

NEWS of SOCIETY

Social news must be in the hands of the society editor by 3:30 o'clock. Due to the fact that the social page is made up before noon, it is practically impossible to insert stories after that hour. Hereafter, items, no matter how important they are, that are delayed beyond that hour, will not be printed until the following day—News Editor's Note.

Popular Couple Married at Nampa, Idaho

The marriage of Miss Lois Comstock, of Nampa, Idaho, to Homer L. Lefel, of La Grande, was solemnized yesterday at noon at the bride's home in Nampa, by Reverend Parker. Relatives and immediate friends of the bride and groom were in attendance and previous to the ceremony Stuart Bennett, of Baker, sang "Oh Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Miss Edna Comstock at the piano. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Vera Wattenburg, of La Grande, at the piano and Miss Mae Stevens, of La Grande, on the violin.

Miss Comstock was beautifully dressed in white georgette over white satin and her bridesmaids, Miss Edna Comstock and Mrs. Thomas Conklin, of Cove, also wore white. Miss Comstock's little twin noveis, Misses Lois and Louine Comstock, acted as flower girls and little Robert Wattenburg was ring bearer. J. A. Tedford, of La Grande, was best man.

Following the ceremony an elaborate wedding breakfast was served.

Both Miss Comstock and Mr. Lefel are well known in La Grande. Miss Comstock having been a teacher in the La Grande high school for the past two years and Mr. Lefel having been connected with the J. C. Penny company here for a number of years. After a honeymoon trip of three weeks or a month the happy couple will make their home in La Grande.

On Monday afternoon Mrs. J. K. Wright entertained the members of Art club very pleasantly, in honor of Mrs. E. E. Smith of San Diego, California. Mrs. Smith was a charter member of that organization and the afternoon was spent in renewing the acquaintance of former years.

Baskets of beautiful flowers adorned the living room and dining room and refreshments served were in harmony with the decorations.

The afternoon was an event long to be remembered by the guest of honor and her close friends, who appreciated the opportunity of meeting her again and expressing their good wishes before her departure for her home in the Southland.

Mrs. Kate E. Brindell, of Orlando, Florida, is the house guest of her cousin, Mrs. F. S. Ivanhoe, Mrs. Brindell has been making an extended tour through the South and West during the past three months.

The Ladies Parish and Mission Society of the Zion English Lutheran church will meet Thursday afternoon, at 2302 Second street, and will be entertained by Mrs. John Schilling and her daughter, Mrs. Moore, of Portland, who is now visiting her parents here.

The American Legion Auxiliary will meet tomorrow evening, August 6, with Mrs. Harley Richardson.

Mrs. Minnie Lupter will be hostess to the Parkdale club tomorrow afternoon, August 6. Mrs. Pearl Davis will assist Mrs. Lupter as hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Halgerman and Mrs. Maude Stewart motored to La Grande recently from Pendleton. They also visited Hot Lake during the day, returning to their homes in the evening.

Monmouth (Special) — Group four of the Normal students gave a costume party Friday evening. There was a large number in attendance and many different characters were represented. The evening was spent dancing.

Beauty Seekers Will Do Well to Try THE MARINELLO SHOP

Room 6, Sommer Bldg.

"A beauty aid for every need"

PHONE MAIN 677

"Sa Camille"

for the figure inclined to stoutness

Exquisite! Very lightly boned—permits absolute freedom of waistline. Every La Camille means "Beauty—and Comfort, Too" for its wearer. The patented Ventilo feature makes La Camille astonishingly comfortable.

A full line of the different models always on hand.

Mrs. Robt. Pattison
Corsetiere
Phone Main 569
Apt. 10, New Foley Bldg.

Clever Coat For Sport

BURBERRY makes a clever decoration by trimming this white leather sport coat with interlocking leather circles of many sizes applied on the coat.

Women continue to ask for beauty advice regarding their hands. And I consider this a good indication, for, incredible as it seems, many women are prone to spend so much time upon beautifying their faces that they forget to care for their hands.

