FLORIDA BUSY ON NEW ROAD

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP)—Contracts have been signed and plans are shaping themselves for an early beginning on the first unit, at both ends, of the long-dreamed-of over-sea highway between Key West and the mainland of Florida, a distance of approximately 150 miles. Contracts signed by the county commissioners of this (Monroe) county call for construction of the roadway and bridges from Stock Island to Saddle Bunches and the same way and bridge from Key Largo to Dade county. Approximately 25 miles of the road are provided for under the contracts just signed, about equally divided in distance at the two ends of the line. Stock Island, upon which the city of Key West is located, is about two and one-half miles from Boca Chica and the latter is approximately one mile from Saddle Bunches, which with Sugar Loaf, will make it possible to extend the road for more than 35 miles without further bridging. After leaving Sugar Loaf going eastward another stretch of islands makes it possible to extend the road 30 miles more with minimum bridging. The undertaking represents one of the most spectacular pieces of construction in the country, and its completion will match the famous over-sea railroad built by the late Henry M. Flagler. The latter road, undertaken down the east coast of Florida about a quarter of a century ago, later was pushed on to this city by throwing up of coral rock from the bottom of the sea upon which the build the roadbed for mile after mile. GALE SPILLS FISHERMEN ASTORIA, Ore.—Three Columbia river fishermen narrowly escaped in the heavy southwest wind which hit the river. Edna Mickelson of Wallace Island, near Clatskanie, and his boat-puller had to swim when the heavy swells swamped their craft. They were rescued by another fishing boat from Altona. The Mickelson boat sank shortly after the two left it. Olaf Pellman of Fern Hill, was thrown from his boat when the craft was turned over by the waves. He was hoisted out upon a telephone message from Clatskanie reported that he had been brought ashore by another fisherman. Walnut Growers to Tour SALEM, Ore.—Walnut growers from all parts of western Oregon will assemble at Silverton from where their annual orchard inspection tour will start a 9 o'clock. A large number of walnut orchards will be visited during the day. Tomorrow night the growers will hold a meeting in Salem. We specialize on motorcycle overhauling. Rebuilt jobs on easy terms. Our customers are our best boosters. Write for prices. Joe Richard, Indian Motor and Bicycle Man, Ipker. 8-21-22
