Wedding at Island City

A quiet wedding took place Wednesday afternoon, August 20, at 5:30 o'clock when Miss Bren Jean Smith was united in marriage to Milo Frances Van Blokland at the parsonage of the Island City church with Reverend Hall Kellogg Wallace officiating. Only immediate members of the family were in attendance.

Following the ceremony the happy couple were taken to the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Smith, where they were given a reception, after which they left for Yellowstone National park on their honeymoon trip. They will be at home to their many friends after September first, at Island City.

Both Miss Smith and Mr. Blokland have many friends in La Grande and vicinity, both having graduated from the La Grande high school. Miss Smith is a popular young lady and Mr. Blokland is a very promising young man of the community.

When Dr. A. L. Richardson threw open his magnificent home on Second and O streets to Charles McAllister and Jack Denn's last evening with instructions to have "the best time they knew how to have" he surely not only gladdened the hearts of those two youngsters but the whole "bunch" who delighted in the social dance.

At 8:30 o'clock the interior of the Richardson home was resounding with the merry laugh of the young people and the dance hall in the basement was occupied. Until nearly midnight the boys and girls enjoyed themselves at dancing and visiting.

Refreshments of punch, ice cream and cake were served. Assisting Dr. Richardson direct the general program of the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Dennis, Mrs. Clyde Seitz, Mrs. Donald M. Pague and Mr. Claire Burnett. When the time arrived for the party to adjourn Dr. Richardson was thanked most heartily by all the young people for giving them such a pleasant evening.

Miss Loraine Pierce, of Salem, was the inspiration for a charming dancing party at the home of Miss Eleanor Glass Tuesday evening. Six couples were in attendance and the time was enjoyably spent at dancing, after which delicious refreshments were served. Mrs. Charles Bingner acted as chaperone for the evening.

La Grande people are going to have the opportunity to hear Miss Margaret Carney, who is sought after by musical organizations of Portland. She is visiting friends in La Grande and has consented to sing a special number at the Union Services Sunday evening at 8:00 o'clock at the First Methodist Episcopal church. The number she has chosen for the evening is "Angels Ever Bright and Fair" by Handel, from Theodore.

Miss Loraine Pierce, daughter of Governor and Mrs. Walter M. Pierce, left last evening for her home in Salem, after visiting friends and relatives in La Grande.

Fashion Notes

London.—The scarf which women still insist upon wearing now is sometimes attached to the brim in back. It may wrap the crown and descend in long ends about the neck.

New York.—The ideal frock for this stage of the summer season is one of those foulards of crepe de chine in two colors. A dark blue, for example, peppered all over with tan spots of various sizes and of no particular pattern.

New York. — A deep shade of green, much deeper than the lettuce tints heretofore employed, is used at present for some new silk lingeries. The trimming is of filet lace.

New York.—Many and varied are the hosiery shades permissible for street wear now. Those most favored include peachblow, pear, rose, ashes, tan bark, silver and gray.

War Minister Shocks Staff By Lunching with a Private

COPENHAGEN, (AP) — Mr. Rasmussen, the labor minister for defence, drove to some army maneuvers recently and on the way felt the need of a cup of coffee. He asked his chauffeur, a private, to pull up at the nearest country inn. Arriving there, he invited the chauffeur to sit at his table and share the refreshment.

On arrival at the maneuvers the minister soon learned that scouts had already informed the general staff the of the incident; and it was gently brought home to him that discipline would suffer if the head of the army made it a practice to take his meals with privates. Minister Rasmussen replied:

"Bless your soul, general, the fellow who drove for me is a working engineer in private life, and I a linotyper, so you see we belong to the same class. Just fancy if you, general, had been my chauffeur, then I do not know how the dickens I should ever have been able to get a cup of coffee."

The prize for self-restraint goes to the paragraphist who reads that a diner held up and robbed a restaurant and refrains from making a wise crack about it.