It is difficult for the woman who does her own housework to keep her hands as soft and fine as those of a leisurely young girl, but it can be done.

When I hear of women who complain of hands so dry and harsh and rough that they really dread to shake hands with anyone, I feel really sorry for them, for I can't imagine a more unwelcome feeling.

Plunging your hands into hot dish water and such things is, of course, far from pleasant in its results. But the fact I want to impress upon you is that a few sensible preventive measures are worth any number of cures.

You don't have to put your bare hands into dish water if you will but supply yourself with a pair of rubber gloves. These are quite inexpensive, and they are very worth the small cost, for you may consider that they save money for you in the long run.

Wear these when you wash dishes and pots and pans, and wear a pair of loose old gloves when you wield the broom. When you wash your hands always apply some soft beautifying lotion immediately after drying them.

This is an important step, for the frequent use of soap and water is necessarily drying in effect, and the softening lotion will keep your hands in such a condition that you won't have to take drastic measures to soften and beautify them later on.

Now, among the best of creams to promote soft, white, lovely hands are mutton tallow and cocoa butter. To use these most effectively you will need another pair of gloves, the softest, looziest ones you can find. These are to be worn at night.

Just before you go to bed at night rub either of these lotions into your hands, taking care to reach every part of your palm and the back of your hand. Also see that you rub the cream all about your nails. It serves wonderfully to soften the cuticle that often becomes hard and makes ugly little lumps at either corner of your nails.

Don't be afraid to use your cream too extravagantly. Put it on thickly, for the beneficial results come from the fact that the cream soaks into your hands during the course of the night. When you have applied it, put on your soft, loose gloves and climb into bed.

Miss Marie Skjersan, of San Francisco, California, and Alvin Reitan, who is well known here, but now located at Bend, Oregon, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at the Lutheran parsonage on the evening of August 4. Nels Nelson and Mrs. Christina Nelson were the attendants. The happy couple will make their home at Bend, Oregon, and will leave for that place in the near future. The marriage was solemnized by Rev. William F. Hoff.

The Ladies Parish and Mission Society of the Zion English Lutheran church will meet Thursday afternoon, at 2302 Second street, and will be entertained by Mrs. John Schilling and her daughter, Mrs. Moore, of Portland, who is now visiting her parents here.

The American Legion Auxiliary will meet tomorrow evening, August 6, with Mrs. Harley Richardson.

Mrs. Minnie Lupter will be hostess to the Parkdale club tomorrow afternoon, August 6. Mrs. Pearl Davis will assist Mrs. Lupter as hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Halgerman and Mrs. Maude Stewart motored to La Grande recently from Pendleton. They also visited Hot Lake during the day, returning to their homes in the evening.

Monmouth (Special) — Group four of the Normal students gave a costume party Friday evening. There was a large number in attendance and many different characters were represented. The evening was spent dancing.

Fashion Notes

Paris.—Cafe au lait is a favorite shade just now for traveling clothes. Sometimes a coat in this shade is trimmed with some such desirable color as old rose with big buttons to match.

New York.—Pale green hosiery is decidedly popular just now, perhaps because of its fresh seawater hue as contrasted with dusty urban streets. It is worn only with white shoes.

Paris.—The small hat of silk or duvetine is often trimmed these days with fur. A fur scarf such as that formerly worn around the neck is twisted about the crown with the tails standing up in the back.

London.—For dancing the smart shoe today is a sandal of black satin. It is edged with a fine line of gold, which sometimes expands into a tiny Greek pattern.

London.—The rectangular, jeweled watch that so many women are wearing at present is not hung on an ordinary chain. It swings at the end of a string of pearls, which is given an irregular effect by being fastened to the gown, on the back a little to the left.

Beauty Hints

Women continue to ask for beauty advice regarding their hands. And I consider this a good indication, for, incredible as it seems, many women are prone to spend so much time upon beautifying their faces that they forget to care for their hands.

It is difficult for the woman who does her own housework to keep her hands as soft and fine as those of a leisurely young girl, but it can be done.

