NEWS of SOCIETY

Social news must be in the hands of the society editor by 9:30 o'clock. Due to the fact that the social page is made up before noon, it is practically impossible to insert stories after that hour. Hereafter, items, no matter how important they are, that are delayed beyond that hour, will not be printed until the following day—News Editor's Note.

Mrs. C. Heryford and Mrs. C. N. Ogilvy.
Alleged (Special) — A delightful surprise party was given recently honoring Mr. and Mrs. Van Housen, before they depart for Portland, where they will make their home in the future. Nearly fifty people were present, among them being Rev. Quinn of Union, who gave a short address, after which Mrs. Van Housen was given a handkerchief shower. During the evening delicious refreshments were served.

New York. — The three colors most chic in jewelry for early autumn are sapphire blue, deep red and emerald. Oriental bracelets in all these colors combined are a novel and delightful idea.

A pleasant time was spent at the Chas. Miller residence on Penn avenue last evening when a number of friends of Miss Isabelle Miller gathered for an evening of dancing. Six couples were in attendance and after a very enjoyable time the delicious refreshments were served.

Laad Canyon. (Special) — Mrs. T. W. Bates was the latest hunter to the Get-Together club. The afternoon was enjoyably spent at the close of which a delightful luncheon was served. Mrs. Ben Cotner will be hostess to the club at its next meeting.

New York. — Among the stunning new gowns for formal afternoon wear is one in leaf bronze crepe embroidered on sleeves and in skirt with zig zags of narrow braid in beige, cream and grays. The ends of the sleeves and the edge of the skirt are rimmed with brown fur.

A delightful affair took place last evening, when a number of the W. W. G.'s of the Baptist church surprised Mrs. Howard C. Ball with a miscellaneous shower. The girls appeared at the Ball home at eight o'clock and the evening was enjoyably spent, after which refreshments were served. Mrs. Ball received a number of appropriate gifts. She was formerly Miss Selma Whittenburg.

Paris. — One type of the new top coats is, as straight and severe as a man's. But it is made up altogether of strips of pale green crepe de chine, like ribbons cleverly knotted together.

Liquor Breach Charged.
HOOD RIVER, Ore. — A man who gave his name as Dan Edwards and Portland as his residence, and who was accompanied by two women who said they were his wife and daughter, was arrested and held in the city jail on a moonshine charge by Traffic Officers Morrison and Riley. The officers trailed the car through the city and arrested Edwards when he stopped in a local garage to have a spring repaired. They found three and one-half gallons of "white mule" in glass jugs.

Nauma Williamson McNeill and small daughter are back from their trip to the mountains and will be here for about a week before departing for their home in the east.

Paris. — Ear rings today are longer than ever, the favorite being a big jewel on the end of a thin chain that reaches at least to the shoulder.

Last week the officers said they received a tip that a car bearing the license number appearing on Edward's car was engaged in hauling moonshine from Wasco county to Portland.

Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Richardson of La Grande are stopping at the Campbell Court hotel. Mrs. Richardson is prominent in the musical and social circles of her home city. — Oregon Journal.

London. — Four wide flounces of "berbe" proportions make up an afternoon frock of lacquer red crepe georgette shown here today. Each flounce is finely plaited, and there is a little belt of red embroidered velvet.

Marshfield Prisoner Escapes. MARSHFIELD, Ore. — J. K. Conroy, held at the county jail for an automobile offense, escaped from the county officers. Sheriff Ed. Lingen recently made a trip to Nevada to bring Conroy back for trial.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Broughton have as their house guests Mr. Broughton's mother, Mrs. H. M. Broughton, and sister, Mrs. Louis Pennick, of Mulvane, Kansas, and Mr. and Mrs. Alva Broughton and family of Idaho. They expect to remain here two or three weeks.

The Mothers and Daughters of the L. D. S. church will go on an outing Thursday evening and remain over Friday of this week. All mothers and daughters who have no way to go will meet at the tabernacle at five o'clock Thursday evening and a way will be provided. Everyone is requested to bring only their bedding, plate, knife, fork and spoon.

A meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held at the home of Mrs. Fred Braden, on T avenue, Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. All members are urged to be present.

Cove. (Special) — The Ladies' Guild was entertained at the home of Mrs. A. G. Conklin Thursday afternoon with Mrs. A. G. and T. H. Conklin as hostesses. The afternoon was spent at "500" with high honors going to Mrs. William Hallmark and the second prize going to Miss Bess Kelly.

Those present were Mrs. Ray Goodenough, Mrs. C. C. Hill, Mrs. G. N. Tarkington and Mrs. Ed. Thomas of La Grande, Mrs. J. J. Conley, Mrs. E. C. Ives, Mrs. L. B. Carter, Mrs. A. H. Orton, Miss Bess Kelly, Mrs. A. O. Huntley, Mrs. T. W. Conklin, Mrs. William Hallmark, Mrs. Chas. DeHaas, Mrs. J. E. Mills, Mrs. L. E. Anderson, Mrs. T. C. Hery, Mrs. R. I. Barker, Mrs. R. H. Daniels, Mrs. L. R. Lay.

Lace Gown For Fall

THE lace costume will have a conspicuous place in the fall and winter wardrobe. If not entirely made of lace it will be combined with soft crepe or chiffon in a delicate color and dyed to match. This costume is carried out entirely in beige color. Very wide banding is employed to form the bodice and the panels in the skirt and the undergarment. A novel feature is the zirdle tied low over the hips, which is made of plaited chiffon. Frequently these lace gowns are made in the form of tunics so that they may be worn over different colored
