BISON, ELK TO BE GIVEN AXE

MISQUOLA, Mont. (AP) — The slaughter and sale of 100 bison and 200 elk on the national bison range west of Missoula has been authorized by the bureau of biological survey for the coming season, on account of the shortage of feed on the 15,000 acre range. It is believed that this will reduce the herds, which now number some 1200 big game animals including bison, elk, deer and mountain sheep, so that there will be sufficient range for all.

The animals to be butchered will be picked from 400 bison now penned in corrals and being fed on alfalfa hay, later to be turned back on the range to fatten on the accumulated forage. These buffaloes now are keeping "open house" to visitors on Sundays and Wednesdays. Many tourists make the trip into the range to see the bison at close view.

Bulgarian Town Conscripts Citizens to Clean Up Park PLOVDIV, Bulgaria. (AP)—The working of the Bulgarian labor conscription system was illustrated here recently when the authorities called a class of 200 men to put a city park in order. The call was for ten days' service and the laborers reported from all classes of society. Among them were recruits in spring topsuits and the latest style American slacks with belts or shovels over their shoulders or trundling wheelbarrows. One was a music teacher and another a banker. The park was cleaned up, the paths graded and flower beds set well within the time limit.

SWIMMING RECORD BROKEN INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. Johnny Weismuller, Chicago, practicing for the Olympic finals here, unofficially broke the world record for 100 meters, free style. He swam the distance in 58 1-5 seconds, one-fifth of a second better than the mark established by Duke Kahanamoku in the Olympic games in 1920. Olympic swimming officials announced that because of the large number of entries in the 1500 meters free style swim, elimination trials will be held.
