Jess Took Last Chance

"After three years of doctoring for my stomach I became discouraged and swore I wouldn't take anything else. I was bloated with gas all the time. Someone praised May's Wonderful Remedy so highly that I decided to take a chance. I am now feeling like a new man." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. At all druggists.—Adv.

"Lightning Rider" Showing at Sherrys Last Time Tonight.

The second Hunt—Stromberg production, starring Harry Carey, is playing at the Sherry theatre, and we want to say right away, go see it. Talk about your thrills! They're all there; every kind and size of them. The story is about the Black Mask, a bandit who is the terror of the country. A deputy sheriff who appears to be too big and stupid to hunt a bandit is disgraced as the bandit and riding at night in order to trap the criminal's accomplices and find out who he is. The father of the girl he loves is murdered and his Black Mask costume implicates him. There are some very exciting situations before everything is cleared up.

"The Lightning Rider" is one of those pictures which have the true spirit of adventure. Shannon Fife, who wrote it, surely knows the meaning of romance. The picture is as the daring robber holds up the stage coach body to kiss the hand of his boy, he brings back sweet memories of the time we "ate up" Robin Hood.

As usual, Harry Carey is the fast-riding, hard-fighting cowboy. Charming Virginia Brown Faire is a most appealing leading woman.

Others in the supporting cast who do good work are Thomas E. Lynch, L. J. Barry, Francis Ross, Bert Stanley and Alvin, Hal To-Wan.

"The Lightning Rider" will make you forget your troubles. That's what a good picture is supposed to do, isn't it?

Comedy showman, "Safe and Sound."

Stars of Sport World Shown in New Film Play.

The field of sports will have its images in motion pictures when "The Great White Way," a new photoplay that mirrors life on Broadway, opens tomorrow at Sherry theatre. Leading collection of the prize ring, the race track, prominent sports writers and other familiar figures of sport make their film debut in the new picture.

The turf and the ring, along with the leaders in these two branches of sport, are graphically brought to the screen in this picture of life in the great metropolitan city. One of the big features is a realistic prize fight in which Pete Hartley, well known lightweight contender, battles Ascar Shaw, leading man of the film.

This scene includes such sporting celebrities as Tex Rickard, who appears as promoter; Joe Humphreys, as announcer, and a man, outwits and outdoes a posse and joins a circus. Miss Nixon plays a lightrope walker, who eventually captivates Jones, but before she does it she supplies the motive for some extraordinary action. One of the big thrills of the picture comes when an animal trainer, spurred by the girl, loosens the guy rope of the tight wire while she is performing. She falls, but instead of being dashed to death, she is caught in the arms of the big cowboy. What else could they be but happy after that?

Others in the cast are Jack McDonald, Ray Haller, Marguerite Clayton and George Forman.

A two reel comedy is also being shown.

Versatile Vaudeville Bill Coming at Arcade Sunday.

A jolly combination of stellar attractions have been engaged and will make their initial appearance at the Arcade theatre on Sunday. This bill is headed by the Dublin Trio in "Two Voices and a Harp," a rare musical treat of Irish songs and melodies. These true folks of melody render many of the beautiful musical numbers for which the Irish are noted.

Dawn & Rent, "The Acme of Gaiety," introduce a new routine of balancing, acrobatics followed by a series of athletic and strength exhibitions including a thrilling leap and closing with a sensational whirling pinwheel. Harold Alberto appears in "The Gay Deceiver," musical nonsense. He is an entertainer of note in anything pertaining to mystic art. Nina & Kakin, a musician and novelty act, picture manipulator furnish their entertainment with the violin and developing beautiful pictures out of rags with the accompaniment of lively music.

Man managed to keep woman submerged until mirrors were invented.

The man who deserves the favor he asks usually looks ashamed while asking it.
