Social news must be in the hands of the society editor by 9:30 o'clock. Due to the fact that the social page is made up before noon, it is practically impossible to insert stories after that hour. Hereafter, items, no matter how important they are, that are delayed beyond that hour, will not be printed until the following day—News Editor's Note.

Cove, Ore. (Special)—Leslie Peck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Peck, of Cove, and Miss Florence Westonskew, daughter of Mrs. Peter Westonskew, of Imbler, were married in the temple at Salt Lake City on Wednesday, June 18, three o'clock in the afternoon. Joseph Fielding Smith officiated.

It was one of one hundred marriage ceremonies that were performed in the temple that day. The groom has been a missionary in Toronto, Canada, for the past two and one-half years and the bride is a popular young lady of Imbler and has been in the B. Y. University at Provo, Utah, for the past year. They will make their home at Cove.

A shower, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Peck, was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Peck, Monday. The happy couple were given many useful and artistic gifts. Delicious refreshments were served and a pleasant afternoon spent. Those attending were: Mrs. De Graw, Mrs. H. Weimer, Mrs. Geo. Southwick, Mrs. J. B. Weimer, Mrs. Mary E. Wardell, Mrs. S. Mitchell, Mrs. A. H. Orton, Mrs. T. R. Conklin, Mrs. Fern Combs of Lajarra, Colo., and Miss Della Weimer.

A bunch of "the boys," old friends of Mr. Peck, called on the bridal couple in the evening of Monday, giving them a serenade of the "tin can" variety. They were entertained in a royal manner by the newlyweds.

A party, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Last and daughter, Gertrude, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Last and daughter, Geraldine, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Trolinger and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Irish have returned from Wallowa Lake where they have been camping for the past few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Rush are from Spokane and are visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Last.

Mrs. Colon R. Eberhard, accompanied by her son and daughter, were visitors at Wallowa Lake yesterday, attending the Old Oregon Trail association and Wallowa County Pioneer meetings.

Union, Ore. (Special to the Observer)—Union Circle No. 269, Women of Woodcraft, entertained Grande Ronde Circle No. 47 of La Grande and visitors from Baker Circle No. 785, Prosperity Circle No. 200, Toss Loas No. 19 and Hollywood Circle No. 555 of the Women of Woodcraft, Monday evening.

Drill work was given by Ida Cline and her guards. The flag service was rendered doubly beautiful by the addition of a tribute to Old Glory, given by Agnes Padlock.

At the close of the ritualistic services a social time was enjoyed by those present. Miss Ida Cline sang several old-time songs in appropriate costume during the social hour. Her presentations of the quaint songs and customs of the long ago were received with much merriment by the audience and she received much applause and repeated requests for encores. Miss Agnes Padlock's readings on humorous and sentimental subjects were also well received. Several of the readings were in dialect and were unusually well delivered.

Later in the evening refreshments were announced and the file to the banquet was led by the Guardian Neighbor of the La Grande Circle. Over 100 guests were seated at the first table. Many comments were made on the excellence of the feast by the visiting club women who returned to their homes at the close of a most enjoyable evening.

The Moose roll call will be held tomorrow evening.

Cove, Ore. (Special)—A party of young people were gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Holly on Friday evening honoring the boys and girls who have been attending the various colleges. There were present: Nellie Barker, Violet Bloom, Rex and Lexie Prillman, Lola Marten, Justin Peck, Herbert Gordon, Laura Barker, Eva and Jane Weimer, Mildred Richards, Clyde Howater, Oscar Rollins and Gordon Mills.

Ladd Canyon, Ore. (Special)—Everyone had a pleasant afternoon recently when they met at the home of Mrs. F. L. Wilson, it being "Get-Together Club Day." The house was beautifully decorated with flowers and Mrs. Wilson served a two-course luncheon at the conclusion of the afternoon program. A number of the guests were agreeably surprised when Mrs. Earl Jones came as a special guest. She formerly lived here fourteen years ago and was here visiting Mrs. W. O. Sherwood, from Forest Grove.

It's an unfair system and the kind of conduct that will get you to heaven won't get you into vaudeville.

Fashion Notes

New Wear for Women Runs To Many Colorful Mixtures

ELBERFELD, Germany (AP)—Strange but interesting combinations are coming to light this spring in various wares for women, many of the materials manufactured here being to the American trade.

Art silk jumpers in nine different color combinations, in each of which there are light shades, is one of the season's novelties. Silk and wool jumper suits are being made here by the thousands in multi mixtures in which, almost, brown, tan, blue, gray and fawn predominates. Tulle coats for the summer are in fancy patterns in rose, almond, white, champagne and tan.

Multi-colored and multi mixtures appear to be predominating styles but there will be some mingled stripes in two colors which experts say are very smart indeed. It is predicted that this season in America and England there will be more brilliant colors and wonderful contrasts than ever before.

Mrs. Maria E. Sipp, BAKER, Ore. (Special)—Mrs. Maria E. Sipp, 80, who had lived in Baker for 42 years, died Sunday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Viora Standley. Her husband died in 1920. Three children, Mrs. Standley of Baker, Mrs. Park Headley of Bellingham, Wash., and Charles W. Sipp of Baker, survive. Funeral services were held today from the West chapel, with the Rev. Gillum of the Christian church officiating.

Realtors Thrive in California. LOS ANGELES, (AP)—During the first quarter of 1924 there was one real estate agent's license issued for every 100 of population in California. This information is derived from a survey made by the California Real Estate association.

Three-Piece

Here is a three-piece costume that departs from studied simplicity and becomes richly decorative. White silk crepe, printed in gorgeous floral patterns is the material used for both the dress and the cape. A band of white fur bands the cape and forms the collar. Each part of the costume forms a complete unit, alone, the dress being very interesting without the cape, and the cape being equally attractive over other summer gowns. Printed materials are very fashionable now, and the gayest the colors and the more striking the pattern, the more desirable they are.

domestic issues the convention will be asked to go on record as to a definite international policy which proposes the outlawry of war by all civilized nations.

This would be supported by the entire abolition of profits in the production of war materials in this country.

While La Follette will be the central figure on whose prestige and power the weight of the independent campaign will rest, the real fight of his followers will be concentrated in the senatorial and congressional elections rather than in winning votes for the top of the ticket itself. For it is admitted that upon the election of a substantial congressional bloc, insuring the Wisconsin leader a continuing balance of power in congress, the real success of the campaign depends.

Of course the claim is made that the fight to put La Follette in the White House is a sincere and honest one. That may be conceded without affecting the further fact that the real hope and expectation of the La Follette followers is the perpetuation of a La Follette-led balance of power in the legislative branch.

Of course, should the situation develop an avalanche to sweep the independent candidates across the line a winner, or even block a majority in the electoral college, throwing the election into congress, either such result would be so much clear gain for the independent cause.

The hard thing about headline stories is to make them simple enough for the younger ones to understand and rouse enough for the older ones to enjoy.
