

Classified Want Ads

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—Typewriter, standard make. Inquire of Observer. 8-15-24

FOR SALE—Ford car, in first class condition. Inquire of Observer. 8-15-24

FOR SALE—Household goods. Inquire 2907 Second. 8-15-24

FOR SALE—Peaches. Phone 276-W. 8-15-24

FOR SALE—One Superior range, and one heating stove, cheap. Call at 2263 Fir St. 8-14-24

FOR SALE—Team and harness. Weight 2500. Good cow, some household goods. Corner 4th and Willow. 8-14-24

FOR SALE—Cheap. Two lots and 6-room house, corner 5th and M Ave. Easy terms. Agents list. Phone Farm 76, or write G. McCarb, Observer. Also 1500 acres black pine, good spring and meadow, 10 miles south of La Grande. 8-15-24

FOR SALE—Ford touring car in good condition on easy payments. Eastern Oregon Music Co. 8-14-24

FOR SALE—Lewellyn letters, seven weeks old pupping, thoroughbred; also one ten months old, just good age to hunt this fall. 1902 Alder street, or Phone 510-W. 8-14-24

FOR SALE—Player piano just as good as new at a bargain and on easy payments. Eastern Oregon Music Co. 8-14-24

FOR SALE—Several used phonographs we will sell at a bargain, $5 down and $5 per month. Eastern Oregon Music Co. 8-14-24

FOR SALE—5 room house, furnished, 2 good lots, good well water and garage, $1600. $500 cash, balance $25.00 per month, 805 Lake. 8-11-24

FOR SALE—1 acre land, good barn 18x30 ft., well water. Corner Russell and Maple streets. Close to Greenwood school. A bargain. Inquire 2907 Spruce St. 8-9-24

FOR SALE—1918 Buick four touring car. Engine overhauled, good battery, top and upholstery. Inquire 1306 W Ave. 7-18-24

FOR SALE—6-room modern house. Close in, 1604 Adams. Call Farmer 127. 7-11-24

FREE—Party books at Eastern Oregon Music company store. Also 20 books for sale including a history of Union county and other books on history, medicine and theology. 8-13-24 children a specialty. Suite 20 Sommer Bldg. Phone 497-W. Residence Phone 190-W. 8-15-24

OSTEOPATHIC PHYSICIAN

DR. J. L. and DR. MARGARET INGLE—Osteopaths. Spinal Curvature and Diseases of Women and children a specialty. Office phone Main 100. Residence phone Main 100, 2 rings. Sommer Bldg. 8-15-24

PHYSICIAN-SURGEON—Dr. P. L. Halston—Practice limited to the eye, ear, nose and throat, and fitting of glasses. Sommer Bldg. Main 778. 1-1-14

NATURE CURE

DR. A. N. and MARY E. MAYVILLE—Specialists in chronic diseases. Methods: Naturopath and Mechano-Therapy. Skin and blood diseases, nervous diseases, chronic headaches, eczema, sciatia, appendicitis, constipation, bowel trouble; all kinds of chronic diseases successfully treated. Call Main 523. Mayville Nature Cure Home, 2101 East Adams Ave. Office hours, 10 to 12 a. m., 1:30 to 5 p. m. Consultation Free. 1-1-14

PIANO TUNERS

EXPERT PIANO TUNING—Clean and voice your piano without extra charge. Work guaranteed. Call Newlin Book Store for appointment. Roy E. Phillips. 4-15-24

FRATERNAL DIRECTORY

L. O. O. M.—La Grande Lodge No. 859 Royal Order of Moose, holds regular meetings every Thursday night at 8 p. m. at Old Fellows hall. The Women's Mooseheart Legion No. 398 meets every second and fourth Thursdays of each month. Visitors welcome. Dr. A. N. Mayville, Dictator. Harold Lund, Secretary.

B. P. O. ELKS—La Grande Lodge No. 437. Lodge meets each Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. Home and club privileges cheerfully extended to all Brother Elks. Lester Bramwell, Exalted Ruler. Mood Eckley, Secretary.

MODERN WOODMEN of AMERICA—La Grande Camp No. 7702 meets on the first Thursday evening of each month, in the K. of P. hall. Visiting Neighbors welcome. RAY S. BENNETT, V. C. JAKE ROSTOCK, Clerk

WOODMEN of the WORLD—La Grande Camp No. 165. Meets every first and third Monday nights at Eagles hall. All visiting Neighbors welcome. Dues payable at office of the Clerk. Rooms 21-22, La Grande National Bank Building. E. E. Slivis, C. C. R. J. Kitchen, Clerk.

