A Drama of Thrills Is the "Unseeing Eyes" What in many respects is the most thrilling motion picture ever woven around life in the North woods is that which the Cosmopolitan Corporation made from Arthur Stringer's story, which will be shown at the Sherry theatre, last night today.

Three quarters of the film were made in the open and the company was on location around Banff and Lake Louise for at least six weeks. Scenes were also "shot" in and near Quebec and Montreal. Among the spectacular scenes which were filmed near Banff is the burning of a Canadian settlement. A thrilling aeroplane dash over the ice-covered terrain and a magnificent reproduction of a mid-winter carnival are said to be other highlights in the making of "Unseeing Eyes."

Cosmopolitan Corporation has assembled a brilliant cast of players. Lionel Barrymore and Seena Owen, who appeared with Barrymore in "The Pace in the Fog," are featured in the new Cosmopolitan picture, "Midnight Blues."

New Coogan Film Coming to Sherrys, Has Wide Appeal. Wide was the appeal of Jackie Coogan in "Long Live the King," coming to the Sherry theatre Sunday. Jackie's latest Metro picture, "A Boy of Flanders," will exert an even wider circle of appeal - it is so human, so homely, so full of those touches of tenderness and pathos, that make the world kin.

Throughout the story, even in the moments of its mischief and fun - they are many and reassuring - the characterization given by little Jackie is imbued with a fine spirituality of infinite appeal alike to children and grown-ups; it is chastening, ennobling and truly elevating.

Tells Whimsical Story. Gone are the formal, braided and militant garments of "Long Live the King;" gone too the aristocratic environment and the pedestrian scenes of life in the palaces of princes and kings. Instead there is little Nello in the poverty-stricken hut of Jehan Dans, who ekes out a wretched living as a carrier of milk from the small farmers of St. Agneten to dealers in Antwerp, a league or two distant.

Romance of South, Thrills of West In Picture at Star. The romance of the old south and the thrills of the ancient west combine effectively in the William Fox picture "Kentucky Days," which opened a two-day run at the Star theatre today. Dustin Farnum has the leading role as John Buckner, a picturesque Kentuckian who strikes into the gold country to recuperate his fortune. Margaret Fielding has the opposite part as his wife and companion on the long trail across the continent.

The story is one of the eternal triangle in a new form. It is remarkably well told in the acting of an excellent cast. The desert storm scene, in which the cavalcade of gold hunters is caught without water, is realistic. The scenes of Kentucky as it was in the days of duels, drink and dardovels, are remarkably well done. Rough and tumble fights, a terrific storm on the desert, striking fire scenes and splendid shots of nature make "Kentucky Days" a first rate picture.

The Holly Peggy comedy also adds keen enjoyment to this program.

Yesterdays for a ten days stay in La Grande. According to the press members for this company all of the large crowds which witnessed their first number "Let's Go," last night, Dick Hyland played the comedy role in the opening production, which was a Jewish character.

While the chorus contains many good voices the Manhattan trio is the great vocal feature of the show. Other numbers which will be presented while the company is here include, "Somebody's Wrong," "Whoop La," "Somebody's Baby," "If I Were Only a Man" and "Girls that Men Forget." The program will be changed daily.

music and wholesome comedy. The trio plays duets, solos, and trios and can be relied upon to please one and all. Emmons & Aubrey in "Typical Topical Humor," two versatile young men singing syncopated melodies and ballads and featuring comedy and character numbers with loads of genuine harmony and pep. There is no limit to their budget for comication. Tilly and May Frank in a special variety program of singing, and fast dancing. Their offering is of the rapid-fire order and they leave their trademark "contentment" stamped deeply on their audiences. Woods posing dogs, the novelty of which is new and executed in a manner that is compelling. As posers, these canines are little short of marvelous. The net being a clever exhibition of dog brain and education.

Portugal Flights High Costs. LIRRON (AP). - The cost of living has risen from 10 to 15 per cent since the first of the year, owing chiefly to the activities of speculators and dealers. The government is taking step to curb further advances and has opened stores in various parts of Lisbon.

Gloria Swanson Takes Boy's Role in "Humming Bird." Gloria Swanson appears as a boy for the first time in her stellar career in "The Humming Bird," a Paramount picture, directed by Sidney Olcott, and coming to the Arcade theatre for a three days run next Monday.

As Tollette, blot of the Paris underworld and leader of a gang of Apaches, Miss Swanson alternates from boy's to girl's clothing. Her dual personality as Tollette and the notorious "Humming Bird" for whom the Paris police search in vain, gives the star a wide range of dramatic possibilities in this production of Maude Fulton's play, which Forrest Halsey adapted for screen presentation. Edward Burns is leading man and others in the support are Jacques d'Arny, Mario Majorani and Cesare Gravina.

Perkins Motor Co. Roesch Bldg. Phone M-761

Just A Little Common Sense. We deal in tires. We buy the best we can buy regardless of price. We believe in quality first - not prices. There is no such thing as a bargain in cheap tires. Not even the slightest chance to get more than you pay for. By the time you run a good tube, buy two and then blow out both, put in a few hours on the dusty road, lose your temper, call the manufacturer everything possible, all on account of a cheaply constructed tire, what have you gained?

Gates and Jack Tires are built in the west for western roads. Come look them over - the tires speak for themselves.
