TENNIS STAR IS DEFEATED

SOUTHAMPTON, N. Y. (AP).—Harvey Snodgrass of California administered the first defeat suffered by Norman E. Brookes of Australia, since his return to this country Thursday when he defeated him in the fourth round of the invitation tennis tournament at the Meadow club for the Southampton bowl.

The victory put Snodgrass in the semi-final round. In the only other singles match, Howard Kinsey of California vanquished John F. Whitebeck of Bronxville, N. Y., 6-2, 6-4. Snodgrass meets Robert Kinsey Friday and Howard Kinsey will be opposed by R. I. C. Norton of St. Louis in the semi-final round.

Snodgrass had too much speed for Brookes. The California ace flailing once in the first set, bearing placements on his ground strokes and winning many points on service aces. Brookes did not get started until the second set when he made many surprising shots while his opponent fell off in steadiness.

Brookes was forced to stop the play for a few moments in the third set to regain his wind when the score stood 4-1 against him. The rest helped him for he came back to take the next two games, but there was no withstanding Snodgrass, whose play Thursday was exceptionally brilliant.

The summaries:

Singles, fourth round:

Harvey Snodgrass defeated Norman E. Brookes, 6-1, 4-6, 6-4; Howard Kinsey defeated John F. Whitebeck, 6-2, 6-4.

Doubles, second round:

Clayton B. Emerson and Jerry Lang defeated R. Howard VanDell and Fred C. Barnes, 6-4, 8-6.

Third round: Harvey Snodgrass and Walter Westbrook defeated Fritz Meryte and Thomas Mangan 6-4, 6-1.

STEADY RING WORK BIG AID

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP).—Pugilistic prestige and big purses are at last coming to Tommy Gibbons, at a time when the St. Paul heavyweight is long past the age when most fighters are in their prime.

Fighting steadily since 1918, Gibbons had hit to ring fame. Gibbons achieved a formidable summit when he stayed 15 scintillating rounds with Jack Dempsey in Montana a year ago. That "moral victory" after nearly 17 years of ring experience, opened the way to the largest purse the St. Paul fighter has ever received.

There was no direct remuneration for Gibbons in his fight with Dempsey, but now at the age of 23 he is "cashin' in" on the showing he made, and apparently is at the zenith of his ring career.

For his fight with Georges Carpentier at Michigan City, last May he received his largest purse, $62,000. Previously, his top had been $12,500 for a match with Harry Greb. He received $30,000 for his fight with Jack Bloomfield, the English heavyweight, in London.

It has been no combined rust for Tommy, however, for under the expert eye of his brother, Mike Gibbons, he has followed a rigorous rule of living, full of self-denial.

There is no one of the "box room" fighter in Tommy's make-up. He has carried the gentlemanly bearing of his private life into the ring, and finds in his home his greatest delight. Most of his time, aside from fight engagements, is devoted to his wife and five children, all boys. The youngest are twins, born only a few weeks ago. His oldest boy is eight.

By nature Tommy is modest and very little in the limelight that would gladly welcome him, even in his town. Back in the days when Brother Mike's ring prowess gained him the name of "Phantom," Tommy saw the opportunity for a much more remunerative occupation than as an employee in the mail-order shops here. Then began the long, steady climb to ring prominence.

"Clean living and right thinking," Tommy once said, "can do more to keep a fellow in condition than the hardest training interrupted by occasional lapses into dissipation."

In recent years Tommy has established an enviable ring record, including a long list of knockouts. Even after his 15-round contest with Champion Dempsey there still stood his record of never having been knocked down in a ring engagement. At one time, starting in 1921, he ran a string of consecutive knockouts to 26.

There has been no talk from Tommy of retiring from the ring. He wants another match with Dempsey, and expects to keep after it until he lands it. But when retirement comes, unless he suffers unforeseen business reverses before then, Tommy probably will be able to retire to a life of comparative ease, for he has made income-yielding investments with his winnings.

His brother, Mike, also has invested in city and other property which have "fixed him for life." Tommy, however, has turned to stocks and bonds, so that coupon clipping in his principal business occupation outside ring activities.

HIDDEN WILL PLAY.
PHILADELPHIA (AP).—The Philadelphia Evening Bulletin stated in its Thursday issue that William T. Tilden, national tennis champion, had notified the Davis cup committee he would play in the coming international contest.

AUSTRALIA SUCCESSFUL IN DAVIS CUP MATCHES

HALFMOORE (AP).—Once more Australia proved successful in its Davis cup matches. Thursday on the Baltimore Country Club courts the team led by Gerald Patterson scored two victories in singles over the representatives of Mexico.

Pat O'Hara Wood started the Australians on the path to victory in the first match against Ignacio Berioha. He won in straight sets, 6-2, 6-0, 3-7.

Patterson then defeated Manuel Llano, 6-9, 6-1, 6-2. Although Australia needs another win to clinch the match against Mexico, victory seemed certain after Thursday's triumph. The matches Thursday were played under somewhat unfavorable conditions. Rain delayed play for nearly an hour.

Favorites Win in Women's Golf Play

CHICAGO (AP).—While boating parties enjoyed themselves on the lake formed in the middle of the Onwasta golf links by the overflow waters from Shoshone creek, contestants in the women's western golf championship journeyed to the higher grounds of Shores Acres Country club and fought out the second match course, reducing the field to eight players.

While the ravines of the Shores Acres links discommodated some of the players who were not familiar with the course, most of the favorites survived, including Marian B. Owens of Kansas City, who is defending her title, and Edith Cummings of Chicago, national champion. Another former champion fell by the wayside Thursday when Mrs. P. C. Letts of Chicago was eliminated by Dorothy King in 12 holes.

Another surviving titleholder Thursday is Mrs. Dave Gaet of Memphis, who handily defeated Catherine Walsh of Grand Beach, Mich., 5 and 4.

Two other regional champions who outlived the second round were Mrs. H. B. Sterrett of Hutchinson, Kan., who defeated Mrs. J. W. Taylor of Chicago, one up, and Mrs. Stewart Hanley of Detroit, who eliminated Dorothy Higbie of Chicago, 2 up.