A. F. and A. M.—La Grande Lodge No. 41. A. F. and A. M. holds regular meetings first and third Fridays at 7:30 p. m. Cordial welcome to all Masons. Fred E. Kiddle, W. M. E. H. Ringo, Secretary.

KNIGHTS of PYTHIAS—Red Cross Lodge No. 27 meets every Monday evening in Castle hall (K. of P. Hall), at 8 p. m. A Pythian welcome to all visiting Knights. Dr. J. E. Woodell, C. C. C. L. Graham, K. R. S.

O. E. S.—Hope Chapter No. 13 O. E. S. holds stated communication the second and fourth Wednesdays of each month at 8:00 p. m. Visiting members cordially welcomed. Netta K. Eakin, W. M. Anna S. Grove, Secretary.

BOY SCOUTS WILL CAMP ROSENBERG. Ore.—The annual camp for the Boy Scouts of Douglas county will open Friday at Wolf creek, 25 miles east of Roseburg. Camp will be attended by about 50 scouts and it is expected it will be one of the best ever held. Camp this year is sponsored by the Roseburg Rotary club, and committees appointed by that organization have made all necessary arrangements for transportation and supplies. Two directors, J. S. Tomlinson and Russell Linfort, will be in charge, and C. H. Shotwell has been secured as camp cook.

FOUND—Lewellyn setter pup about 4 months old. White with brown specks on ears. Answers to name of Dal. Notify Scotty Menaker, at Hermann's Lunch. 8-15-24

STAYED—Black mare, branded C on right hip and wire cut on left front foot. Sorrel saddle horse, formerly owned by Tom Conklin. Owners may have same by calling Staedland Bros. Care and paying for expenses. Horses been at our place, three and two weeks, respectively. 8-12-24

FOUND—Lewellyn setter pup about 4 months old. White with brown specks on ears. Answers to name of Dal. Notify Scotty Menaker, at Hermann's Lunch. 8-15-24

STAYED—Black mare, branded C on right hip and wire cut on left front foot. Sorrel saddle horse, formerly owned by Tom Conklin. Owners may have same by calling Staedland Bros. Care and paying for expenses. Horses been at our place, three and two weeks, respectively. 8-12-24

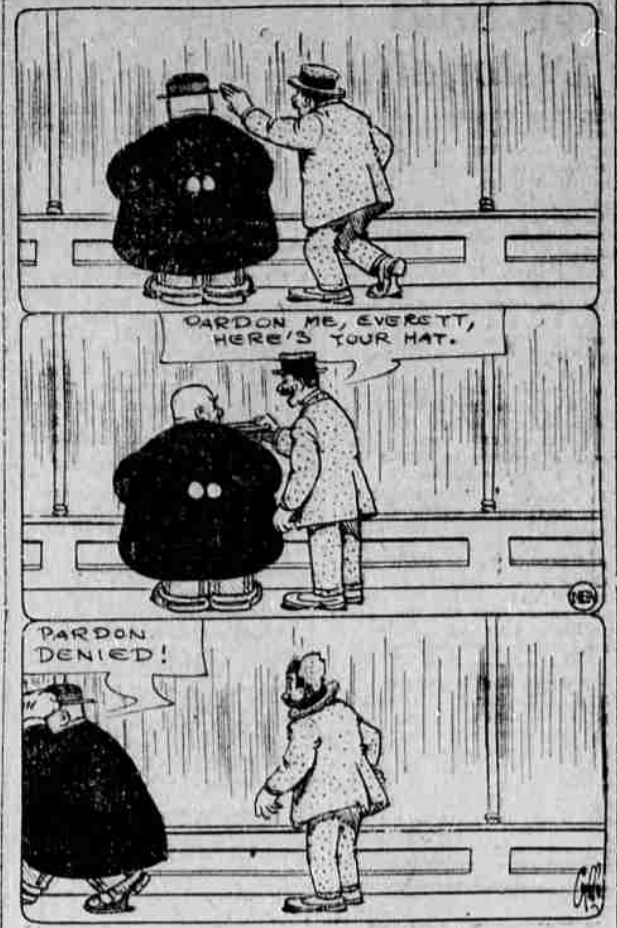

BUSINESS DIRECTORY

ATTORNEYS
COCHRAN & EBERHARD—Geo. T. Cochran and Colton R. Eberhard, Attorneys. La Grande National Bank Building.

