

For the Frosty Mornings a Slipover Sweater

What a relief to know that Robert is plenty warm on those cold mornings. If he takes a cold now it may last all winter. So need to worry if he is wearing one of those new Slipover Sweaters that he can take off second time out.

As many of the shingle mills were closed down so long, it caused a shingle shortage. I had to make a trip to Portland last Saturday to secure a carload of shingles which are due in La Grande about the middle of the week. We were very fortunate in securing the "University" brand, manufactured by the L. R. Menefee Lumber company, as two-thirds of these shingles are quarter-sawned. There are many customers waiting for the arrival of the car, so there will be a clamor for shingles. Price will be $2.40 and $3.65 per M—as long as they last.
