HUNT'S LETTER

pering justice with reason." Most of the arrests are on "moonshine" by small farmers back in the country. These men, most of them with large families, always have a difficult time "making ends meet" financially. Crops are usually scant and cash scarce.

Instead of sending these convicted forthwith to jail or the workhouse, some of the magistrates have been pronouncing sentence, some to become effective this fall after the crops are harvested.

"Get your crops taken care of and all in by Nov. 15, so your women and children will have something to live on and then report to me here ready to begin sentence of 30 days," is a frequent order.

These sentences are said to find high favor with the violators, for they are able to provide for their families before going to jail and are assured of room and board for themselves during most of the winter.

Birds of a feather flock together but fine feathers don't make brave birds.

This was demonstrated in the courtyard at the "Free art gallery" the other day when a band of English sparrows, perhaps objecting to the upstage attitude of a brilliantly plumed peacock, descended upon him en masse and put him ignominiously to flight.

Bill Donovan has been chosen by Attorney General Stone to assist in the administration of federal criminal laws, other than anti-trust and prohibition cases.

Not "Wild Bill" Donovan, but "Colonel Bill," of Buffalo, N. Y. Donovan was one of Stone's crack law students a few years ago in Columbia Law School. For his part in the war he won the Congressional Medal of Honor, the Distinguished Service Cross and the Distinguished Service Medal.

So soon as Mrs. Tucker has completed her apple harvest she will leave for the east and take charge of the transfer of Colonel Tucker's body which now lies at Graceland, the family cemetery near Chicago, Ill. Colonel and Mrs. Tucker came to Hood River in 1916.

And so the domestic cat originated in Egypt. Doubtless she was the one that accused Joseph.

Kithcart Was Losing His Strength Quickly

"After hearing so much about Tanlac I thought it must be good medicine, but I had no idea it was so fine until I took it myself," is the striking statement of C. B. Kithcart, 1411 W. 58th St., Seattle, Wash.

"Six months ago my appetite quit, my digestion broke down and I had a constant aching feeling in my stomach that got on my nerves something awful. Some days I never wanted to eat a thing and my strength was getting away from me fast. "But here I am after taking only three bottles of Tanlac eating and digesting everything and feeling fine. However, as strong and well as I feel I am going to keep on taking Tanlac until I have used at least six bottles to make sure its work is well done. What it takes to make a person feel right Tanlac certainly has it."

Why? were Masonic signs adopted?

Because bands of skilled masons need to move from place to place to build the great cathedrals. They established secret signs to protect their craft against impostors. The name Puretest.

Puretest Castor Oil is the honor sign of the purest cathartic that science can possibly make.

Puretest Castor Oil is clear, odorless, and so thoroughly refined that its taste is sweet and palatable. Even children find it easy to take.