CHIROPRACTOR
DR. BELLE MYERS, Chiropractor—New Foley Building, Hours 10 to 12 a. m., 2 to 5 p. m., and 7 to 9 p. m. 7-24-24

DR. J. E. WOODDELL—Chiropractor and Naturopath. Skin and blood diseases, headaches, rheumatism, sciatica, eczema, varicose veins, all kinds of stomach, heart and kidney trouble successfully treated. Blood pressure reduced. Diseases of women and

OUTBURSTS OF EVERETT TRUE By Condo

La Grande Theatres

Is Your Hubby Bored by Monotony?

"Wives! Be unusual!" Such advice is offered women of the world by no less a personage than William de Mille, who sends this startling message through his latest Paramount picture, "Don't Call It Love," which will be shown at the Arcade theatre Monday and Tuesday.

"Wives! Be unusual!" To the average spirited American man, nothing is more tiring than monotony, according to the theme of "Don't Call It Love." It is therefore necessary that a woman, if she would continue to hold the interest of her husband after marriage, be different.

In the new de Mille photoplay, the effect of monotonous everyday life is brought home with unusual force by a triangle affair centered on by Agnes Ayres, Nita Naldi and Jack Holt. Theodore Kosloff and Red La Touque are also featured.

Vaudeville Sunday To Be One of Much Entertainment.

A surprisingly versatile gathering of fun-makers and novelty producers in their pleasurable pastimes and frolics will be seen at the Arcade theatre on Sunday.

As headliners, we have the Le Claire Sisters and Lee who are conspicuous in this program in "Steps and Tunes," a pleasing combination of harmony song hits and dancing numbers. Reports as to their ability as vocalists and dancers are of the best and their style, mannerisms, intricate dancing, beautiful costumes, and special drapings make them a valuable asset on this metropolitan bill.

Wesley and Marks, a social pair of funsters in their laughable satirical "Mind Him," present a comedy exhibition of mental tortures. This satire is typical of the vaudeville acts they are portraying. Songs and dances are intermingled with witty repartee.

Villa and Strigo, who bill themselves as the "Texas Duo," are from the South and have learned the ways of the real Southern negro. They play "Blues" on the guitars in a manner that makes one clamor for more as they are a musical treat.

Harry Brown, son of old man Brown, appears in the "Singing Juggler." We have had talking jugglers, but Harry calmly struts on in evening dress and stuns a light comedy number; then proceeds to do his many tricks in juggling that will keep you busy trying to find out how they are accomplished.

"Her Marriage Vow" Sunday and Monday At Sherrys.

La Grande Mattress Shop and Weaving Works

Mattresses of all kinds cleaned and rebuilt; Feather Renovating; Rag and Fluff Rugs made to order and for sale. Carpet and Rug Cleaning.

Licensed Fumigator Factory Phone 424-W CHAS. EDWARDS, Prop.

Cast: Monte Blue, John Roche, Beverly Bayne, Priscilla Moran, Willard Louis, Arthur Hoyt, Margaret Livingston, Martha Petelle, Mary Grabhorn.

Here is a good one. Story a good one and actors play their roles superbly and the director has delivered a real fine picture.

The theme begins with the marriage ceremony of a young business man. He devotes too much of his time to the office. The wife's former ardent sweetheart meets her.

"Partying" neighbors induce wife to attend big dinner, while hubby works in office. During the wife's partaking of semi-high life she registers repentance and sorrow.

Circumstances and sequences pile up until she is driven from her home and children. Both husband and wife grieve. The wife tries to kidnap children and is caught by the husband. Forgiveness.

The atmosphere of "The Double O," the Arrow-Ben Wilson production in which Jack Hoxie is starred, is entirely western. Here are no pretty interior settings, ballroom views, cafes, town houses and the artificial paraphernalia of the society; but the real western outdoor life and the characters of the ranch before you all the time.

