Social news must be in the hands of the society editor by 9:30 o'clock. Due to the fact that the social page is made up before noon, it is practically impossible to insert stories after that hour. Hereafter, items, no matter how important they are, that are delayed beyond that hour, will not be printed until the following day—News Editor's Note.

A delightful afternoon was spent yesterday when Mrs. James O'Neal was hostess to the Past Chiefs club of Pythian Sisters. Election of officers for the ensuing year was one of the main features of the afternoon, the following ladies being installed: Mrs. G. W. Haraden, president; Mrs. Jack Oliver, vice-president; and Mrs. James O'Neal, secretary-treasurer.

After a short business meeting, during which it was decided to give a cooked food sale in the near future, a pleasant social hour was spent and delicious refreshments served.

Approximately fifty ladies were in attendance yesterday, when Mrs. Everett Walsinger was hostess to the Allied Ladies Aid at her country home. The afternoon was delightfully spent, a splendid musical program being given, with Mrs. A. V. Fisher in charge.

The home was attractively decorated with exquisite roses and during the afternoon a delicious luncheon was served. Those assisting Mrs. Walsinger were Mrs. John Hamann, Mrs. Arthur Hamann, Miss Laura Hamann and Mrs. E. Jasper.

Members of the Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist church spent a very interesting afternoon Wednesday, when they met at the home of Mrs. W. W. Kinzie. It was the last meeting of the season and many important matters were discussed. After the regular lesson was studied and discussed, a dainty luncheon was served by the hostess.

Miss Josephine Rhodes and Bernice Lloyd left last evening for Seattle, Wash., where they will attend summer school at the University of Washington.

Mrs. Francis Bouquet of Enterprise, came down from Enterprise yesterday to meet her mother, who came from Kansas City, Mo., to spend the summer at the home of her daughter.

Effective

An effective way to use the popular maribou banding is shown on this straight-line frock of petal pink crepe. It edges the side panels that are fitted so smoothly about the waist. The use of long light sleeves on dinner and evening frocks is increasing and the absence of elaborate trimming is noticeable.

Fashion Notes

More Unusual Shoes.
Paris.—Shoes today are becoming more and more unusual. One pair combines the season's affection for orange and red. The red vamp is covered with large, irregular orange spots.

Barbaric Ornaments.
London.—Barbaric ornaments are seen these afternoons at the Savoy, the Berkeley, and the other smart afternoon tea places. Feather bracelets have reached the stage where they use rather large ostrich tips for the circle and a cascade of fronds as additional ornament.

Color on Wedding Gown.
New York.—The June bride may, if she desires it, have a touch of color on her wedding gown. The dead white, according to all complexions, may be relieved by the faintest of pink underslips or train linings.

Pale Blue Silk Lingerie.
New York.—Lingerie in patent blue silk is one of the choice offerings shown in an exclusive shop today. The decoration is a broken geometric design in delicate yellow and all edges are done in scallops of leaf green.

Mayfair Boudoirs Is Newest Fad in London

LONDON (AP).—Fashion's eternal return in London is demonstrated by the newest mode of Mayfair boudoirs and the smart night clubs—a feminine swing to the left in the form of snuff taking. Tobaccoists who for years have been supplying cigars to women report a falling off in cigar sales and a definite increase in the consumption of snuff, mostly among feminine customers.

The recent sleet of Harley street that cigaret smoking is responsible for the prevalent throat troubles may or may not have given impetus to the new movement. Of course, society has divided over the question, many women characterizing the fad as disgusting, but the younger set has apparently decided enthusiastically in its favor. The two trades most concerned—the tobaccoists and the jewelers—have not been greatly affected by the new fashion. Tobaccoists have switched from cigars to snuff, and the jeweler has found a ready sale for dainty jeweled snuff boxes.

Domestic Science Is Taught in Windows

BERLIN (AP).—Leipzig street, the main thoroughfare of downtown Berlin, has been a miniature Leipzig fair recently. Instead of erecting exhibition buildings and renting special booths for their displays, the downtown business men have simply agreed to convert their spacious show windows into exhibitions of what they call "Warenkunde," the science or knowledge of how goods are made. The suggestion came from the League of Housewives, which desires its membership to become an appreciation of thinking, conscious housekeepers.

There was a time before the war when every German housekeeper prided herself on teaching her daughter just what went into the makeup of articles of clothing and furniture, and tried to inculcate in their ability to make purchases with an eye to quality. With the war came the practice of painting off substitutes because of the inability to obtain the proper raw materials. Only gradually goods and wares are being produced on a pre-war basis, and the women are anxious to have the younger generation learn the difference between real and imitation materials.

Among the exhibits in the show windows of Leipzig street are the manufacture of shoes, of umbrellas and of woolen goods. There are displays of modern bed rooms, clothes closets and traveling equipment. Real face is shown side-by-side with imitations, real diamonds with fake, and real fur with false.

Many schools of domestic economy are taking their pupils the whole length of Leipzig street, with the teacher explaining the various processes exhibited.

Tree That Sheltered Cortez Now Dying of Old Age

MEXICO CITY, (AP)—Mexico's most famous tree, that under which Cortez is supposed to have sought shelter 400 years ago when driven away from the Aztec capital, is slowly dying and all efforts of tree surgeons to arrest the process of decay have proven fruitless.

The municipality of Tacuba, a suburb where "The Tree of the Weeping Night" is to be found, has been petitioned to place it in the national museum.

"Dancer's Heart" is Newest Disease in London Circles

LONDON (AP).—One of the most fashionable complaints of the moment is "dancer's heart," according to advices from medical sources. The craze for dancing at all hours and at all times, between meals and between the courses of meals, is having an effect on the most energetic. A visit to the doctor produces the advice: "You have dancer's heart. You are suffering from overstrain. There is only one thing to do, rest for weeks, and no more dancing for months."

Argentina Growing Cotton.
BUENOS AIRES (AP).—Argentina this year probably will produce 47,000 bales of cotton, figures which denote a material increase in the industry. Capital is going into this new business, attracted by the good profits, settlers are moving into the cotton belt, and a boom in cotton growing and spinning is predicted.
