STREET OFFICIALS
THE DALLAS, Tex. — While a Whelan county grand jury was preparing to probe alleged moral delinquencies in The Dallas high school, for which two girls and three boys were said to have been sent home, other internal discussions came to a head with the resignation of Will E. Wiley, superintendent, which was accepted by the board.

The grand jury has censured Wiley and has been censured for his actions in the delinquency cases, but had been publicly attacked by members of a citizens' delegation as it would interfere with the school board for refusing to recommend the resignation of Barry E. Tate, head of the high school commercial department.

Think how hard it will be when the women control and a man can't get a job unless he has a good shape.

Donkholms, County Opposed
COTTAGE GROVE, Ore. — Citizens of Cottage Grove, American Legion, have come on record as opposing the movement of a small part of the northern portion of Klamath county to Donkholms, a large colony of when they said to be planning of move to this county from Astoria.

The principal objection to the settlement is that they do not have citizenship and have possible ideas about obeying the laws of the land.
