La Grande Theatres

"The Fair Cheat" Starting Two-Day Run At Sherrys Theater.

"The Fair Cheat," a comedy-drama of unusual charm and distinction, featuring dainty Dorothy Mackall, handsome Wilfred Lyell and the famous Edmund Breese, and now being shown at the Sherry theatre, is one of the most laugh-provoking pictures that has ever been seen on the screen.

Burton King, one of the ablest directors in the motion picture industry has injected generous doses of subtle humor and poignant situations in this delightful story of a daughter of wealth who becomes a cabaret dancer to win the man of her heart. Her venture into the world of tinsel and lights and laughter is the beginning of one stimulating adventure after another, until convincing her father that she is able to earn her own living, he allows her to marry the man she loves.

Each of the noteworthy cast of all-star players gives a splendid performance including Dorothy Mackall, Wilfred Lyell, Edmund Breese, Marie White, William Reynolds, Bradley Barker, Jack Newton and Tom Blake.

The Spat family in their latest two-reel comedy, "Heavy Seas," is also being shown.

Fine Support Given Pola Negri In Arcade Picture.

Pola Negri in her fourth American starring picture, "Shadows of Paris," a Herbert Brenon Paramount production, is surrounded by a brilliant array of supporting players.

Adolphe Menjou, Charles de Roche and Huntley Gordon head the cast in featured roles. Among others are Gareth Hughes, Vera Reynolds, Rose Dione, Roelia Marsini, Edward Kipling, Maurice Cannon, Frank Nelson and George O'Brien.

Adolphe Menjou but recently scored heavily in Charles Chaplin's "A Woman of Paris." He has appeared time and again under the Paramount banner.

Charles de Roche, since he came to America from France, has supported Dorothy Dalton in "The Law of the Lawless." He also appears as King Pharaoh in Cecil B. DeMille's forthcoming Paramount production, "The Ten Commandments." In William de Mille's "The Marriage Maker" he plays the fun.

Huntley Gordon—Bluebeard in "Bluebeard's Eighth Wife," starring Gloria Swanson.

All the other members of the cast are well known stage and screen favorites.

"Shadows of Paris," which will being held for the military authorities, as he is alleged to be a deserter from the army at Camp Lewis.