When I hear of women who complain of hands so dry and harsh and rough that they really dread to shake hands with anyone, I feel really sorry for them, for I can't imagine a more unwelcome feeling.

Plunging your hands into hot dish water and such things is, of course, far from pleasant in its results. But the fact I want to impress upon you is that a few sensible preventive measures are worth any number of cures.

You don't have to put your bare hands into dish water if you will but supply yourself with a pair of rubber gloves. These are quite inexpensive, and they are very worth the small cost, for you may consider that they save money for you in the long run.

Wear these when you wash dishes and pots and pans, and wear a pair of loose old gloves when you wield the broom. When you wash your hands always apply some soft beautifying lotion immediately after drying them.

This is an important step, for the frequent use of soap and water is necessarily drying in effect, and the softening lotion will keep your hands in such a condition that you won't have to take drastic measures to soften and beautify them later on.

Now, among the best of creams to promote soft, white, lovely hands are mutton tallow and cocoa butter. To use these most effectively you will need another pair of gloves, the softest, looziest ones you can find. These are to be worn at night.

Just before you go to bed at night rub either of these lotions into your hands, taking care to reach every part of your palm and the back of your hand. Also see that you rub the cream all about your nails. It serves wonderfully to soften the cuticle that often becomes hard and makes ugly little lumps at either corner of your nails.

Don't be afraid to use your cream too extravagantly. Put it on thickly, for the beneficial results come from the fact that the cream soaks into your hands during the course of the night. When you have applied it, put on your soft, loose gloves and climb into bed.

CHARACTER IS WOMEN'S GOAL

Editor's Note.—Miss Adella Pritchard, now of Portland, but formerly of La Grande, Oregon, who was re-elected national president of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs, is often classed as one of the west's most accomplished women. Through her the west has won much recognition and her triumphs are of special interest to those who know her when she resided in the Grande Ronde valley.

(By ADELAIDE V. LAKE)

WEST BAYDEN, Ind.—With the slogan of the organization in mind "Better Business World," the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs, which held its convention here from July 21 to July 27, gave evidence of much progress toward its objective. A programme, designed especially for the benefit of the woman in business and for the girl planning to enter the business world was followed closely.

Recommendations of the education committee adopted by the convention, demonstrated the sentiment of the body toward the young business woman. "It is the policy of the federation to give assistance through friendly advice, vocational information and scholarships to young girls contemplating business as an occupation," the report stated. The body advocates a high school education for every business woman.

Two items of special interest at the convention were the election of national officers and the disposal of the controversy over the Independent Woman, official federation magazine, which has been a bone of contention in the federation for several years. Certain dissenting members, led by Mrs. Mary Hill Perkins, president of the Business and Professional Women's clubs of St. Paul, offered a plan designed to make the magazine practically self-supporting and to circulate it to all members of the federation. The body rejected the plan and made an appropriation of $10,000 for the year to the magazine.

West Wins Recognition.

The candidacy of Miss Adella Pritchard of Portland, for reelection to the national presidency of the federation absorbed the interest of the delegations from Oregon, Washington and Idaho, which stood solidly behind her. The election of Miss Pritchard grants her the leadership of the national federation for the second consecutive year and bestows upon the west the distinction of producing a business woman who has proved herself a much loved executive of an organization whose membership numbers almost 35,000 women.

Throughout the convention was evidenced a desire among a few delegations to restore to power the old regime which last held last year in Portland when Miss Pritchard was elected to her first term. There was a strong undercurrent, noticeable in the convention hall and in the lobby, favoring the election of an eastern or southern woman to the executive office, and this invested the convention with a political atmosphere which was not evident at all a year ago in Portland. The west was compared by some with that of Chattanooga, Tenn., two years ago, when the interest centered in club politics. Many expressions of

Hints for the Housewife

Vegetable salads are a very appetizing and beautiful dish and should be served a few times a week during the summer months while fresh vegetables are available.

Most housewives know that these salads can be served most attractively and make a tremendous appeal to the members of the family who come home tired out after work on a hot day.

