

HARVESTING IS FINISHED AT GIBBON

Ranchers Have Difficulty Obtaining Enough for Irrigation Purposes This Year.

GIBBON, (Special) — Most of the wheat in this vicinity is harvested and the ranchers are now busy occupied hauling it to the warehouses.

There is a shortage of water at Gibbon this year. Most of the wells are dry and the ranchers are obliged to haul water. Many are having their wells dug deeper.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Parfurn visited at Pendleton last Sunday. Jack Hainville and family have moved to Duncan, where Mr. Hainville is section foreman.

Hugh Tobey, who had his leg broken during the summer, is able to be about on crutches now. The wheat, yellow jackets and horses are thick here this summer. The Indians say it is the sign of a hard winter. Gwendolyn Bonifer has returned from a visit to Walla Walla. Miss Delta Morse was a Pendleton visitor Saturday.

Dr. Louis F. Arenberg, of Union town, Pa., was selected as command in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic at the national encampment at Boston. He will preside until the next reunion to be held at Grand Rapids, Mich. He is the head of the Pennsylvania department of the G. A. R.

Most of the huckleberries are gone in this locality. Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Robie were at Pendleton Saturday shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrie Robie were also Pendleton visitors Saturday. Mable Strickler and Glenn Burdick of Pendleton were visitors at Gibbon Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Peterson were visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bonifer, Sunday.

The children have returned from Pendleton, where she has been attending summer school. On Sunday, August 17, J. E. Rose and wife and small daughter, Dorothy Marie, arrived from Kansas City, Mo., to visit at the home of J. S. Rose here. They made the trip by auto.

Frederic Williams has returned home from Portland, where she has been taking a course in beauty culture. She will start to work in a beauty shop at Pendleton the first of the month.

Teachers Are Chosen. MEDFORD, Ore. — Announcement was made here by the school board that Miss Elizabeth Mace of this city, former attendant at Reed college, Portland, and later connected with the musical department of that institution, will become supervisor of music in the public schools to succeed Miss Francis Sherwood, who had been musical supervisor the last three years and recently returned to accept a similar position with the Snohomish, Wash., schools.

Miss Margaret Schuman of Medford, Ore., was chosen to fill a vacancy in the primary teaching staff.

PERSHING AT DENVER. DENVER, (AP) — Vowing to continue active service or preparation after his retirement, September 13 next, as chief of staff of the United States army, yet denouncing his position against the term "militaristic," General John J. Pershing, in an address here Friday, appealed for the support of the nation behind plans of the government for national defense.

The address, which probably will stand as his last public utterance in Denver as a soldier, was delivered before 500 two-storymen, including Pershing's visit to Fort Logan, the citizens' military training camp, and Fitzsimons hospital here, where he gave a final inspection.

Now is the time to buy a farm. We have several good buys. If interested call and let us show you our listings.

We have the best listing in city property we have had for several years. If you are in the market for a home you will not be doing justice to yourself if you fail to investigate our opportunities.

We have money to loan on farm lands. Let us show the advantages we are able to offer you.

IRELAND'S TEETOTALERS HAVE SESSION

John Barleycorn Again on the Stand in the "Old Country."

DUBLIN, (AP) — Ten thousand persons from all parts of Ireland participated in the recent celebration of the fifteenth anniversary of the founding of the Teetotal Abstinence Association. A dozen bands and 500 choristers marched in the procession, which took 45 minutes to pass a given point.

A monster mass meeting was presided over by the Rev. J. Flynn, S. J., and addressed by the Rev. P. J. Gannon, S. J., who deplored the general system of drunkenness in Ireland within the last six years and urged the support of a bill introduced in the Dail to check abuses of liquor. He said the bill is "encountering the opposition of the vast vested interests which depend for their profits on our most notorious national weakness."

He urged the 25,000 members of the association, most of whom are voters, to support the effort to bring the membership up to 1,000,000 voters and said 40 new centers of the total abstinence organization have been added since Christmas.

The Most Reverend Dr. Graghnan, Bishop of Meath, also addressed the meeting. He pointed out the fact that Ireland's political clouds are fast disappearing, "Irishmen are today rulers of their own country," he declared, "but of what permanent advantage is that if the demon of drink continues to ravage?"

A resolution was passed demanding the enactment of temperance reform measures by the Dail and the meeting concluded with the rapid blessing.

WALNUT GROVERS ARRIVE HERE

SALEM, Ore. — Members of the Western Walnut Growers' association arrived in Salem after a day spent inspecting a number of walnut orchards in Marion county. There were 20 automobiles in the caravan. Luncheon was had at Silverton, while the excursionists were entertained at dinner here. An informal meeting of the growers followed at the local chamber of commerce.

The party included a number of owners of the largest orchards, experts on walnut culture from the Oregon Agricultural college and representatives of various farm publications.

The excursionists reported that the walnut orchards never were in better condition, and there would be a bumper yield this year. Picking and marketing conditions were discussed at the meeting here tonight. The excursionists will continue their inspections of the walnut orchards in this vicinity tomorrow.

Economy in Birthday Cakes. NORFOLK, Va. (AP) — What is believed to be a unique record in the matter of birthday celebrations is claimed by the family of Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Goodman of Berkeley, just across the Elizabeth river from Norfolk. A few days ago 17-year-old eight-year-old Fannie, and Sidney, aged four, held a birthday party, an annual event for the couple, born two years apart, on the same day of the month and practically at the same hour. There are two older children in the family.

Horses Give Way to Auto. EUGENE, Ore. — After September 1 there will be no more rail mail carriers driving horses out of Eugene. On that date motor route C will be established, taking over the work of three of the present carriers, and one postoffice, that at Fox Hollow, will be discontinued.
