LA GRANDE WINS FOURTH

G. L. LARISON SHOOTS WELL

Turns in Score of 177 at Five-City Golf Tournament at Walla Walla Saturday and Sunday.

G. L. Larison of the La Grande delegation grabbed off most of the honors for his team in the five-city tournament held at Walla Walla Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Larison stepped out on the first day of competition and brought home the low score of the event, making nine holes in 39 strokes. This score was tied by J. P. Neal of Walla Walla on the second. Mr. Neal's score of 179 for the 36 holes of the tournament was good enough to win the cup for the low net card.

George Hartman of Pendleton was second with a total of 175 strokes and Mr. Larison was third with a score of 177. Charles Reynolds of La Grande tied with three others for fifth place with 159.

The Walla Walla course should be rated about two strokes harder than the local links, according to the men from La Grande who played the rounds. Much difficulty was encountered by the La Grande team with the difference in the type of course. The local Country club course has what are known as bunker greens requiring pitch shots with an iron, but the Walla Walla course with the exception of one hole, the seventh, has the greens almost on the level with the fairway, thus requiring an approach shot similar to a long put.

The turf was also found to be much faster than sand with the result that the local team was at a handicap at all times. The individual scores and the total scores for the tournament follow:

Player	Score
G. L. Larison	177
C. H. Reynolds	175
Lester McFavish	185
Elmer Stoddard	203
Norman Fries	203
S. D. Crowe	204
H. E. Dixon	206
W. C. Perkins	211
C. M. Bohnenkamp	212
J. J. Carr	216
H. F. Murphy	218
W. H. Reuter	218
Walla Walla	1,061
Pendleton	821
Lewiston	821
La Grande	804
Baker	623

were warded off by a succession of lefts which gave Frush the advantage at the end of the round.

After this honors were about even until the seventh, Frush was the more agile and his blows seemed to be harder than those of Criqui.

In the eighth Frush sailed into Criqui with the tap of the bell, landing at will on head and body. Criqui, his face bloody and his eyes staring, finally went to the canvas from a hard right to the jaw. He was all out. He attempted to arise, but was unable to do so. After the referee had counted him out, Frush aided the defeated boy to his feet.

Criqui's battle with Frush Sunday was considered by the sporting people as the turning point in the former world's featherweight champion's career.

Charts Show Fishermen Where to Get Full Nets

LOS ANGELES (AP)—New bathymetric charts, compiled by the hydrographic office of the United States navy, show fishermen how to locate fishing banks, according to C. S. Bauer, deputy fish and game commissioner, who says this system has revolutionized the industry.

These charts account for the big catches now being made off the southern California coast, in Mr. Bauer's opinion. From San Francisco to Point Dumeaux, below San Diego, destroyers charted the ocean bottom, extending one hundred miles out from the coast. Approximately 24,000 square miles were mapped.

New Swedish Air Service.

LONDON (AP)—A new air service is to be opened between London and Stockholm during the coming year. It is proposed to operate three airships capable of carrying 25 passengers each. The ships will leave both capitals daily.

U. S. OLYMPIC HOPES BRIGHT

Results of Intercollegiate Championship Contests Make Outlook Assume More Rosy Hue.

NEW YORK (AP)—America's hopes of a decisive victory of defense over Olympic track and field laurels in the international games at Paris in July, have taken on a brighter view as a result of the spectacular array of performances in the intercollegiate championships, the most important group of preliminary tests yet conducted.

Record breaking performances in several sectional Olympic trials in the middle west and south, together with an array of brilliant feats that made track history in the intercollegiate championships at Cambridge, also an Olympic test were the developments that have buoyed up American hopes. The results of these meets forecast a mighty battle of speed and brawn in the final trials at Cambridge June 13 and 14.

Outstanding in the list of track achievements were the feats of Ivan Riley, Illinois A. C. timber topper, in setting a new world's record of 52.1 seconds for the 400-meter hurdles at Ann Harbor, Mich., and Eric Wilson, fleet Iowa university sprinter, who eclipsed Charley Paddock's 200-meter world record with a mark of 21.1 seconds.

Several new sprinting stars flashed to the fore, notably J. B. Cheats of Howard Payne university, Texas, who tied the world's 150-meter record of 18.45 seconds at New Orleans, while George Hill, a product of Lawson Robertson's Pennsylvania sprinting school, showed his heels to the fast college men in the country with victories at 100 and 220 yards in the I. C. A. A. championships. Bowman of Syracuse and Clark of Johns Hopkins, were among the favorites toppled by the fleet little Quaker.

Pettigo Split by Price Line.
BELFAST (AP)—The British and Free State borders have created a peculiar situation on the Ulster border. Pettigo village, in Donegal, is partly in the Free State and partly in northern territory. Stamps, tea, cocoa and mineral waters may be bought cheaper on the British side than on the other, and residents in England have a smaller income tax to pay.

Japan Buys German Books.
BERLIN (AP)—Two Japanese professors, Dr. Takayanagi and Dr. Uno, have arrived in Germany to purchase books for the Imperial Library in Tokio which was destroyed by the great earthquake and fire.

Coffin linings cost more now. As a matter of economy, one should pay more attention to the brake linings.

FRUSH KNOCKS OUT CRIQUI

PARIS (AP)—Danny Frush, the American boxer, Sunday knocked out Eugene Criqui, former world's champion featherweight, in the 8th round of what was to have been a 20-round bout.

In the first round the men started sparring, with Criqui seeking an opening. He tried several times to connect with his famous right, but Frush stood him off with left jabs and right counters which gave the American boy a slight edge at the bell. Criqui in the second round sent over a magnificent left to the jaw but Frush took it without flinching. The French boy tried to follow up his blow, but Frush sent him back with a hard right. Again Criqui sailed in, but his attacks

The iron pots of Gondricourt
Just after daybreak a traveler along the narrow byways of a small French village can see the housewife beginning her day. Through the open doorway her fireplace glow like a forge. A heavy iron pot, which she has filled with water from the town pump, is lifted and swung upon the crane. At the other end of the village, perhaps, runs the little stream where she washes her family's clothes upon the rocks.
Throughout the village life of much of Europe, such pictures are multiplied by thousands. Quaint, to be sure, but what grinding and incessant toil these primitive household arrangements mean!
In contrast to this, even the remote districts of America boast comfort unknown to the rural life of other countries. Conveniences are found that could not be duplicated in any save the wealthiest city homes of foreign nations.
Adequate heating systems, the farm lighting plant, the washing machine, the vacuum cleaner, the telephone, and numberless labor-saving devices have lifted modern life in America to unprecedented levels of comfort and ease.
To a large measure this has been due to advertising. Advertising has familiarized all of us with new inventions. Advertising has made possible the wide distribution of new products. By increasing sales, advertising has reduced the price of modern household utilities to the reach of the modest purse.
By Reading Advertisements We Keep Abreast of Modern Progress