The scene is on the Mexican border, and you have a fine assortment of rascally characters to excite your ire. Jack plays the part of a young foreman of a ranch who is always getting into trouble, simply because of his good nature. At the very outset of affairs he kisses his employer who, by the way, is a very pretty young lady. Finally he marries her, but between the first kiss and the marriage is a whole lot of trouble. Jack Hoxie acts his part as only Jack can, that is in a fine, breezy devil-may-care, red blooded way. He shoots well and shoots afraid. He is shot at and escapes. He rides like a devil, that is fearless and wild. He is "in at the death" and escapes a dozen times. He is all that his admirers want him to be and looks the part in his cowboy dress and accoutrements. Some of the latter are very valuable as was seen on his trip around the country.

It is really a very good heart interest story, and contains something more than entertainment matter because of the different type of character, true to life, which it portrays. The effects used, that is, American west of Chicago. (While America really commences) think there is no longer wild west, but there is not there? The west is just as wild, just as adventurous as ever it was. The city chap has not gone there yet. He may go to the oil fields, perhaps to the gold fields, but to ranch life he has not shown any overwhelming desire to attach himself; so ranch life goes on just the same as it did 20 to 30 years ago, and you see it in this picture, which will be shown at the Sherry theater today only. A comedy is also being shown.

Conclusion: Good, wholesome, clean drama. Fine acting, beautiful lighting, great direction and a sure-fire audience pleaser. The young director who made it, deserves much praise for his first efforts.

The 2-reel comedy "Bottled Babies" is also being shown.

"The Heart Buster" Showing at The Star Theater.

To review a Tom Mix picture is a pleasure we always look forward to. The announcement that Tom and his horse Tony are coming to town has the same effect the circus announcement had "twenty golden years ago." So it was without fear of trepidation we attended the Star theatre last night when "The Heart Buster" the fifth production in which William Fox features his unexcelled western star, was being shown for the first time.

There was no disappointment. In fact, Tom's No. 50 was better than any of the previous forty-nine. A wee touch of drama, lots of smiles, and all sorts of thrills, tells the story of "The Heart Buster," a romance of the Arizona cow country.

As usual Tony shares the honors with Tom. In "The Heart Buster" this animal earns the right to be called the wonder horse of movie-land. You must see to believe and you have until late Sunday night to do so. It would sound like fiction to relate here what that intelligent piece of horsethief does to get his master out of jail to prevent his sweetheart from marrying a foreign crook.

Either Italian is the girl who has the feminine lead and she cannot be too highly praised for her performance. As a sweet little Miss torn between love and duty she is charming even when she is doing wrong. Others in the cast are Cyril Chadwick, William Courtwright, Frank Currier, and Tom Wilson.

"The Double O" At Sherrys Is Entirely Western.

At the very outset of affairs he kisses his employer who, by the way, is a very pretty young lady. Finally he marries her, but between the first kiss and the marriage is a whole lot of trouble. Jack Hoxie acts his part as only Jack can, that is in a fine, breezy devil-may-care, red blooded way. He shoots well and shoots afraid. He is shot at and escapes. He rides like a devil, that is fearless and wild. He is "in at the death" and escapes a dozen times. He is all that his admirers want him to be and looks the part in his cowboy dress and accoutrements. Some of the latter are very valuable as was seen on his trip around the country.

It is really a very good heart interest story, and contains something more than entertainment matter because of the different type of character, true to life, which it portrays. The effects used, that is, American west of Chicago. (While America really commences) think there is no longer wild west, but there is not there? The west is just as wild, just as adventurous as ever it was. The city chap has not gone there yet. He may go to the oil fields, perhaps to the gold fields, but to ranch life he has not shown any overwhelming desire to attach himself; so ranch life goes on just the same as it did 20 to 30 years ago, and you see it in this picture, which will be shown at the Sherry theater today only. A comedy is also being shown.

Conclusion: Good, wholesome, clean drama. Fine acting, beautiful lighting, great direction and a sure-fire audience pleaser. The young director who made it, deserves much praise for his first efforts.

The 2-reel comedy "Bottled Babies" is also being shown.

"The Heart Buster" Showing at The Star Theater.

To review a Tom Mix picture is a pleasure we always look forward to. The announcement that Tom and his horse Tony are coming to town has the same effect the circus announcement had "twenty golden years ago." So it was without fear of trepidation we attended the Star theatre last night when "The Heart Buster" the fifth production in which William Fox features his unexcelled western star, was being shown for the first time.

