Annual Banquet Successful Event

Approximately two hundred people were in attendance at the Junior-Senior banquet Saturday evening and everyone present had a delightful time. The banquet, consisting of fruit cocktail, creamed chicken in patty shells, mashed potatoes, corn in a Southern, grape sherbet, pickles, olives, hot rolls, strawberry short cake, nuts, mints and coffee, was served at 8:20 o'clock in the Home Economics department of the high school. The banquet room and tables were charmingly decorated in Dutch style, red and yellow tulle and lamps with shades in the form of tulips as center-pieces. The placards and menu was in the form of a wooden shoe and very attractively arranged at each place.

Fringe has been used with unusually good effect on this frock of beige crepe embellished with brown embroidery. The fringe is of alternate stripes of beige and brown. The line of the tunic is very smart and could be used on a less elaborate frock, edged with self material instead of fringe.

During the banquet the Welcome was given by the toastmaster, Bernard Hummel; Sheldon Brownford gave the toast, "I beat the Dutch"; A. C. Hampton, "Daming the Dykes"; Clark Price, "Cheese It"; A. T. Hill, "Dutch Cleanser Applied"; and Mrs. A. V. Lindgren, "Seniors Ya". Mrs. E. played the piano and Dick Lindsay the violin during the serving of the banquet, by sophomore girls dressed in Dutch costumes.

Following the banquet all those entering to dance went to the gymnasium of the high school, which was cleverly decorated to represent Holland. A real windmill, with a lighted revolving wheel was in evidence at one end of the gym, where punch was served by girls dressed in Dutch costumes. Window boxes of tulips were artificial, arranged under the windows, where blue and white curtains were hung. At the other end of the gym was a Dutch scene, made by Miss Grace Gobel. It showed a windmill, a boat on a canal and Dutch figures. Along the sides of the room a clever effect was made by streamers of yellow and blue.

The dance started with a grand march, with music furnished by Lindsay Brownford and Sheldon Brownford. The evening Miss Faye Martin gave a charming dance, a bolero favor dance was featured, and a boy favor dance, adding to the excitement of the evening.

The patronesses for the affair were Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Kitchin, Mr. and Mrs. Hummel, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Bergant, Mr. and Mrs. H. Hoffman, Mrs. V. R. Bean and Mr. Webb.

Mrs. H. A. Zurbriek was hostess to the Clio club last week at her home on Main street. Bridge was the feature of the afternoon and seven tables were at play, with high honors for the club prize going to Mrs. Norman Frock. The guest prize to Mrs. Fieda Kladner and Mrs. LeRoy, winning the consolation prize.

The home was artistically decorated with pink tulips, and green sprays and during the afternoon a dainty luncheon was served by the charming hostess.

Little Clifton Caps.
London—One of the prettiest styles at the moment is that of the little clifton caps that has no pretensions of being anything but an ornament. It is usually colored, often of some soft pastel color, and hangs down the middle of the face, being not quite wide enough to touch either shoulder.

New York—One of the newest types of the new street pump is "gray ooze." It is piped with very narrow bands of black patent leather attached in silver.

Rainbow Lingerie.
New York—Lingerie today is borrowing its colors from the rainbow. In corsetry, the under garments are lined with violet, yellow, rose and blue. Sometimes the tinting is achieved by means of successive finishes.

The Garden

CROP ROTATION IN THE GARDEN.

The same crops should not occupy the same space in the garden from year to year. There are several reasons for this. One of the chief ones is to avoid perpetuating disease which may have afflicted some of the vegetables the germs of which may carry over in the soil. As members of the cabbage tribe and the bean and pea family suffer from different ailments, their positions should be switched in order that any such pests may be discontinued.

A good plan is to reverse last year's plan and then change it again next year. This furnishes a rotation of crops. If this is not done at least the arrangement should be changed by moving the sections devoted to one vegetable this year to some other position in the garden removed a few feet at least next year.

A good rule would be to plant the root crops next year where the leaf crops such as lettuce and spinach have grown this year or to place the root crops the space last year was left vacant. A term applied to growers of the garden and house family, have been this year. It will not be a difficult matter to study out this arrangement with a little practice.

Planting the taller growing crops such as corn and tomatoes on one side of the garden one year and then moving them over to the other side the following season will be a convenient method of securing rotation. If rotation cannot be conveniently arranged because of the small size of the plot, the best way is to make up for the deficiency by careful fertilizing and occasional tilling of the soil to sweeten it up.

HUNT'S LETTER

distinctly republican leanings and may be expected to break away from the democratic fold and lead a revolution which will sweep away forever the political tyranny which has beamed the south since the days of reconstruction.

He declared he believed the time had arrived when the republicans of Georgia are ready to arise in their strength and "place that state permanently in the republican ranks."

Now the question is: Are all the political prophets out of step except Phillips? Or did Phillips' visit with Cal and his consequent faith in a republican victory cause his optimism to outrun his caution?

A new battery of runners-up for the republican vice presidential nomination has appeared during the past week.

"You Indians, proposed as a balance to offset the influence of Ribston on the democratic side, Albert J. Beveridge and Jim Watson, the latter a Hoosier senator, the former an ex-senator. Beveridge supposedly "progressive." Watson admittedly "conservative." The convention may take its choice.

More seriously, however, outside circles of Hoosier influence, in the suggestion of General John J. Pershing put forward.

Pershing, his friends believe, would make up in force and physique the physical elements of appeal which "Coolidge lacks, "Cal and Jack," they opine would make a great team.

However, Charley Dawes, whose vice presidential possibilities were dismissed in these letters two weeks ago, still looks to be the best bet.

Legal Red Tape Drives Inventor to His Grave

The statute, which it is hoped may exert a calming influence on the capital, will be placed in Meridian Hill park.

BUCHAREST, Rumania (AP)—The registration of patents in the states of southeastern Europe is attended today with so much red tape, vexatious delay, and uncertainty, that one discouraged Rumanian inventor recently committed suicide. After this he explains the strain of getting protection for his idea. Several other persons interested in patents in one way or another have gone insane.

SAGE TEA TURNS GRAY HAIR DARK

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray or streaked, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't bother to prepare the mixture; you can get this famous old recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients at a small cost, all ready for use. It is called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color and lustre of your hair.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy and lustrous.
