Brooms Made By Blind Workers

Sell Readily in Open Market

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — The state of Tennessee employs seventy blind persons in the manufacture of brooms.

The state's broom factory for the blind is located on property in the vicinity of the Main State prison, at Nashville, and every employee except the truck driver engaged in this work is blind.

There are about 15 women among the workers and some have married blind men who are employed in the factory and reside in the factory settlement.

The industry has a capacity of 100 dozen brooms a day, is operated at a profit to the state under the supervision of the commission of institutions, and the employees are paid a living wage for their services.

The brooms are placed on the market alongside the products of other like factories and find ready sale. The industry also operates a rug weaving and mattress cleaning department, all of which affords an opportunity for making provision for many who otherwise would become wards of the state.

The average man is less careful of his work than of his loafing. He is willing to trust his doing to others, but he insists upon doing the loafing himself.

Lady Hamilton Watched Nelson Draw His Plans of Battle

POOLE, Eng. (AP) — A naval officer staying at the old inn, "Lord Nelson," situated on the quay here, recently discovered some curious scratchings on the wainscot of his room. Investigation revealed these to be plans of naval battles drawn by Lord Nelson who stayed in that inn with Lady Hamilton. Other marks and scratchings have been identified as dating back to the days of the sea-dogs of the Elizabethan age.

PHYMERE COWS NOTEWORTHY

Noteworthy production records were made recently in the herd of W. T. Phy, Hot Lake, Oregon, two of his purebred Holstein cows, according to an official announcement made by the advanced registry office of The Holstein-Friesian Association of America.

At the age of eight years and five months Garfield Johanna Tiffany produced 605.2 pounds of milk containing 21.715 pounds of butterfat equal to 27.15 pounds butter in seven days.

Phymere Fayne Pontiac Rose, age three years and two months produced 19,541.2 pounds milk containing 626.32 pounds butterfat equal to 775.4 pounds butter in one year.

There are two general methods of obtaining production—official test records and cow testing association records. The official test records deal with the purebred animal. The cow testing association records deal mainly with the grade animals, but in many instances purebred animals are included. Nothing has been more beneficial to the breeder of purebred dairy cattle than official records. Each year dairy farmers are realizing more and more that official records add to the value of the animals for both sale and breeding purposes.

A New Type of Low Price Car is Ready to be Announced

If you are considering the purchase of an automobile—WAIT!

In seven days a leading local dealer will be offering a new type of motor car—one that represents many months' closely guarded research on the part of a prominent manufacturer.

This will mark one of the great epochs in the development of the automobile.

It will be a six cylinder car of distinguished appearance, comparatively light in weight, yet extraordinarily strong and enduring.

It will be powered by a new type of motor which provides a range of hill and highway performance that is unique in the light of existing design.

Its owners will never be compelled to use an oil can or grease gun on any chassis part.

"One Shot"

This phrase will be on every tongue for months to come.

It marks the end of a grimy, greasy, ever-distasteful task that is costly to neglect.

It marks the end of the oil can and the grease gun.

It is the name of an exclusive feature on a car that will make motoring history. What is it? Next week's advertisement tells all.

It will have as standard equipment—at no extra cost—genuine super-size balloon tires; and as optional equipment, four-wheel brakes of the most advanced design.

It will bear a name now known and respected wherever motor cars run.

It will be manufactured as a unit in a plant that is uncommon in size and unexcelled in the completeness of its equipment.

In view of this, we feel justified in urging all to withhold until next week any definite decision to purchase any motor car—however costly, however inexpensive.

A large advertisement appearing in this publication one week hence will reveal complete details and state where this truly marvelous new car may be seen.
