

MEMORIAL DAY

THIS IS THE DAY FOR REMEMBERING
This day a busy nation pauses and with deep reverence unites in prayer for those who have made the supreme sacrifice for the glory of our country.

Our great land of liberty remembers that we have had such men, who lay down their lives that the principles upon which our government was founded might survive at the times of the greatest oppression. Truly the greatest sacrifice is that of paying the supreme price for righteousness.

There is a sincere silence over all the land.

There is a deep feeling of obligation to those who made our freedom possible. There is a reverent display of love for those who died for the glory of their country and God. This is the day for remembering.

"Spud" Helms, La Grande's little shortstop, made a hurried trip to Condon night before last in his car and is due to arrive back in La Grande today with a flushing trade. It seems that the young couple have been engaged for some time and it is well known that these spring days have a deadly effect on persons unaccustomed to them. Well anyway Spud has, over night as it were, joined the ranks of the benighted and is no longer an eligible leaguer possibility. He will be in his regular place to the left of the keyhole.

privileged position in Morocco. Able from settling these cardinal points, the treaty also wound up many other matters of controversy between the two nations. The treaty was hailed as the "Entente Cordiale," or the vehicle by which France and England were brought together into close political alliance. Hardly less important to Europe was the fact that Russia came indirectly into the agreement through her previously existing alliance with France, hence King Edward's original purpose of uniting the three countries.

through such a treaty was accomplished.

M. Cambon negotiated and signed the final draft after Debassee and Lamskowitz had agreed upon the essential terms. While its importance was not underestimated even at that time, there were perhaps none who foresaw the tremendous effect the Entente Cordiale would have ten years later, when the World War swept over Europe.

M. Cambon came prominently to the front in 1914, and played an important part in frustrating the efforts of Germany to separate France and Great Britain on the eve of the great struggle. He resigned his post in November, 1920.

My NON-SURGICAL method, by which I GUARANTEE to cure any case of Piles or refund the patient's fee, is gentle, mild and soothing. In Memoriam

Year after year, until time mellow with hoary age, Memorial Day ever will recall sweet-sad and tender-anguish memories and thoughts of yesteryears—of those dear and loved who fell on the field of strife; who perished that a Nation and a World might be preserved for posterity; that civilization might not be forgotten.

Ever mindful of those great sacrifices and that in our small way we may give what little homage to the heroic dead that is within our limited power, our store will remain closed all day Friday—Memorial Day—opening again for business on Saturday morning.
