Queen of England Presents Her Hundreds of Presents

LONDON (AP).—What happens to all the mementoes and souvenirs that are presented to the queen is a question often asked but seldom answered. The Weekly Dispatch claims to have ascertained from "some one in a responsible position," however, that these presents are not put away in a store cupboard.

This source of information added: "The queen is very proud of her collection of souvenirs, and she treasures every one of them. I do not think there is another woman in the world who takes such a keen delight in preserving her mementoes of happy and interesting occasions."

The Wembley Exhibition has swelled the queen's collection considerably, and recent additions include diamond and linen, canaries, "polly" the cat, cards, lace fans and musical instruments. The queen makes practical use of her gifts whenever possible. The diamond linen presented by the U. S. State Trade is in constant use at Buckingham Palace.

Twenty Percent of Filipinos Frequent the Moving Pictures
MANILA (AP).—The Philippine islands have a total of 214 moving picture theaters, 21 of which are in the city of Manila, according to figures obtained from the bureau of commerce and industry. The province of Occidental Negros, where many sugar centrals are located, has 19 picture houses, the largest number of any of the provinces outside of Manila.

Of the 214 theaters in the islands 18 are named "Hibiti" in honor of the Jose Rizal, Filipino patriot who was executed by the Spaniards in 1896.

The bureau of commerce and industry estimates that at least 90 per cent of the population of each town where theaters exist attend the shows at one time or another.

Filipino Ballplayers Beat American Teams at Manila
MANILA (AP).—The Olympics team composed of Philippine Scouts from the regular island won the championship of the Army baseball league which is made up of eight clubs from various army camps in the island. The Olympics, by reason of their victory in the Philippines, will go to China to participate in the contests for the army baseball championship of the Far East.

The American marines at Peking and the 15th United States Infantry at Tientsin will enter teams in the championship tournament, to take place at Tientsin.

Storm Insurance Planned.
MADISON, Wis. (AP).—A campaign has been inaugurated by the Wisconsin State Telephone association to enroll telephone companies in a co-operative fire and storm insurance plan. The proposition is to be held in the near future in the country.

Under the plans now being started, it is declared the companies would be able to protect their properties by insurance at approximately one-third of the commercial rate.

Water Profiteers Punished.
HETTSTEDT, Germany. (AP).—"To profiteer in water is worse than profiteering in butter or other things," a court held here recently when a water works company tried to serve the town at the rate of 1.27 cubic feet for one cent, against a pre-war price of five cubic feet for a cent. The two owners of the water company were fined $2,500 each and sentenced to six months in prison.

Girl Crushed to Death.
OREGON CITY, Ore.—Julia Kilmor, 9, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Kilmor, was crushed to death under the wheel of a gravel truck here. With her brother, Aloysius, 4, she had been riding on the running board. She fell off and one wheel passed over her body.

Edward O'Rourke, driver, said he did not know the girl was on the truck until the tragedy occurred. The girl died on the way to a hospital.

LEGION WILL HAVE DAY

SALISBURY, Ore. (Special).—The second day of this year's state fair will be known as "American Legion day," according to a decision reached at a special meeting of the state fair board here.

Legion drum corps from 14 towns and cities in the state will participate in competitive drills, for which a valuable prize will be posted by the fair board.

The dog show will be held again this year and other entertainment concessions will be more numerous than ever.

Besides disposing of many minor details in connection with this year's fair, the board decided to make a number of substantial improvements on the grounds. These will include the installation of additional boxes in the grandstand, 11 rest rooms and other conveniences.

Classics for German Youth.
WEIMAR, Germany. (AP).—The boys and girls of all high schools in Germany assemble in Weimar during the second half of June and the first half of July each year to see the plays staged by the National Schiller Society. The society aims to acquaint the growing generation with master-works of German culture. This year's program includes Schiller's "Emperor" and Wagner's "Tannhauser" and "Meistertrager." This year 6900 young people applied for permission to witness the plays.
