OUTBURSTS OF EVERETT TRUE By Condo

La Grande Theatres

"Pure Grit," a Western Drama, Stars Roy Stewart as Ranger.

A picture that ends with such a dash of speed that it almost leaves one breathless opens at the Arcade theatre today.

It is "Pure Grit," a Universal Western feature dealing with life in the southwestern range country. A girl is shown in a husband's drawn over a rocky mountain road by a runaway horse. One of the big thrills occurs when the hero takes a couple of curves overhanging a cliff on two wheels with the girl clinging desperately to the back of the seat when she is rescued from the ditch.

Roy Stewart is starred in the production in the role of a Texas ranger. Outdoor characters seemed to be just the roles for him.

The story is simple and direct, built around the romance of the ranger and the district school teacher, but there is plenty of adventure woven into the theme to make it dramatically interesting.

A big feature in the picture is the fight that ensues at a little cabin after Stewart overrules Jim Austin, in the role of the escaped convict who passed as her brother, who is fleeing with the school teacher in the hope that he would get over the border. In the terrific fight that results, the cabin breaks into flame. The men slug each other which gives the school teacher an opportunity to break through a window and escape.

Seeing the backboard near by, and not daring to wait the result of the fight, she grabs the horse and dashes back towards town.

"The Mailman" Showing At Sherrys for Last Time Tonight.

Did you ever stop to think how long a trip your letter can take for the small sum of two cents—how many hands and diversified operations it passes through before it reaches its final destination?

The study of the workings of Uncle Sam's postal department is highly interesting, and it has been brought to the screen in a forceful and dramatic way in Emory Johnson's picture "The Mail Man," dedicated to the carriers who faithfully perform their services early and late that the various national activities shall function properly. It is now playing at the Sherry theatre.

Johnson begins his picture with the first known message ever carried—the olive branch that the dove brought back to Noah. He does this to bring out more forcibly the modern intricate workings of the modern system of communications in the depths of which one loyal servant, portrayed by Ralph Lewis, goes through a series of extremely human adventures which glorify the mail man.

A chase of a run-summer by the entire Pacific fleet, a race for life in a blinding storm, and a thrilling dramatic hold-up in a downtown postoffice are touches which add vividness to the picture.

Besides Lewis, the cast includes Johnnie Walker, Josephine Adams, David Kirby, Taylor Gray, Mac the Sloop, Virginia Tria, Boardman and Harold Kirkland.

Comedy showing "Smile Please" Airplanes Sow Grass Seed. MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—One of the latest commercial uses of the airplane, which may possibly be perfected to revolutionize certain phases of agriculture, is that of sowing seed by plane, successfully demonstrated in the suburban territory of Miami recently, where 400 acres of land were sown to carpet grass within a period of 20 minutes. For the area sown during the experiment, it was said, it would require two men hand-sowing 30 days.
