La Grande ladies are no exception to the rule and no occasion has been more enjoyable than the beautifully appointed one o'clock bridge luncheon given at the Union Hotel Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. T. Cove. (Special) — One of the most beautiful of midsummer weddings took place Wednesday evening, September 3, at the Baptist church, when Miss Mae Lopez, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Lopez, became the wife of Arty Logan. Reverend Delbert Laree, of Athena, officiated in the presence of a large number of guests. Preceding the ceremony Miss Lola Childers sang "O, Promise Me," accompanied by Mrs. L. H. Lay of the piano.

As the strains of the wedding march were struck by Miss Gladys Larson the bride and groom made their appearance. Following the minister the bridal party was led by little Merion Lopez, brother of the bride as ring bearer. He was followed by Dorothy Lopez and Gertrude Peterman as flower girls. Then came the bride and her maid of honor, Miss Loretta Lopez, and the groom and the best man, Walter Daron.

The bride was beautiful in a gown of white satin with a long tulle veil arranged at the collar with tiny bands of silver. She carried a shower bouquet of La France roses.

Following the wedding a reception and supper took place at the Laree home, where a profusion of beautiful blossoms were used as decoration. Mr. and Mrs. Logan left immediately for a trip to eastern points, where they will be guests of the groom's relatives.

The only out of town guests in attendance were Rev. and Mrs. Delbert Laree, Miss Loretta Lopez and Miss Dorothy Laree of Athena.

KNITTED SUIT PROMISES TO BE ENGLISH VOGUE

LONDON. (AP) — The knitted suit already popular with women, will become more in demand than ever now that Queen Mary has decided to take several with her to Balmoral during the fall.

These the queen has chosen are modeled and woven in silk and wool, edged with silk binding.

Paris. — For the present at least the frock will remain at 14 inches from the ground. This is the new length, and is reminiscent of the shortness which prevailed a few seasons ago.

London. — The decided but soft blue which the Prince of Wales likes for his shirts, has been taken over today by the milliners. Felt hats, unbound and very soft, are shown in this flattering blue, with corky black ribbon faucets.

London. — The Spanish heel is the best most favored for autumn. But this high, graceful heel has by no means displaced the low, flat

Semi-Dress Coat

WHITE fox fur and black dove-lyn make this coat, which is most desirable for afternoon and semi-dress occasions. The other decoration of note is the diamond shaped bits of material which are cut away to reveal bits of embroidery in black silk. This occurs considerably below the waistline and gives the long-waisted effect that is so popular.

one which English women wear for morning and for sports.

New York. — Lingerie in pearly purple is among the new things shown here today. Pearly purple is at its best when trimmed with a slightly paler shade, with folds of orchid silk net.

New York. — No season appears to be complete without its individual shade of red. The choice today has fallen upon Venetian red, which is as rich, deep and striking as its name implies.

New York. — There is some hint that hosiery of royal blue will be worn with black shoes this autumn. Royal blue and black are favorite frock colors now and royal blue stockings with a black frock would seem to be rather chic.

New York. — Among the wrist bags for afternoon use is one which resembles a volume from an ancient monastery. In a splendid shade of red leather, it is heavily encrusted with a formal Greek pattern in gold.
