Are You Patriotic? Then Vote!

ON NOVEMBER 4TH A NATIONAL PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION WILL BE HELD IN THE UNITED STATES. THE ONLY RIGHT WAY TO SELECT A PRESIDENT (AND OTHER EXECUTIVES) IS FOR EVERYONE TO SIGNIFY HIS OR HER CHOICE. CONSIDER IT A SACRED DUTY TO YOUR COUNTRY TO GO TO THE POLLS AND CAST YOUR VOTE.

Introducing Mr. Appleby

The Evening Observer is pleased to announce the addition of Mr. Frank B. Appleby, of Des Moines, Iowa, as a member of its official family, and in the future Mr. Appleby will be the business manager of this newspaper. He is a newspaperman of wide experience in the middle states, is a graduate of Grinnell college, Phi Beta Kappa, and comes to Oregon with his wife and 20 months old son, Carlton, to reside permanently. Mr. Appleby served two years as lieutenant of infantry during the World war in this country and in France. Mrs. Appleby is a graduate of Smith college, Northampton, Mass., and was on the art department faculty in that college prior to the war. They are residing at the Foley hotel until their household goods arrive from Des Moines.

The addition of Mr. Appleby to the Evening Observer staff causes no changes in the present force. Mr. O. E. Moran remains as advertising manager, Mr. O. N. Skiff as city editor, Bud Lynch as reporter, Miss Evelyn Guhleman as bookkeeper, Mrs. Thelma Walker as circulation manager, Miss Mildred Mulholland as society editor, Slater Whidden as collector. In the mechanical department the force includes Milton Price, foreman; W. T. Long, E. L. Evans and Roy McNeese, linotype operators; George Lockwood, advertising compositor; Archie Miller, pressman, and Dallas Suydam, mail clerk.

This newspaper is looking forward to La Grande's growth with great anticipation and the first preparation for further development is to increase the force as needed with first-class people. Mr. Appleby's decision to join in the work of making the Observer a greater newspaper means that the onward march of the city will harmonize thoroughly with the advancement of this newspaper.

Stilled In Death

Our old friend, Addison Bennett, who for many years has been a distinct part of Oregon newspaper life, has passed on. His pleasant smile and his happy manner will no longer grace newspaper circles; his clever pen will no longer entertain the Oregonian readers.

Yes, he was old, as years go, but even so, it seems that Addison Bennett should have been permitted to live on and on, for his life was a bright light to his fellowmen.

We knew him at Irrigon when he published a weekly newspaper called the Optimist. His "Rabbitville" column was high class humor. Like many of the newspaper boys he went to the metropolitan newspapers and for a number of years he has been a special writer on the Portland Oregonian. Stockmen of Eastern Oregon will remember his visits to the stockgrowers' conventions and the deep interest he took in the big Eastern Oregon country.

Added to the increased mail this first of the month comes the notices for the new paved districts asking the property owners if they choose to pay in cash or Bancroft their indebtedness. Bancrofting means that ten years are given in which to pay, the owner paying a tenth each year with interest at 6 per cent. The fiddler always has to be paid, doesn't he?

Opening of the Tuesday luncheons by the Chamber of Commerce drew a full house yesterday, which is indicative of an interesting winter's program.

Kind Lady: "What is your name, little boy?"
 Boy: "Joshua Shadrach Lemel Totis."
 Kind Lady: "Well, well, who gave you that name?"
 Boy: "I dunno yet, but I'll find out some day, doggone it."

The Kansas sheriff that discovered a still in a cave forty feet deep should acquire quite a reputation for getting to the bottom of things.

Citizen (thunderously): "What are you doing over there?"
 Neighbor: "Beating up my wife."
 Citizen (excitedly): "May I come over and see how it's done?"

There is no better way under the sun to settle an argument, than to shut up.

STRONG ENOUGH
 "What was the reason for the invention of hair beds?" a new furniture salesman inquired of one of the girl employees.
 "Omnious, sir," she said.

A chat without a few little morsels of scandal is like a breakfast without coffee.

Witty little chorus girl sitting on top of the bench.
 Along came a chap, saying,
 "You're a peach."
 "I may be that," she replied, starting in to frown.
 "But it would take a better man than you to shake me down!"

Beauty doctors, who perfected a lipstick that does not rub off, might win even more gratitude from a class if they would invent a powder that has no affinity for a coat lapel.

"The Museum, naturally the world is in the room for improvement."

A La Grande woman went to the bank for a new check book.
 "I've lost the one you gave me yesterday," she said. "But it doesn't matter. I took the precaution of signing all the checks as soon as I got it—so, of course, it won't be of use to anyone else."

"Take this, my boy, and remember it long.
 Though now it may strike you as funny,
 A job with a chance to improve and advance,
 Is better than one that pay money.
 So look for a job with a future ahead."

Seek a chance to grow greater and greater.
 Seek a place where you know as you work you will grow.
 And the money will come to you later.

Obituary

FRANK SMITH
 Death claimed Frank Smith, a resident of Cove, in La Grande this morning at the end of an extended illness. The deceased was a resident of Cove for 25 years and leaves to mourn his demise six children: Mrs. H. M. McDaniel of Medford, Mrs. B. W. Peterson of Cove, Mrs. W. D. Foreman of Halfway, Mrs. E. P. Reimold of Los Angeles, E. P. Smith of Ashland and C. H. Smith of Tinsamuir, California.
 The remains are at the Robinson camp chapel and he will probably be interred in Cove. However, definite funeral arrangements have not been determined.

McMINNVILLE BOY SHOT

McMINNVILLE, Ore.—Jan. Coffey, 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Coffey of McMinnville, was injured seriously by a bullet from a rifle of several boys who had been shooting promiscuously.
 Circumstances surrounding the shooting could not be learned in detail, but it was reported that neighbor boys were trying a new .22 rifle, which one had just purchased. One was said to have seen young Coffey at a distance and decided to shoot so that the bullet would land just far enough in front of him to frighten him. The act was said to have been playful. The bullet lodged near the heart.

Never Before Such Fine Riding, Say Owners

The Brougham

It is one thing for a car to deliver great performance; quite another to accomplish it with unexampled economy—as does the Chrysler Six. In addition to a new type of combustion chamber that burns all the gas and a new way of distributing the gas equally to all cylinders—which helps to explain why you get better than 20 miles to the gallon of gasoline—there are numerous engineering advances bearing on economy. Destructive vibration has been eliminated and the engine is protected also by the oil-filter and the air-cleaner—all of which means longer life and lower maintenance costs. Special design six-ply, high-speed balloon tires are standard.

Driving and riding in the Chrysler Six is an absolutely new experience, owners will tell you. It is not alone amazing power, speed and dash from an engine only 3-inch bore by 4 1/4-inch stroke that arouse their wonder, or the economy by which these results are obtained.

They are tremendously impressed with the riding and driving qualities for they find the Chrysler Six, by reason of unusually low center of gravity, perfect weight distribution, a new practice of spring suspension and other engineering advances, holds the road as securely as a two-ton car.

They find that it takes a turn at 50 miles an hour with perfect safety and without side-sway; and, thanks to its remarkable driving and riding qualities, they can ride all day without fatigue.

Try the Chrysler Six. Drive it at all speeds over all kinds of roads and experience these things for yourself.

We are pleased to extend the convenience of time-payments. Ask about Chrysler's attractive plan. Dealers Everywhere.