There was no disappointment. In fact, Tom's No. 50 was better than any of the previous forty-nine. A wee touch of drama, lots of smiles, and all sorts of thrills, tells the story of "The Heart Buster," a romance of the Arizona cow country.

As usual Tony shares the honors with Tom. In "The Heart Buster" this animal earns the right to be called the wonder horse of movie-land. You must see to believe and you have until late Sunday night to do so. It would sound like fiction to relate here what that intelligent piece of horsethief does to get his master out of jail to prevent his sweetheart from marrying a foreign crook.

Either Italian is the girl who has the feminine lead and she cannot be too highly praised for her performance. As a sweet little Miss torn between love and duty she is charming even when she is doing wrong. Others in the cast are Cyril Chadwick, William Courtwright, Frank Currier, and Tom Wilson.

"The Double O" At Sherrys Is Entirely Western.

At the very outset of affairs he kisses his employer who, by the way, is a very pretty young lady. Finally he marries her, but between the first kiss and the marriage is a whole lot of trouble. Jack Hoxie acts his part as only Jack can, that is in a fine, breezy devil-may-care, red blooded way. He shoots well and shoots afraid. He is shot at and escapes. He rides like a devil, that is fearless and wild. He is "in at the death" and escapes a dozen times. He is all that his admirers want him to be and looks the part in his cowboy dress and accoutrements. Some of the latter are very valuable as was seen on his trip around the country.

It is really a very good heart interest story, and contains something more than entertainment matter because of the different type of character, true to life, which it portrays. The effects used, that is, American west of Chicago. (While America really commences) think there is no longer wild west, but there is not there? The west is just as wild, just as adventurous as ever it was. The city chap has not gone there yet. He may go to the oil fields, perhaps to the gold fields, but to ranch life he has not shown any overwhelming desire to attach himself; so ranch life goes on just the same as it did 20 to 30 years ago, and you see it in this picture, which will be shown at the Sherry theater today only. A comedy is also being shown.

Conclusion: Good, wholesome, clean drama. Fine acting, beautiful lighting, great direction and a sure-fire audience pleaser. The young director who made it, deserves much praise for his first efforts.

The 2-reel comedy "Bottled Babies" is also being shown.

"The Heart Buster" Showing at The Star Theater.

To review a Tom Mix picture is a pleasure we always look forward to. The announcement that Tom and his horse Tony are coming to town has the same effect the circus announcement had "twenty golden years ago." So it was without fear of trepidation we attended the Star theatre last night when "The Heart Buster" the fifth production in which William Fox features his unexcelled western star, was being shown for the first time.

There was no disappointment. In fact, Tom's No. 50 was better than any of the previous forty-nine. A wee touch of drama, lots of smiles, and all sorts of thrills, tells the story of "The Heart Buster," a romance of the Arizona cow country.

As usual Tony shares the honors with Tom. In "The Heart Buster" this animal earns the right to be called the wonder horse of movie-land. You must see to believe and you have until late Sunday night to do so. It would sound like fiction to relate here what that intelligent piece of horsethief does to get his master out of jail to prevent his sweetheart from marrying a foreign crook.

Either Italian is the girl who has the feminine lead and she cannot be too highly praised for her performance. As a sweet little Miss torn between love and duty she is charming even when she is doing wrong. Others in the cast are Cyril Chadwick, William Courtwright, Frank Currier, and Tom Wilson.

"The Double O" At Sherrys Is Entirely Western.

At the very outset of affairs he kisses his employer who, by the way, is a very pretty young lady. Finally he marries her, but between the first kiss and the marriage is a whole lot of trouble. Jack Hoxie acts his part as only Jack can, that is in a fine, breezy devil-may-care, red blooded way. He shoots well and shoots afraid. He is shot at and escapes. He rides like a devil, that is fearless and wild. He is "in at the death" and escapes a dozen times. He is all that his admirers want him to be and looks the part in his cowboy dress and accoutrements. Some of the latter are very valuable as was seen on his trip around the country.