The objection raised is that a salad of this kind should be made up of three or four vegetables and that the cooking of these vegetables requires a few flames burning on the stove for at least an hour, making the kitchen unbearable.

Here is a suggestion for a salad of four vegetables which can all be boiled together, leaving the kitchen cool and comfortable and saving considerable fuel.

Scrape and cut up some young carrots, prepare some string beans in about two inch lengths, and shell some fresh lima beans and peas. Place all in an enameled ware saucepan, cover with cold water and add salt. When finished, pour into an enameled ware colander to drain and cool. If enameled ware is used there will be no danger of the vegetables becoming discolored.

Cover a platter with lettuce leaves and place the beans in the center. When the vegetables are cold, distribute them on top of the lettuce. If you have any cold leftover potatoes, they can be diced and added to the salad. Garnish with a few sliced hard-boiled eggs, celery, radishes and olives. This will make an elaborate-looking but simply prepared meal.

BOB COMBS SETS

Kits in Ivory, Fancy and Leather

50c to $1.25

THE L & L DRUG CO.

SILVER GRILL

NOT HOW CHEAP, BUT O' HOW GOOD

Choice Steaks and Chops

Daily Dinner Menu

Strictly American Restaurant

Beauty Hints

Women continue to ask for beauty advice regarding their hands. And I consider this a good indication, for, incredible as it seems, many women are prone to spend so much time upon beautifying their faces that they forget to care for their hands.

It is difficult for the woman who does her own housework to keep her hands as soft and fine as those of a leisurely young girl, but it can be done.

When I hear of women who complain of hands so dry and harsh and rough that they really dread to shake hands with anyone, I feel really sorry for them, for I can't imagine a more unwelcome feeling.

Plunging your hands into hot dish water and such things is, of course, far from pleasant in its results. But the fact I want to impress upon you is that a few sensible preventive measures are worth any number of cures.

You don't have to put your bare hands into dish water if you will but supply yourself with a pair of rubber gloves. These are quite inexpensive, and they are very worth the small cost, for you may consider that they save money for you in the long run.

Wear these when you wash dishes and pots and pans, and wear a pair of loose old gloves when you wield the broom. When you wash your hands always apply some soft beautifying lotion immediately after drying them.

This is an important step, for the frequent use of soap and water is necessarily drying in effect, and the softening lotion will keep your hands in such a condition that you won't have to take drastic measures to soften and beautify them later on.

Now, among the best of creams to promote soft, white, lovely hands are mutton tallow and cocoa butter. To use these most effectively you will need another pair of gloves, the softest, looziest ones you can find. These are to be worn at night.

Just before you go to bed at night rub either of these lotions into your hands, taking care to reach every part of your palm and the back of your hand. Also see that you rub the cream all about your nails. It serves wonderfully to soften the cuticle that often becomes hard and makes ugly little lumps at either corner of your nails.

Don't be afraid to use your cream too extravagantly. Put it on thickly, for the beneficial results come from the fact that the cream soaks into your hands during the course of the night. When you have applied it, put on your soft, loose gloves and climb into bed.

CHARACTER IS WOMEN'S GOAL

Editor's Note.—Miss Adella Pritchard, now of Portland, but formerly of La Grande, Oregon, who was re-elected national president of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs, is often classed as one of the west's most accomplished women. Through her the west has won much recognition and her triumphs are of special interest to those who know her when she resided in the Grande Ronde valley.

(By ADELAIDE V. LAKE)

WEST BAYDEN, Ind.—With the slogan of the organization in mind "Better Business World," the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs, which held its convention here from July 21 to July 27, gave evidence of much progress toward its objective. A programme, designed especially for the benefit of the woman in business and for the girl planning to enter the business world was followed closely.

Recommendations of the education committee adopted by the convention, demonstrated the sentiment of the body toward the young business woman. "It is the policy of the federation to give assistance through friendly advice, vocational information and scholarships to young girls contemplating business as an occupation," the report stated. The body advocates a high school education for every business woman.

