AGED WILL BE GIVEN REFUGE

Magnificent Home in New York Is Dedicated for the Care of Older Gentlefolk.

NEW YORK (AP)—The only new institution in this country, if not in the world, devoted solely to the care of aged gentlefolk, once good circumstances but now impoverished—and their maintenance for life in the care to which they have been accustomed—was dedicated here by the trustees of which Samuel Natermyer is the head.

"This unique benefaction is the Andrew Freedman Home and is named for its founder, capitalist and baseball magnate, who died December 5, 1915, leaving approximately $5,000,000 for this charity. The balance was left in trust by the decedent for his mother and sister and will ultimately revert to the home. In his will Mr. Freedman specifically directed that the institution should be strictly nonsectarian and that in case a husband and wife were admitted as guests they should dwell together. Surrounded by velvet laws the impressive structure of limestone—pure French in design—occupies the center of an entire square at 16th street and the Grand Con-courses. Without its wide stone terraces it is 122 by 76 feet and is four stories in height. It is the last word in construction and in architectural beauty, and its interior decorative effects, designed by a noted Parisian artist, are both simple and charming. In reality the home is a hotel luxuriously appointed in which the guests will never be presented with a bill.

From the concourse terrace one enters the main floor, with the library on the left and the living and card rooms on the right. Back of these is a wide corridor leading to the dining room, billiard parlor and other rooms. Elevators will take the guests to the forty-eight bedrooms above all, furnished with every possible convenience and equipped with baths. Actually, every unit is a private home, shut off from others by sound-proof walls, wherein each resident may live free from intrusion.

By careful management and investment the trustees have been able to carry out Mr. Freedman's wishes most advantageously and when the remainder of the fund is turned over to them they will be in a position materially to enlarge the institution.

SOCCER MAY DISPLACE SPANISH BULLFIGHTING
 MADRID, (INS)—Bullfighting

is in danger of being superseded by soccer as the national Spanish favorite pastime.

Soccer has firmly established itself in the heart of the sport-loving Spaniard during the last few months and increasing prominence is being given in the newspapers to details of soccer games.

One of the centers where the game has made most progress is at Barcelona, where games between representatives of the city of Catalonia and representative teams from neighboring towns are a weekly feature.

Notice to Creditors.
 Notice is by this given that the undersigned has been duly appointed administrator of the estate of Jackson Wright, deceased, and has received the national Spanish favorite pastime.

Just A Little Common Sense

We deal in tires. We buy the best we can buy regardless of price. We believe in quality first—not price. There is no such thing as a bargain in cheap tires. Not even the slightest chance to get more than you pay for. By the time you ruin a good tube, buy two and then blow out both, put in a few hours on the dusty road, lose your temper, call the manufacturer everything possible, all on account of a cheaply constructed tire, what have you gained?

Gates and Jack Tires are built in the west for western roads. Come look them over—the tires speak for themselves.
