

NEWS of SOCIETY

Social news must be in the hands of the society editor by 5:30 o'clock. Due to the fact that the social page is made up before noon, it is practically impossible to insert stories after that hour. Hereafter, items, no matter how important they are, that are delayed beyond that hour, will not be printed until the following day—News Editor's Note.

Announcement was made today that Miss Gertrude Plummer was united in marriage to Guy H. Rogers Friday morning, July fourth, at 11 o'clock, at the home of Miss Plummer. Miss Vivian Rogers was bridesmaid and C. W. Ashby best man. Reverend O. W. Jones of the Christian church officiated.

There was a large number of relatives of both the bride and groom in attendance and following the ceremony a delicious dinner was served.

The happy young couple expect to make their home in La Grande.

Reverend and Mrs. G. H. Quigley, former pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church here, but who is now pastor of the Methodist church of Boise, Idaho, are visiting in La Grande at the home of their daughter, Mrs. A. E. Kinman. Another daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Quigley and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Nelson, of Crookston, Minn., are also visiting at the home.

For Hot Day

Just the thing for a hot day, isn't it? A straight line frock with practically no sleeves and an easy neck, and then a huge bow sash for trimming. This frock is of plaid voile in browns and tans. The cotton materials of this season come in really excellent designs and colors, quite as gorgeous as silks and in very similar patterns, and they are made up on the same simple but good lines that the expensive materials follow. Such a frock as this one can be made easily in a day and the cost of the material is very low. In it one can get as near to comfort as the thermometer will permit.

of Mr. and Mrs. Kinman.

The Ailed Ladies Aid will hold a lawn social at the home of Mrs. W. R. Ledbetter, a mile north of Ailed, Thursday afternoon, July 10. Mrs. Ray Fuller, who has charge of the program, announces that she has secured the Ailed colored ladies minstrel as entertainers and a splendid time is assured all who attend.

The American Legion Auxiliary will meet Wednesday evening, July 9, at eight o'clock at the home of Mrs. Harley Richardson. Important business matters are to come before the Auxiliary at this time and a large attendance is desired.

The Mission Band of the Presbyterian church will meet at the home of Mrs. O. L. MacDowell, 2114 Oak street, Wednesday afternoon, July 9, at 2:30 o'clock.

Mrs. C. G. Daugherty of Fresno, California, will leave for her home this evening, after a month's visit in La Grande with her sister, Mrs. Harry Bouvy.

A free country is one in which every man is privileged to feel superior to his betters.

Fashion Notes

Lace Gowns Seen Everywhere.
London.—Ever since the Ascot races there has been almost an overdose of beige lace gowns. These are of spider web fineness and have usually black slips underneath, though jade and pale blue are also often seen.

King Tut Still Lives.
New York.—Tut-ankh-amen is not dead yet. The exquisite lotus buckle on one of his excavated sandals reappears in leather on a summer pump. The pump is of black patent leather, the lotus being in black patent and white suede.

Veiling on Large Hats.
New York.—The little veiling of net or chiffon set around the brim of a hat is again "smart." This bit of veiling adds attractiveness to most women and gives a seasonable touch of airiness to the large hat.

Scarfs Now Fur-Trimmed.
New York.—The scarf, having gone through most other phases, is now being fur trimmed. Chiffon scarfs in such shades as primrose yellow and American Beauty have handings of summer ermine or of black or brown furs.

Afternoon Frocks are Simple.
New York.—The afternoon frock just now is distinguished by simplicity of line. Its material may be crepe de chine, summer satin or jacquard satin and its color is whatever suits your fancy.

Dark Fur Trimming Popular.
Paris.—White with dark fur is almost a formula now, so great is its popularity. Costumes of all sorts of materials, utilize every known shade of white. And they are trimmed on the ends of panels or around the sleeves—more often than at the neck—with fur light in weight, but dark in shade.

Lace Veilings Tone Gowns.
London.—Veilings of creamy lace ranging from a nice deep flounce to a scarf that half envelopes the body, form the chief ornament on many dance frocks. The lace tones down the sometimes too brilliant red now worn by many smart women.

HUNT'S LETTER

get out and vote.

In this connection, the league points out that, even in the election of 1920, less than half the eligible voters of the nation went to the polls on election day. The total vote cast, they claim, was but 49 per cent of the number that would have been cast had every elector exercised his or her right of suffrage. The result, although an overwhelming victory for the Republicans on the basis of the votes registered, was actually an election by a minority—by less than one-third of the nation's qualified voters, in fact.

The league has set itself the task of getting out at least 75 per cent of the total eligible vote this fall. If it succeeds even half-way in this effort, the number of ballots cast this fall will exceed the 26,786,000 votes cast in 1920 by more than 7,100,000. If it reached the goal of 75 per cent set, the total vote next November 4 would exceed 51,000,000. The party that can pull any considerable part of the increased vote the league's campaign promises to bring to the polls is the party most likely to walk away with the election.

And this is the vote the Democrats are out to capture. They believe it is, to a very large extent, the feminine vote. Wherefore the special attentions given the ladies—even to the extent of proposing a woman candidate for vice-president!

Professor Irving Fisher of Yale, economist and statistician, who has made a special study of election figures and percentages, says the usual presidential elections is decided by a switch of less than five per cent of the votes cast.

If the women can bring to the Democrats that necessary five per cent, then the political gallantry of the Democratic leaders will have won its suit.

3 Injured Are Recovering
SALEM, Ore.—Mr. and Mrs. R. J. McKinney and Mrs. S. S. McKinney, all of Los Angeles, who suffered injuries when an automobile in which they were riding, left the Pacific highway and overturned eight miles north of here, were reported to be recovering in a local hospital.
