

Fall Hat News!

Just fresh out of the tissue paper—the loveliest Fall Hats imaginable. First in importance, dashing little Felts with rabbits ears or apple peel felt bows. Next the square-top Pastillion crown Velvet Hats. More tricorne—a little softer in line and very much in evidence.

RAIN WELCOME BY FARMERS

Annual Old Folks' Picnic Held at Union This Week.

UNION, Ore. (Special)—The rain Friday and Saturday was welcome to the ranchers and fruitmen in and near Union. The prairie growers were beginning to worry over the fact that the fruit was beginning to drop, which was due, it is believed, to the dry hot weather. No doubt, the moisture which fell will stop this loss of fruit.

Hold Annual Picnic
The annual Old Folks picnic was held at the Goodbrook lake last Thursday afternoon under the auspices of the W. C. T. U., with Mrs. C. G. Smith as manager of exercises. Rev. Quinn offered an opening prayer, roll call was by Grace Powers of Medical Springs; two songs by Messrs. Pratt of La Grande and Evans of Baker; reading by Anna Padlock; and interesting talks by Mayor Levy, Rev. Hodges, E. L. Cadwell, Mrs. Belle Wright, Miss Nellie Brown, of Portland, and Durham Wright of Medical Springs. A fine lunch was prepared by the W. C. T. U. Mrs. E. E. Foster of Walla Walla was the oldest lady present—53 years old, and W. M. Stoker of Union the oldest man—59 years. There were eight present who were over 80 and 17 who were over 70 years of age, so it was a genuine old folks picnic. Other out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. L. L. McKennon of La Grande, Les Blevins and family of Huntington Beach, Cal., Mrs. Helms of Salem, Ill., Mrs. Elma Havemann of Woodburn, Ore., Mrs. Mary Martin of Highland, Cal., and Mrs. Ida Parker of Los Angeles.

The basement under the Levy home is about finished and will be used as a store room and for the installation of a furnace to heat the building.

Miss Ruth Selbird daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Selbird, is here from Stanford university, California, for a few weeks vacation with her parents and friends. Miss Selbird has been connected with the library work at Stanford for the past few years.

L. A. Wright, Miss Georgia Wright, and Mrs. Ed Wright left for Portland on Thursday morning. They will be joined by Claude Wright and family and the party will go on to Crater lake before returning to their homes.

Mrs. D. E. Helms and three children are here from Salem, Ill., the guests of Mrs. Helms' cousin Mrs. E. A. Selber.

According to an item in the local newspaper the books and records of School District No. 5 are in excellent and neat form, which speaks well for the work of the clerk, Fred N. Day. According to the report of County Auditor Grauman, the district has a bonded indebtedness of $38,000 with outstanding warrants amounting to $11,000.

Mrs. Frank Harrison, who has been conducting classes in folk dancing for the past few weeks, has planned an exhibition to be held at the school gym on the evening of August 29. Following is a list of the dances to be featured at the program which will be free to the public. Swedish Schottische; Poppies; Come Let Us Be Joyful; Dutch dance; Irish Jig; French Balse; Jassse; Violine; Mary Had a Little Lamb; Minuet and a Show Dance. Mrs. Harrison will conduct her lessons with this exhibition as she leaves for California in a few days.

Frank Harrison, who recently purchased the Eastern Oregon meat plant from Alfred Mueller, has leased the concern to two men from Elgin and will accompany Mrs. Harrison to California for the winter. The Harrisons will probably return to Union in the spring.

Mr. Middleton, connected with the local timber and sawmill deal has been in Union again for the last few days, looking after some matters in connection with this enterprise.

The new oil station for the Fletcher Oil company is being installed at the west end of the city near the railroad.

Dr. C. W. Erwin, after spending several weeks at a health resort near Missoula, Wash., on account of the doctor's health, arrived in Union on Saturday afternoon.

Will Baxter and wife are spending a few days visiting friends in Salt Lake City.

E. E. Harley, formerly principal of the Imbler high school, and now holding a similar position at Emig, near Shilo, was in Union Friday. He was accompanied by his parents on the trip to this county.

Welfare Worker on Vacation

Jane Adams, famous social worker of Hull House, Chicago is spending her vacation at Hall's Cove. Here she is enjoying brief respite from her work.

California in a few days, to take up a position as physical director for the winter.

Mrs. Elizabeth Felker who died last week at the Grande Ronde hospital, following an operation, had been a resident of Union for the past six years. Elizabeth Manning was born in Missouri, March 7, 1892, and died August 15, 1924, aged 32 years and 5 months. She was married November, 1915, to James T. Felker, of Caldwell, Idaho, and to this union there were born three girls, Katie Fern, Viola and Ruth. The Felkers moved to Canada and later returned to the Grande Ronde valley finally settling at Union, where Mrs. Felker's parents lived. Her death came as a shock to her family and friends as she was ill only a few days prior to her death. She leaves, besides the husband and three daughters, her mother, Mrs. Manning, and one brother, Cecil Manning. Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon from the Presbyterian church, Rev. Hodges officiating. Interment was in charge of the Cook brothers, undertakers at the local cemetery.

Dr. C. W. Erwin, after spending several weeks at a health resort near Missoula, Wash., on account of the doctor's health, arrived in Union on Saturday afternoon.
