Elgin.