It is really a very good heart interest story, and contains something more than entertainment matter because of the different type of character, true to life, which it portrays. The effects used, that is, American west of Chicago. (While America really commences) think there is no longer wild west, but there is not there? The west is just as wild, just as adventurous as ever it was. The city chap has not gone there yet. He may go to the oil fields, perhaps to the gold fields, but to ranch life he has not shown any overwhelming desire to attach himself; so ranch life goes on just the same as it did 20 to 30 years ago, and you see it in this picture, which will be shown at the Sherry theater today only. A comedy is also being shown.

devil-may-care, red blooded way. He shoots well and shoots afraid. He is shot at and escapes. He rides like a devil, that is fearless and wild. He is "in at the death" and escapes a dozen times. He is all that his admirers want him to be and looks the part in his cowboy dress and accoutrements. Some of the latter are very valuable as was seen on his trip around the country.

It is really a very good heart interest story, and contains something more than entertainment matter because of the different type of character, true to life, which it portrays. The effects used, that is, American west of Chicago. (While America really commences) think there is no longer wild west, but there is not there? The west is just as wild, just as adventurous as ever it was. The city chap has not gone there yet. He may go to the oil fields, perhaps to the gold fields, but to ranch life he has not shown any overwhelming desire to attach himself; so ranch life goes on just the same as it did 20 to 30 years ago, and you see it in this picture, which will be shown at the Sherry theater today only. A comedy is also being shown.

Conclusion: Good, wholesome, clean drama. Fine acting, beautiful lighting, great direction and a sure-fire audience pleaser. The young director who made it, deserves much praise for his first efforts.

The 2-reel comedy "Bottled Babies" is also being shown.

"The Heart Buster" Showing at The Star Theater.

To review a Tom Mix picture is a pleasure we always look forward to. The announcement that Tom and his horse Tony are coming to town has the same effect the circus announcement had "twenty golden years ago." So it was without fear of trepidation we attended the Star theatre last night when "The Heart Buster" the fifth production in which William Fox features his unexcelled western star, was being shown for the first time.

There was no disappointment. In fact, Tom's No. 50 was better than any of the previous forty-nine. A wee touch of drama, lots of smiles, and all sorts of thrills, tells the story of "The Heart Buster," a romance of the Arizona cow country.

As usual Tony shares the honors with Tom. In "The Heart Buster" this animal earns the right to be called the wonder horse of movie-land. You must see to believe and you have until late Sunday night to do so. It would sound like fiction to relate here what that intelligent piece of horsethief does to get his master out of jail to prevent his sweetheart from marrying a foreign crook.

Either Italian is the girl who has the feminine lead and she cannot be too highly praised for her performance. As a sweet little Miss torn between love and duty she is charming even when she is doing wrong. Others in the cast are Cyril Chadwick, William Courtwright, Frank Currier, and Tom Wilson.

"The Double O" At Sherrys Is Entirely Western.

At the very outset of affairs he kisses his employer who, by the way, is a very pretty young lady. Finally he marries her, but between the first kiss and the marriage is a whole lot of trouble. Jack Hoxie acts his part as only Jack can, that is in a fine, breezy devil-may-care, red blooded way. He shoots well and shoots afraid. He is shot at and escapes. He rides like a devil, that is fearless and wild. He is "in at the death" and escapes a dozen times. He is all that his admirers want him to be and looks the part in his cowboy dress and accoutrements. Some of the latter are very valuable as was seen on his trip around the country.

It is really a very good heart interest story, and contains something more than entertainment matter because of the different type of character, true to life, which it portrays. The effects used, that is, American west of Chicago. (While America really commences) think there is no longer wild west, but there is not there? The west is just as wild, just as adventurous as ever it was. The city chap has not gone there yet. He may go to the oil fields, perhaps to the gold fields, but to ranch life he has not shown any overwhelming desire to attach himself; so ranch life goes on just the same as it did 20 to 30 years ago, and you see it in this picture, which will be shown at the Sherry theater today only. A comedy is also being shown.

Conclusion: Good, wholesome, clean drama. Fine acting, beautiful lighting, great direction and a sure-fire audience pleaser. The young director who made it, deserves much praise for his first efforts.

The 2-reel comedy "Bottled Babies" is also being shown.

"The Heart Buster" Showing at The Star Theater.

To review a Tom Mix picture is a pleasure we always look forward to. The announcement that Tom and his horse Tony are coming to town has the same effect the circus announcement had "twenty golden years ago." So it was without fear of trepidation we attended the Star theatre last night when "The Heart Buster" the fifth production in which William Fox features his unexcelled western star, was being shown for the first time.

There was no disappointment. In fact, Tom's No. 50 was better than any of the previous forty-nine. A wee touch of drama, lots of smiles, and all sorts of thrills, tells the story of "The Heart Buster," a romance of the Arizona cow country.

