

IT'S THE CUT OF YOUR CLOTHES THAT COUNTS

Service

Service is not an extra that we throw in because we are so good natured. We give you good service because it's good business. We want you to come back, and we know you won't unless the purchases you make here continue to please you after you have left the store.

The things a man buys at a store like this are very personal. If he invests in a suit that doesn't wholly satisfy him at the time, it's certain he will think less and less of it—and of us—every time he wears it.

When we sell you a Society Brand suit, we know perfectly well that three months from the day you bought it you will like it even more.

PENNEY SALES SHOWED GAIN

According to information received by J. A. Tedford, of the J. C. Penney company store here, the chain store sales all over the country for the first four months this year amounted to $17,882,242. This represents a gain of $2,415,900 over the same period last year.

Ninety-six new stores have been added recently making a total of 571 stores in 22 states. Reports also state that the J. C. Penney company is expecting to enter the New England field and that plans are being made to open stores in that section in the near future. This step will make the concern more than ever a truly national institution.

softest skin, the roddent cheeks. Now his face is tanned, and as he wrote me the other day, "we're lanky like lumberjacks!"

"But he's still the handsome boy I ever saw. Here's a photograph of him with his officer's cap on. People often mistake it for a picture of the Prince of Wales."

"He expected the trip to be hard. Before they took off in March, he said, 'If anyone thinks this thing is going to be fun, they're crazy.'"

"It isn't John's first long flight. He flew around the 'rim' of the arctic in 1919."

In Spokane, Mrs. Cora L. Arnold is waiting for her son, Lieutenant Leslie P. Arnold, another one of the pilots.

"I'm not at all worried about Leslie," she says. "In all the time he has been flying, he has had only one accident. And that wasn't serious."

"That was in Memphis, when he was forced to make a landing on top of a henhouse. But he escaped without a scratch."

Letters Almost Daily

From Wade. "Leslie was an instructor in the air service both in this country and in France during the war. He is a Princeton graduate. Before going into the aviation service he was a draughtsman in the submarine division."

Near Cassopolis, Mich., lives Mrs. William M. Wade, mother of Lieutenant Leigh Wade. Like the mothers of the other flyers, she is confident he will return safely.

Lieutenant Wade has been home only for visits of a few hours at a time since entering the army. His mother says, "A couple times when he was stationed at Dayton, he flew back for brief visits."

Mrs. Wade receives almost daily letters from him. And cards and souvenirs have been mailed from every station at which the Yankee aviator has stopped.

Mrs. Christina Nelson, mother of Lieutenant Eric Nelson, liaison officer and chief engineer on the flight, lives in Sweden. And Mrs. E. B. Ogden, mother of Master Sergeant A. D. Ogden, specially commissioned second lieutenant for the flight, lives in Woodville, Miss.