Two items of special interest at the convention were the election of national officers and the disposal of the controversy over the Independent Woman, official federation magazine, which has been a bone of contention in the federation for several years. Certain dissenting members, led by Mrs. Mary Hill Perkins, president of the Business and Professional Women's clubs of St. Paul, offered a plan designed to make the magazine practically self-supporting and to circulate it to all members of the federation. The body rejected the plan and made an appropriation of $10,000 for the year to the magazine.

West Wins Recognition.

The candidacy of Miss Adella Pritchard of Portland, for reelection to the national presidency of the federation absorbed the interest of the delegations from Oregon, Washington and Idaho, which stood solidly behind her. The election of Miss Pritchard grants her the leadership of the national federation for the second consecutive year and bestows upon the west the distinction of producing a business woman who has proved herself a much loved executive of an organization whose membership numbers almost 35,000 women.

Throughout the convention was evidenced a desire among a few delegations to restore to power the old regime which last held last year in Portland when Miss Pritchard was elected to her first term. There was a strong undercurrent, noticeable in the convention hall and in the lobby, favoring the election of an eastern or southern woman to the executive office, and this invested the convention with a political atmosphere which was not evident at all a year ago in Portland. The west was compared by some with that of Chattanooga, Tenn., two years ago, when the interest centered in club politics. Many expressions of

Hints for the Housewife

Vegetable salads are a very appetizing and beautiful dish and should be served a few times a week during the summer months while fresh vegetables are available.

Most housewives know that these salads can be served most attractively and make a tremendous appeal to the members of the family who come home tired out after work on a hot day.

The objection raised is that a salad of this kind should be made up of three or four vegetables and that the cooking of these vegetables requires a few flames burning on the stove for at least an hour, making the kitchen unbearable.

Here is a suggestion for a salad of four vegetables which can all be boiled together, leaving the kitchen cool and comfortable and saving considerable fuel.

Scrape and cut up some young carrots, prepare some string beans in about two inch lengths, and shell some fresh lima beans and peas. Place all in an enameled ware saucepan, cover with cold water and add salt. When finished, pour into an enameled ware colander to drain and cool. If enameled ware is used there will be no danger of the vegetables becoming discolored.

Cover a platter with lettuce leaves and place the beans in the center. When the vegetables are cold, distribute them on top of the lettuce. If you have any cold leftover potatoes, they can be diced and added to the salad. Garnish with a few sliced hard-boiled eggs, celery, radishes and olives. This will make an elaborate-looking but simply prepared meal.

BOB COMBS SETS

Kits in Ivory, Fancy and Leather

50c to $1.25

THE L & L DRUG CO.

SILVER GRILL

NOT HOW CHEAP, BUT O' HOW GOOD

Choice Steaks and Chops

Daily Dinner Menu

Strictly American Restaurant

Beauty Hints

Women continue to ask for beauty advice regarding their hands. And I consider this a good indication, for, incredible as it seems, many women are prone to spend so much time upon beautifying their faces that they forget to care for their hands.

It is difficult for the woman who does her own housework to keep her hands as soft and fine as those of a leisurely young girl, but it can be done.

When I hear of women who complain of hands so dry and harsh and rough that they really dread to shake hands with anyone, I feel really sorry for them, for I can't imagine a more unwelcome feeling.

Plunging your hands into hot dish water and such things is, of course, far from pleasant in its results. But the fact I want to impress upon you is that a few sensible preventive measures are worth any number of cures.

You don't have to put your bare hands into dish water if you will but supply yourself with a pair of rubber gloves. These are quite inexpensive, and they are very worth the small cost, for you may consider that they save money for you in the long run.

Wear these when you wash dishes and pots and pans, and wear a pair of loose old gloves when you wield the broom. When you wash your hands always apply some soft beautifying lotion immediately after drying them.

This is an important step, for the frequent use of soap and water is necessarily drying in effect, and the softening lotion will keep your hands in such a condition that you won't have to take drastic measures to soften and beautify them later on.

