"Poisoned Paradise" At Sherrys Today And Tomorrow.

Sherry's announces that they have succeeded in securing the much heralded Preferred Picture, "Poisoned Paradise," for its first local showing and that it opens today.

This announcement is one that will be received with interest by every single fan who has been waiting to see this newest E. P. Schenberg production. It is said to be among the most pretentious film undertakings of the year.

Since the signing of the Armistice, Robert Service has lived in Monte Carlo—easily one of the most picturesque spots in the whole world—and his impressions of it are set forth in a really remarkable plot in which he tells the inside story of the methods employed in the celebrated Casino. This exposé has been a treat for the comfort of the officials of the gambling resort with the result that the sale of the novel in the principality is prohibited.

This "forbidden story," however, offers unique picture material and film authorities who have previewed it say that it is a complete departure from the usual screen plot formula.

An immensely distinguished cast has been chosen to enact the plot. There is Kenneth Harlan, whose last screen appearance was one of particularly notable achievement, the title role in "The Virginian." Playing opposite him is Clara Bow, remembered already for three fine performances—in "Down to the Sea in Ships," in "Black Oxen" and

Use of Private Airplanes

LONDON, (AP)—Private airplane flying is to be simplified in Great Britain by the abolishment of the irksome regulations requiring that a plane must be passed in airworthiness every day and must land only at a recognized airfield. A plane now will be certified as airworthy in the first place, and then it is up to the owner to keep in condition. Also he may land in a field near his home provided it does not endanger the public.

Sons of Mexican Enemies Dwell Peacefully in American School

out the greater part of the recent revolution, the American School in Mexico City was a real neutral zone, for scores of many of the opposing political figures attended classes there in complete harmony.

Jackie Coogan Reveals Great Genius In "Daddy."

With his appearance in "Daddy," little Jackie Coogan about completes the cycle of human emotions, for in this newest picture play, written for their boy by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Coogan, the youthful genius is called upon, in one scene, to sound the deepest of tragic notes. It was the performance of this role and scene that evoked from Will H. Hays his tribute of tears and the remark that "the world needs more pictures like this."

While "Daddy" sounds depths of tragedy and pathos, it is mainly devoted to the surface of smiles and laughter. Jackie, after every discouragement, plods on, and after every misfortune finds comfort; in the end he achieves complete happiness—if complete happiness is ever found!

Nobody better than Jackie's parents could write a story for him calculated to explore every angle of the boy's versatile genius. In "Daddy's Bad Day," the impishness of the lad was specially revealed; in "Trouble" the note of pathos was injected with the sentiment that is Jackie's birthright; in "My Boy" humor abounded and in "Oliver Twist" the courage, tenderness and nobility of an upright youth were revealed. In "Daddy," the capacity of Jackie Coogan as a tragic emotionalist is so superbly disclosed that his work in this picture will forever stamp him as one of the greatest actors of all time, regardless of age!

"Daddy" is a First National picture and will start a two-day run at the Arcade theater tomorrow.

Six-Million Reader Book Filmed At Star Theater.

The Harold Bell Wright fans are turning out en masse this week to see the screen version of his most popular novel, "When a Man's a Man," which is showing at the Star theater tomorrow.

Harold Bell Wright is America's most widely read author. Statistics from libraries all over the country prove this, and the sale of his books verifies the statement.

"When a Man's a Man" alone sold over two million copies. Publishers figure three readers to each purchased book, which makes six million people that have read "When a Man's a Man."

An ideal cast has been chosen to portray the well-known characters in the book, with John Havers heading the list as the "Honorable Patches," Marguerite de la Motte plays Helen Wakefield of Cleveland, and Robert Frazer is Wild Horse Phil. Forrest Robinson is the Dean of the Cross Triangle Ranch, with Stella, his wife, being played by Elizabeth Rhodes. George MacLathorne handles with his usual dexterity the role of Yavapai Joe the cattle rustler, and Fred Stanton plays his accomplice.
