RACE BETWEEN YANKS, SOLONS

NEW YORK (By the Associated Press)—Lead in the American League pennant race for the New York Yankees to increase their lead of less than a half game over Washington in second place, who in turn hold a three and a half game advantage over Detroit in third place. Washington split a double-header with the Browns in the capital yesterday, losing the first 7 to 6, and winning the latter, 6 to 2. The Yankees and Cleveland at New York and the Tigers at Boston remained idle because of rain. Giants Use Five Hurters. It took five Giant pitchers to turn back the hard hitting Cubs in a wild jamboree in which both teams hit hard and often. The Giants sent four runs across in the ninth to win a much needed game, 11 to 9. Cincinnati hit the offerings of Benton of the Braves hard and often, winning the last game of the series, 7 to 6. New Breed Set. ALTOONA, Pa. (AP)—Harry Hartz set up a new qualifying record for the Altoona speedway Tuesday when he turned the mile and a quarter holed bowl in 38.7 seconds at the rate of 123 miles an hour. The speed was made in qualifying for the 250 mile automobile race on Labor day. Jimmy Murphy was a fraction of a second slower than Hartz, turning his qualifying round at the rate of 122.3 miles an hour.

four times at bat, gained half a game on Pittsburgh, which leads the Dodgers in third place by three games. The Pirates split their double header with the Phillies 6-1 and 1-2. Cincinnati hit the offerings of Benton of the Braves hard and often, winning the last game of the series, 7 to 6. Abandons Effort. DOVER, England (AP)—Frank Perks of Birmingham, who left here at 12:25 p. m. Tuesday, in an attempt to swim the English channel, abandoned his effort at 7 o'clock Wednesday morning when four miles from Calais, owing to the extreme coldness of the water. Crown on Open Market. NEW YORK (AP)—The world's featherweight boxing crown, returned to the state athletic commission by Johnny Tomich, will be placed on the open market for the 125-pounder soon, the commission has announced.

California Products!

"Here's glad news!" says the travaganza of the age, "Focuboa" publicity agent for the circus today. "A bevy of beautiful girls from California are coming to La Grande tomorrow with the Al G. Barnes wild animal circus, and then continues as follows: "They will form a part of the greatest and in the most sensational circus pageant and fantastic ex-

FURIOUS SCRAP ENDS IN DRAW

NEW YORK (By the Associated Press)—Paul Berlenbach, rugged New York light heavyweight, and Young Scribbling, Mason, Ga. school boy, fought a furious six-round draw at the Velodrome Wednesday night. Scribbling was the aggressor from the start, Berlenbach holding back attempting to put across a knockout punch. The verdict was popular.

Abandons Effort. DOVER, England (AP)—Frank Perks of Birmingham, who left here at 12:25 p. m. Tuesday, in an attempt to swim the English channel, abandoned his effort at 7 o'clock Wednesday morning when four miles from Calais, owing to the extreme coldness of the water.
