LA GRANDERS CONTINUE TO HIT 'EM OUT

In their game with Pirtle at Pasco, Wash., Sunday the shooting Grangers kept up their hitting extravagance despite the fact that they made but four runs. Thirteen safeties were registered, which brought the team average up to .285 for the season. The total Sunday hit .368.

Hube Davis is now leading the regulars with a percentage of .462, in 27 times at bat. Davis has connected with 12 hits. Nelson is second with .321, Peckham third with .313 and Alexander fourth with .304.

Hector McInnis, who has been serving as a pinch hitter, has landed on the ball twice out of three times up giving him a percentage of .667. The official list follows:

Local Shop Baseball Nine Is Defeated

The Rieth Shopmen stole a march on the local shop team Sunday on their own home grounds, defeating the La Grande nine 12 to 12 in 11 innings.

Herman Vestal started on the mound for La Grande pitching to Scriber and went the route for nine innings when he was replaced by his brother Rudy Vestal who pitched the remainder of the game. The La Grande team played well and made few errors but were out of luck in the final frame of the 11th inning.

Hible pitched the entire game for the Rieth nine with Wirch receiving. In the preceding game between the two teams played several weeks ago the La Grande team came out the victor with a score of 12 to 5.

Bone Expert Cannot Tell Why Cards and Browns Lose Contests

ST. LOUIS (INS)—Circuit Judge George E. Hitz, presiding at the trial of a $15,000 damage suit brought by William C. Lowe, motorman, against the United Railways for alleged injuries, cast judicial aloofity to the winds when Dr. Robert Hyland, witness for the plaintiff, identified himself as the official physician of the St. Louis American and National League baseball clubs.

Seeking visions of "inside dope" on the Cardinals and Browns, his honor leaned forward toward the witness, resting his chin in his palms.

"So you are the bone specialist for the Browns and Cardinals?" the judge asked, with emphasis on the "bone."

Dr. Hyland nodded.

"Confess, just the man I've been looking for for several years," the court continued. "No doubt you can tell me what is the matter with the St. Louis teams. Why can't they win ball games?"

"That's too deep for an ordinary physician," Dr. Hyland replied in far worse a state than anyone, except those on the bubble, realized. Experts say that the claim made that America is on a realm of air compared with Japan's three is exaggerated, but it is believed here that the basis of fifty and a half to three is not far wrong.

Secretary of Navy Wilbur doesn't take kindly to these resolutions, probably on account of the administration's talk of further disarmament. But recent leaks make further expense difficult to forestall.

Investigations by committee committees have been progressing so long that they are settled to be a full mile. But they continue to set the pace.

Senate office building operators now call their floors something like this:

"Main floor—food hearings!

"Second floor—world court go! Wheeler indictment!

"Third floor—oil leasings and Mosely frauds!

"Fourth floor—Daugherty investigation!"

VETERANS CLOSE MEET

SALEM, Ore.—Edward L. Peet of Salem was elected commander of the disabled American Veterans of World wars at the closing session of the fourth annual convention of the organization here. Other officers elected included Theodore H. Green, Salem, state vice commander; H. E. Shaw, Corvallis, state treasurer, and M. Wesley Gore, Salem, state chaplain. Erban A. Keppinger, Corvallis, is state adjutant.

A number of resolutions were adopted by the convention, the most important of which indorsed without amendments the so-called Reed bill relating to assistance for veterans.

The meeting place for next year will be announced later by the state commander.

O. A. C. POLO TEAM WINNER

VANCOUVER, Wash. (Special)—With Oregon Agricultural college's crack polo team leader, 15 to 2, at the start of the sixth chukker, Seattle staged a desperate rally in the last two chukkers and outplaying the visiting collegians in every phase of the game, scored three goals to the Aggies' one but the lead was too much for the Puget Sound team to overcome and O. A. C. won the fourth game of the Pacific northwest polo tournament here Monday afternoon, 18 to 5.

The Seattle team, playing its second match game since it was first organized showed itself to be a vastly improved team over the one that fell before Boise Saturday. The Puget Sound players, overawed by their experienced opponents, did not let themselves out until the last two chukkers but when they finally did get started they displayed polo skill and horsemanship hitherto unsuspected. At the end of the first half the score was 12 to 1 in favor of O. A. C. Lieutenant J. B. Christhonson proved the individual star of the day, scoring 4 goals. Captain P. M. Fuecker carried off individual honors for Seattle playing an excellent field game and scoring two goals.

Camp Lewis and Boise will meet tomorrow.

Millers to Meet in Denver.

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—The Association of Operative Millers will hold its twenty-ninth annual convention in Denver during the week of June 2 to 7, according to a recent announcement. Membership in the association includes representatives from all parts of the United States, Canada and England, and even China and Japan. Arrangements are being made for the entertainment of 2,000 millers and their families.

Technical problems of milling operation and allied subjects will make up the major part of the convention program.

Such popularity must be deserved

POPULARITY isn't luck. How well the big stars of baseball know this.

And in merchandising as in baseball, big success is scored only by deserving it. A product, too, must "deliver the goods."

Who Owns Wall Street?

A few rich men? No. The many millions of people whose bank deposits and investments are the credit basis upon which American business and agriculture builds. You are one of the owners of Wall Street!

Wall Street today means American finance. On "Main Street," wherever there is business and banking—there is Wall Street.

The great service of Wall Street is to gather and distribute money for use in productive industry and agriculture—for the good of the many as well as the few.

This bank is glad to be a financial friend to those owners of Wall Street who want to get the most benefit from their ownership.