Now, among the best of creams to promote soft, white, lovely hands are mutton tallow and cocoa butter. To use these most effectively you will need another pair of gloves, the softest, looziest ones you can find. These are to be worn at night.

Just before you go to bed at night rub either of these lotions into your hands, taking care to reach every part of your palm and the back of your hand. Also see that you rub the cream all about your nails. It serves wonderfully to soften the cuticle that often becomes hard and makes ugly little lumps at either corner of your nails.

Don't be afraid to use your cream too extravagantly. Put it on thickly, for the beneficial results come from the fact that the cream soaks into your hands during the course of the night. When you have applied it, put on your soft, loose gloves and climb into bed.

CHARACTER IS WOMEN'S GOAL

Editor's Note.—Miss Adella Pritchard, now of Portland, but formerly of La Grande, Oregon, who was re-elected national president of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs, is often classed as one of the west's most accomplished women. Through her the west has won much recognition and her triumphs are of special interest to those who know her when she resided in the Grande Ronde valley.

(By ADELAIDE V. LAKE)

WEST BAYDEN, Ind.—With the slogan of the organization in mind "Better Business World," the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs, which held its convention here from July 21 to July 27, gave evidence of much progress toward its objective. A programme, designed especially for the benefit of the woman in business and for the girl planning to enter the business world was followed closely.

Recommendations of the education committee adopted by the convention, demonstrated the sentiment of the body toward the young business woman. "It is the policy of the federation to give assistance through friendly advice, vocational information and scholarships to young girls contemplating business as an occupation," the report stated. The body advocates a high school education for every business woman.

Two items of special interest at the convention were the election of national officers and the disposal of the controversy over the Independent Woman, official federation magazine, which has been a bone of contention in the federation for several years. Certain dissenting members, led by Mrs. Mary Hill Perkins, president of the Business and Professional Women's clubs of St. Paul, offered a plan designed to make the magazine practically self-supporting and to circulate it to all members of the federation. The body rejected the plan and made an appropriation of $10,000 for the year to the magazine.

West Wins Recognition.

The candidacy of Miss Adella Pritchard of Portland, for reelection to the national presidency of the federation absorbed the interest of the delegations from Oregon, Washington and Idaho, which stood solidly behind her. The election of Miss Pritchard grants her the leadership of the national federation for the second consecutive year and bestows upon the west the distinction of producing a business woman who has proved herself a much loved executive of an organization whose membership numbers almost 35,000 women.

Throughout the convention was evidenced a desire among a few delegations to restore to power the old regime which last held last year in Portland when Miss Pritchard was elected to her first term. There was a strong undercurrent, noticeable in the convention hall and in the lobby, favoring the election of an eastern or southern woman to the executive office, and this invested the convention with a political atmosphere which was not evident at all a year ago in Portland. The west was compared by some with that of Chattanooga, Tenn., two years ago, when the interest centered in club politics. Many expressions of

Hints for the Housewife

Vegetable salads are a very appetizing and beautiful dish and should be served a few times a week during the summer months while fresh vegetables are available.

Most housewives know that these salads can be served most attractively and make a tremendous appeal to the members of the family who come home tired out after work on a hot day.

The objection raised is that a salad of this kind should be made up of three or four vegetables and that the cooking of these vegetables requires a few flames burning on the stove for at least an hour, making the kitchen unbearable.

Here is a suggestion for a salad of four vegetables which can all be boiled together, leaving the kitchen cool and comfortable and saving considerable fuel.

Scrape and cut up some young carrots, prepare some string beans in about two inch lengths, and shell some fresh lima beans and peas. Place all in an enameled ware saucepan, cover with cold water and add salt. When finished, pour into an enameled ware colander to drain and cool. If enameled ware is used there will be no danger of the vegetables becoming discolored.

Cover a platter with lettuce leaves and place the beans in the center. When the vegetables are cold, distribute them on top of the lettuce. If you have any cold leftover potatoes, they can be diced and added to the salad. Garnish with a few sliced hard-boiled eggs, celery, radishes and olives. This will make an elaborate-looking but simply prepared meal.

