G. A. MARTIN HERE SUNDAY

District Deputy Supreme Dictator Among Guests of Moose Order.

District Deputy Supreme Dictator George A. Martin, of Marshfield, Ore., was one of the guests of La Grande Lodge No. 559, Local Order of Moose and of the Oregon Legion No. 145 Sunday.

Mr. Martin insisted in the ritualistic work of the legion that day. The legion went into session at 11:30 o'clock Sunday morning at Zuber hall and at 1:30 p. m. the members and all paraded to the ball grounds. The legion then reorganized at 7:30 p. m. for the burlesque degree after which a banquet was served to all members, including 20 newly initiated candidates.

After the banquet Mr. Martin gave an interesting talk on the principals and aims of Masonry and Masonic service and also touched upon the condition of various lodges throughout Oregon.

Any breaking out of the skin on face, neck, arms or body is overcome quickly by applying Mentho Sulphur. The pimples seem to dry right up and go away, declares a noted skin specialist. Nothing has ever been found to take the place of sulphur as a pimple remover. It is harmless and inexpensive. Just ask any druggist for a small jar of Poulter's Mentho Sulphur and use it like cold cream.

Japan Extends National Law To Cover Saghalien Island

TOKYO, (AP).—To knit Japanese Saghalien more closely to the rest of the empire, the cabinet has decided to put into force there several laws which heretofore have not applied to the northern possession. These include the conscription law, which will make inhabitants of Saghalien liable to service in the army, the nationality law, and the census registration law, all calculated to increase the control of the central government.

The southern half of Saghalien, which became a Japanese possession as a result of the Russo-Japanese war, has made remarkable progress in the development of administrative organs and community life, according to Tokyo officials, and the time is considered ripe to administer that territory as an integral part of the empire.

As we get better acquainted with the "suppressed" or "other-made" we begin to understand why they were suppressed.

HUNT'S LETTER

fight is not a personal one. As speaker of the House he has more power and prerogatives than he would have as a simple senator. But with Calvin Coolidge, the favorite son of Massachusetts, leading the Republican national ticket this year, the possibility that Walsh, a Democrat, may win reelection to the Senate is enough to throw G. O. P. leaders into chills and a cold sweat every time they think of it.

William M. Butler, who was first against Walsh, was chosen by election campaign. That puts him out of the senatorship race. He will have his hands full with the national campaign.

Channing Cox, Republican governor of the Bay State, was then approached. Cox thought it over and decided he didn't care for the honor.

Whereupon Frederick William Dillingham, a member of Congress from Cambridge, announced he would make the race.

Dillingham's announcement, however, didn't satisfy Coolidge and other party leaders. Frankly, they doubted his ability to put the odds under Walsh.

For one thing, Dillingham is an ardent and active "dry." Next to Wayne Wheeler and Ephraim B. Swartz, he's the driest dry in Washington.

And while it is deemed that the Massachusetts candidate for the Senate is pledged to uphold the constitution, it is not considered necessary for him to single out specifically the eighteenth amendment as the part to be upheld most zealously. Which is what they fear Dillingham would do.

On the heels of Dillingham's announcement, Gillett was called to see Coolidge. On the heels of his "White House" call he announced he would run for the Senate. Did Coolidge request it? Draw your own conclusion.

Undoubtedly, Gillett's candidacy will have the full support of the old line leadership in the G. O. P. He is the one man with whom they will feel safe. But even with Gillett, they admit, it may be a close shave.
