Llamas Used to Trim Lawns
LONDON (AP)—For reasons of economy, and to make use of some of the inmates, the London Zoo authorities are starting llama and llama to trim the lawns. The llama are kept from straying by wire fencing, and the llamas are tethered by a long rope which gives them a 20 foot grazing circle.

Piles Are Absorbed Never to Return
After years of patient, painstaking effort on the part of a well known doctor, a prescription has been found that will actually heal Piles and absorb them so to return.

No man or woman need suffer another hour with any discomfort, pain or soreness arising from rectal troubles—Piles—now that this wonderful prescription known as MOAYA can be obtained for a moderate price at any first-class drug store on the money-back if dissatisfied plan.

You'll be amazed to see how quickly it acts. Blessed relief often comes in an hour, even in cases of long standing with profuse bleeding, really wonderful results have been accomplished.

Simply ask the local Cross Drug Co. for a small box of MOAYA SUPPOSITORIES, being careful to follow the simple directions that come in each box. Mail orders accepted. —Adv.

American Lawyers Invited To Visit French Capital
DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Members of the American Bar association who attended the special meeting of the association to be held in London during the week of July 21 have been invited to be the guests of the Order of Advocates of Paris, France, during their trip to Europe. The invitation was issued to H. E. L. Sauer, of Dallas, president of the association, by M. Toureux, president of the Paris order.

Mr. Sauer also has received in-itations from the Scottish Bar as-sociation at Edinburgh, and the Irish Bar association at Dublin. The invitations were referred to John W. Davis of New York, chair-man of the London committee.

Trouble Ended When "Trouble" Came

The four-legged hero of the south today is, strangely enough, named "Trouble." The intrepid 3-year-old collie saved the lives of Virginia Hastings (shown with him in the picture) and Harvey Alexander, aged 3, when the two children were attacked by vicious dogs on the Hastings farm near Jonesboro, Ga. The scene had shown an out from the Alex-ander child and were rescuing the little girl when the dog had arrived and drove them off.

THOMAS KAY GIVEN BOOST

The Medford Mail-Tribune, of Medford, Oregon, recently carried an editorial of statewide interest. Tom Kay, candidate for state treasurer on the republican ticket, is the subject of the article, which is reprinted below in full.

"In this age of political flim-flam, to discover in the swarms of office seekers, one candidate over whom it is possible to become genuinely enthusiastic.

"Such a candidate of Thomas K. Kay of Salem, who has filed for state treasurer on the republican ticket.

"In Mr. Kay one finds that rare phenomenon—particularly rare in the state of Oregon—of a man made for the job to which he aspires.

"Mr. Kay not only has had the experience—from 1917 to 1919—he was one of the best state treasurers Oregon ever had,—but he has these qualities of mind and character which are peculiarly needed in the office of state treasurer at the present time.

"In marked contrast with the prevailing type of office seeker, who cares about the state like a rudderless balloon willing to do anything or promise anything that may bring him a few votes, Mr. Kay is today, and always has been, a man of principle, a man of courage, always in the open fight for the things in which he has believed, regardless of consequences and always—right or wrong—in possession of the facts.

"The exact explanation has slipped our memory, but it had to do with certain profits in the treasury department which until Mr. Kay took office had always been accepted as one of the legitimate emoluments of the position.

"But he took in the treasury," said Kay, "that belongs to the people." And ever since then, the state treasurers of Oregon have followed this example.

"There! you have Thomas K. Kay!"

There will be everlasting peace soon after people learn to stand and uncover when a pacifist passes by.

Call for Bids.

Sealed bids will be received by the Commission of the City of La Grande, Oregon for the construction of a number of his staff, containing several thousand dollars.

"What's that?" asked Mr. Kay.

"That's yours," was the reply.

"How come?" asked Mr. Kay, or words to that effect.

"The exact explanation has slipped our memory, but it had to do with certain profits in the treasury department which until Mr. Kay took office had always been accepted as one of the legitimate emoluments of the position.

"But he took in the treasury," said Kay, "that belongs to the people." And ever since then, the state treasurers of Oregon have followed this example.

"There! you have Thomas K. Kay!"