BOB COMBS SETS

Kits in Ivory, Fancy and Leather

50c to $1.25

THE L & L DRUG CO.

SILVER GRILL

NOT HOW CHEAP, BUT O' HOW GOOD

Choice Steaks and Chops

Daily Dinner Menu

Strictly American Restaurant

Beauty Hints

Women continue to ask for beauty advice regarding their hands. And I consider this a good indication, for, incredible as it seems, many women are prone to spend so much time upon beautifying their faces that they forget to care for their hands.

It is difficult for the woman who does her own housework to keep her hands as soft and fine as those of a leisurely young girl, but it can be done.

When I hear of women who complain of hands so dry and harsh and rough that they really dread to shake hands with anyone, I feel really sorry for them, for I can't imagine a more unwelcome feeling.

Plunging your hands into hot dish water and such things is, of course, far from pleasant in its results. But the fact I want to impress upon you is that a few sensible preventive measures are worth any number of cures.

You don't have to put your bare hands into dish water if you will but supply yourself with a pair of rubber gloves. These are quite inexpensive, and they are very worth the small cost, for you may consider that they save money for you in the long run.

Wear these when you wash dishes and pots and pans, and wear a pair of loose old gloves when you wield the broom. When you wash your hands always apply some soft beautifying lotion immediately after drying them.

This is an important step, for the frequent use of soap and water is necessarily drying in effect, and the softening lotion will keep your hands in such a condition that you won't have to take drastic measures to soften and beautify them later on.

Now, among the best of creams to promote soft, white, lovely hands are mutton tallow and cocoa butter. To use these most effectively you will need another pair of gloves, the softest, looziest ones you can find. These are to be worn at night.

Just before you go to bed at night rub either of these lotions into your hands, taking care to reach every part of your palm and the back of your hand. Also see that you rub the cream all about your nails. It serves wonderfully to soften the cuticle that often becomes hard and makes ugly little lumps at either corner of your nails.

Don't be afraid to use your cream too extravagantly. Put it on thickly, for the beneficial results come from the fact that the cream soaks into your hands during the course of the night. When you have applied it, put on your soft, loose gloves and climb into bed.

CHARACTER IS WOMEN'S GOAL

Editor's Note.—Miss Adella Pritchard, now of Portland, but formerly of La Grande, Oregon, who was re-elected national president of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs, is often classed as one of the west's most accomplished women. Through her the west has won much recognition and her triumphs are of special interest to those who know her when she resided in the Grande Ronde valley.

(By ADELAIDE V. LAKE)

WEST BAYDEN, Ind.—With the slogan of the organization in mind "Better Business World," the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs, which held its convention here from July 21 to July 27, gave evidence of much progress toward its objective. A programme, designed especially for the benefit of the woman in business and for the girl planning to enter the business world was followed closely.

Recommendations of the education committee adopted by the convention, demonstrated the sentiment of the body toward the young business woman. "It is the policy of the federation to give assistance through friendly advice, vocational information and scholarships to young girls contemplating business as an occupation," the report stated. The body advocates a high school education for every business woman.

Two items of special interest at the convention were the election of national officers and the disposal of the controversy over the Independent Woman, official federation magazine, which has been a bone of contention in the federation for several years. Certain dissenting members, led by Mrs. Mary Hill Perkins, president of the Business and Professional Women's clubs of St. Paul, offered a plan designed to make the magazine practically self-supporting and to circulate it to all members of the federation. The body rejected the plan and made an appropriation of $10,000 for the year to the magazine.

West Wins Recognition.

The candidacy of Miss Adella Pritchard of Portland, for reelection to the national presidency of the federation absorbed the interest of the delegations from Oregon, Washington and Idaho, which stood solidly behind her. The election of Miss Pritchard grants her the leadership of the national federation for the second consecutive year and bestows upon the west the distinction of producing a business woman who has proved herself a much loved executive of an organization whose membership numbers almost 35,000 women.