As usual Tony shares the honors with Tom. In "The Heart Buster" this animal earns the right to be called the wonder horse of movie-land. You must see to believe and you have until late Sunday night to do so. It would sound like fiction to relate here what that intelligent piece of horsethief does to get his master out of jail to prevent his sweetheart from marrying a foreign crook.

Either Italian is the girl who has the feminine lead and she cannot be too highly praised for her performance. As a sweet little Miss torn between love and duty she is charming even when she is doing wrong. Others in the cast are Cyril Chadwick, William Courtwright, Frank Currier, and Tom Wilson.

"The Double O" At Sherrys Is Entirely Western.

At the very outset of affairs he kisses his employer who, by the way, is a very pretty young lady. Finally he marries her, but between the first kiss and the marriage is a whole lot of trouble. Jack Hoxie acts his part as only Jack can, that is in a fine, breezy devil-may-care, red blooded way. He shoots well and shoots afraid. He is shot at and escapes. He rides like a devil, that is fearless and wild. He is "in at the death" and escapes a dozen times. He is all that his admirers want him to be and looks the part in his cowboy dress and accoutrements. Some of the latter are very valuable as was seen on his trip around the country.

It is really a very good heart interest story, and contains something more than entertainment matter because of the different type of character, true to life, which it portrays. The effects used, that is, American west of Chicago. (While America really commences) think there is no longer wild west, but there is not there? The west is just as wild, just as adventurous as ever it was. The city chap has not gone there yet. He may go to the oil fields, perhaps to the gold fields, but to ranch life he has not shown any overwhelming desire to attach himself; so ranch life goes on just the same as it did 20 to 30 years ago, and you see it in this picture, which will be shown at the Sherry theater today only. A comedy is also being shown.

devil-may-care, red blooded way. He shoots well and shoots afraid. He is shot at and escapes. He rides like a devil, that is fearless and wild. He is "in at the death" and escapes a dozen times. He is all that his admirers want him to be and looks the part in his cowboy dress and accoutrements. Some of the latter are very valuable as was seen on his trip around the country.

It is really a very good heart interest story, and contains something more than entertainment matter because of the different type of character, true to life, which it portrays. The effects used, that is, American west of Chicago. (While America really commences) think there is no longer wild west, but there is not there? The west is just as wild, just as adventurous as ever it was. The city chap has not gone there yet. He may go to the oil fields, perhaps to the gold fields, but to ranch life he has not shown any overwhelming desire to attach himself; so ranch life goes on just the same as it did 20 to 30 years ago, and you see it in this picture, which will be shown at the Sherry theater today only. A comedy is also being shown.

Conclusion: Good, wholesome, clean drama. Fine acting, beautiful lighting, great direction and a sure-fire audience pleaser. The young director who made it, deserves much praise for his first efforts.

The 2-reel comedy "Bottled Babies" is also being shown.

"The Heart Buster" Showing at The Star Theater.

To review a Tom Mix picture is a pleasure we always look forward to. The announcement that Tom and his horse Tony are coming to town has the same effect the circus announcement had "twenty golden years ago." So it was without fear of trepidation we attended the Star theatre last night when "The Heart Buster" the fifth production in which William Fox features his unexcelled western star, was being shown for the first time.

There was no disappointment. In fact, Tom's No. 50 was better than any of the previous forty-nine. A wee touch of drama, lots of smiles, and all sorts of thrills, tells the story of "The Heart Buster," a romance of the Arizona cow country.

As usual Tony shares the honors with Tom. In "The Heart Buster" this animal earns the right to be called the wonder horse of movie-land. You must see to believe and you have until late Sunday night to do so. It would sound like fiction to relate here what that intelligent piece of horsethief does to get his master out of jail to prevent his sweetheart from marrying a foreign crook.

Either Italian is the girl who has the feminine lead and she cannot be too highly praised for her performance. As a sweet little Miss torn between love and duty she is charming even when she is doing wrong. Others in the cast are Cyril Chadwick, William Courtwright, Frank Currier, and Tom Wilson.

"The Double O" At Sherrys Is Entirely Western.

At the very outset of affairs he kisses his employer who, by the way, is a very pretty young lady. Finally he marries her, but between the first kiss and the marriage is a whole lot of trouble. Jack H