"Mothers-in-Law" Attraction at Sherrys Today and Wednesday.

The man who first stated that there was nothing new under the sun was probably the one to add that there was nothing new to be staged in the way of elaborate picture dramas.

"Mothers-in-Law" is a western drama to live with all its humor and love interest. A tenderfoot arrives from the east and straightway finds himself in wrong with a band of tough desert characters and cattle thieves.

"The Heritage of the Desert" which opens at the Star theatre today. It's an Irvin Willat production featuring Babe Danalis, Everett Torrance, Noah Berry and Lloyd Hughes.

Jackie Coogan Gives Cop Hard Chase in Picture at Arcade.

Jackie Blair was completely awoken when the policeman entered the room and found the little girl in a suspicious manner, and he became alarmed when the cop started to search the house attending the party.

"Why did you run?" asked the policeman. She pishly, Jackie emptied his loaded waist, and on the table deposited his contents, consisting of grapes, oranges and cake. "I took them for him," mumbled Jackie, pointing to the figure of the old captain, confined to his bed by rheumatism.

"That where is the husband?" demanded the officer. "I didn't take any handling money, miss," returned the girl. "My father was the one." And so it proved, saving Jackie from the terror of jail which had gripped his innocent soul.

Jackie's adventures are depicted in a highly amusing manner in "My Boy," Jackie Coogan's latest starring vehicle for Associated Artists National agency, which is now being shown at the Arcade theatre. Child Billingwater supports Jackie as the Old Captain.