Throughout the convention was evidenced a desire among a few delegations to restore to power the old regime which last held last year in Portland when Miss Pritchard was elected to her first term. There was a strong undercurrent, noticeable in the convention hall and in the lobby, favoring the election of an eastern or southern woman to the executive office, and this invested the convention with a political atmosphere which was not evident at all a year ago in Portland. The west was compared by some with that of Chattanooga, Tenn., two years ago, when the interest centered in club politics. Many expressions of

Hints for the Housewife

Vegetable salads are a very appetizing and beautiful dish and should be served a few times a week during the summer months while fresh vegetables are available.

Most housewives know that these salads can be served most attractively and make a tremendous appeal to the members of the family who come home tired out after work on a hot day.

The objection raised is that a salad of this kind should be made up of three or four vegetables and that the cooking of these vegetables requires a few flames burning on the stove for at least an hour, making the kitchen unbearable.

Here is a suggestion for a salad of four vegetables which can all be boiled together, leaving the kitchen cool and comfortable and saving considerable fuel.

Scrape and cut up some young carrots, prepare some string beans in about two inch lengths, and shell some fresh lima beans and peas. Place all in an enameled ware saucepan, cover with cold water and add salt. When finished, pour into an enameled ware colander to drain and cool. If enameled ware is used there will be no danger of the vegetables becoming discolored.

Cover a platter with lettuce leaves and place the beans in the center. When the vegetables are cold, distribute them on top of the lettuce. If you have any cold leftover potatoes, they can be diced and added to the salad. Garnish with a few sliced hard-boiled eggs, celery, radishes and olives. This will make an elaborate-looking but simply prepared meal.

BOB COMBS SETS

Kits in Ivory, Fancy and Leather

50c to $1.25

THE L & L DRUG CO.

SILVER GRILL

NOT HOW CHEAP, BUT O' HOW GOOD

Choice Steaks and Chops

Daily Dinner Menu

Strictly American Restaurant

Fall Fashions in Hats

NOW IS THE TIME TO HAVE AND ENJOY

A New Fall Hat

In Between-Season Hats these might be called, for they are not summery or yet wintery. There is a fetching toque that will liven a suit.

LADIES READY-TO-WEAR

PUTMAN'S

AND MILLINERY

WHEN IN NEED OF

CANDY SEE US

The Candy Shop

220 FIR ST.

The Home of Home Made Candy

ASK FOR

PURITY BREAD

First for Quality

La Grande Bakery

K. J. McWilliams

PURITY BREAD SUPERFINE BREAD

CARR'S

Where Your Credit Is Good

READ THE OBSERVER CLASSIFIED ADS

Service On All Makes of Batteries

Expert workmanship and genuine Willard repair parts used in every job. Rental batteries you can depend upon while we are charging your battery. Willard parts improve any battery.

"You can bank on what they tell you here, and the bill is sure to be reasonable," says Little Ampere.

THE BATTERY & ELECTRIC SERVICE CO.
Leighton Machine Works Bldg.
1311 Washington Ave. Phone Main 133

Willard

STORAGE BATTERIES

Yellowstone

THE WONDERLAND

$28.10

Trouble Trip Through Sleeper

From LA GRANDE 2:30 A. M.

UNION PACIFIC SYSTEM

J. H. KEENEY, Agent

RICH

the rich pure product of West Coast Dairies

It's Nestlé's ALPINE

NESTLÉ'S ALPINE MILK

FALLING HAIR

Checked readily, when proper methods are employed. The Marinello system provides just the preparations necessary for various conditions.

MARINELLO COSMETIC SHOP

25 New Foley Bldg. Phone Main 126

The Bloom of Youth

We Are Not in the Automobile Business BUT WE DO SELL

EDISON MAZDA AUTOMOBILE LAMPS

You use them in your home—why not in your car? Do you carry spare lamps? We furnish a kit free in which to carry your spare lamps.

H. and S. ELECTRIC

Phone 393-W. 107 Depot St.