

NEWS of SOCIETY

Honoring Miss Grace Black of Boise, Idaho, who is visiting here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Black, Miss Myrtle Black was hostess at a delightful party last evening. Ten couples were in attendance and the evening was enjoyably spent dancing, after which delicious refreshments were served.

Jiggs was entirely out of luck again Tuesday night. He and the gang had invited about sixty pretty girls in to have a party at his home, but Maggie and Miss Jiggs, who had been abroad, had succeeded in capturing Count De-Press and returned with him on the day of the party. The girls were snatched in through the back door, but Maggie refused to allow them in, but after the pleading of the daughter for her father and his friends and the apparent pleasure of the Count when he saw so many good-looking girls, Maggie relented and permitted them to stay and play games in the kitchen. The Count, who is a very accomplished musician, rendered several piano solos in true Paderewski style, and Maggie was finally persuaded to sing several songs which she had been studying while abroad. The temptation of being with the girls and his old friends was too much for Jiggs and finally Maggie lost her patience and drove them all to the basement, where the gang served corned beef and cabbage. Honors for eating the most cabbage fell to Miss Mae Stearns, and to Mrs. E. A. Epling for making the most noise while drinking coffee. It was revealed that the girls were members of the Martha Sunday School class, and that the gang were not such desperate desperados as they looked, but perfectly dignified members of the class. Miss Mina Cooper impersonated Jiggs; Miss Bertha Wahinger, Maggie; Mrs. Vera Wattenburg, the daughter; Mrs. Alma Young, Count De-Press; Miss Mabel Snodgrass, Baron Winter; Mrs. Lee Hanford, Grogan; Mrs. Guy Miller, Dinty Moore; Mrs. Ralph Myers, Casey; Miss Olive Wilcox, Dugan.

Named for Prince

THE new Prince of Wales coat is the latest garment inspired by our royal visitor. It is of navy blue chin-bleed, cut on absolutely machine lines. This model is designed for sport wear and gives an excellent opportunity to show a colorful scarf to good advantage.

The Ladies Aid of the Presbyterian church had an unusually good meeting yesterday when they met at the community room of the church with Mrs. Ray Murphy, Mrs. Frank Jackson, Mrs. T. A. McKinstry, Mrs. W. C. Perkins, Mrs. J. C. McPherson and Mrs. J. J. Broughton as hostesses. After the regular business meeting, during which time various important items were discussed, a social time was spent and a delicious luncheon was served by the hostesses.

"Sa Camille"

For the figure inclined to stoutness

Exquisite! Very lightly boned—permits absolute freedom of waistline. Every La Camille means "Beauty—and Comfort, Too" for its wearer. The patented Ventilo feature makes La Camille astonishingly comfortable.

Two divisions of the Ladies Aid of the First Methodist Episcopal church met Wednesday afternoon. The first division was organized by Mrs. Lee Hanford and the second met at the home of Mrs. G. W. Hairs. After the regular business transactions, during which time Mrs. Hairs was elected president of the Second Division, refreshments were served by the hostesses and a pleasant social time enjoyed.

The St. Peter's Episcopal Guild held their regular meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. H. Seranton. After the transaction of business a social hour was spent and tea served by the hostesses.

A musical program was a pleasant surprise at the last meeting of the recently organized Lutheran League, when Alice Jeanette Cooper and her sister, Miss Elizabeth, two little girls of 8 and 6, respectively, played a beautiful violin duet. Their home is at Walla Walla, Wash., where they are well known in the best of music circles. Alice Jeanette responded to an encore with an excellent solo on the violin. Also Catherine Wladner and Woniia Staininger sang a beautiful "Whispering Song."

The Home Department of the Presbyterian church will be entertained at the Community room of the church Friday afternoon, October 3, at 2:30 o'clock. All members are most urgently requested to be present.

Cove. (Special)—Mrs. Lydia M. Lantz was hostess at a delightful dinner party at her home here Tuesday evening.

Cove. (Special)—Mrs. Blanche Richards will entertain the Bureau Society on October 2.

Fashion Notes

Paris—A little diamond anklet is among the new things which help to keep the costume from becoming too sombre. The anklet is worn chiefly with the dull gray or black evening frock and is matched by an armband.

Paris—A peacock in miniature has appeared on some of the black felt hats with streamer brims. The peacock is made of real peacock feathers.

London—Rubbers or rainshoes have become a glibby as your piece. For wear with the dull red and bright blue shoes which are being rather often seen there are rubbers to match.

London—A little chatelaine watch, heavily jeweled, hangs from the waist of the chic young girl just now. If the frock has no girlish the watch takes into itself a slender chain, encircling the waist.

New York—The wool jersey frock is still a favorite for early autumn wear. Some of the new wool jerseys in cranial brown and rust have white silk stripes col-furs, which give a new touch.

New York—Top coats for sports wear today frequently have an up-standing collar of leopard, fitch or some other noticeable fur. Some of the coats, in black wool are lined with gay plaid, and these are not likely to have the fur collar.

New York—The newest wrist-bag for use at formal afternoon affairs, is beaded all over with very tiny beads in two or three brilliant colors. It has a square metal frame which is studded with jewels.

New York—Dressmakers report that costume slips are coming more and more into use. They are most practical for wear with the wrap around skirt which unwraps in every stray breeze.

Portland Wins Physical Test

EUGENE, Ore.—Victor Weigel of Portland was the high point man in the physical ability tests taken last week-end. Weigel annexed a total of 192 points in the all-around competition, which includes such events as bar vault, rope climb, swim and gym. Three hundred and seventy-one freshmen have enrolled in the physical education department.

AUTO MANSION VISITS LAKE

HOT LAKE (Special)—Though patients come to the sanatorium in cars of nearly every make, bearing license plates of all states, no machine has aroused the interest that has a large white one which reached here Tuesday. Many tourists nowadays are viewing the world from a "house on wheels." The owners of the white car drive a young man of the road, fixed with all the comforts of home from garage to shower with hot and cold water. On either side of the big bus, are the words "Navy Snacks." It is a road backwoods prospect, both the name and occupation of their owner, Mr. Hecken, is a prominent San Francisco business man, owner of a large truck and drayage system. On his return from a year and a half in Europe, he decided last spring to see America. He sees it through the windows of his own. If moving home.

Portland "river kings" are well represented this week at the Hot Lake sanatorium. Captain G. C. Shaver, owner of what is known as the largest tug boat outfit in the west, is here with his wife and mother-in-law, Miss Alice Wattenburg. Captain and Mrs. L. P. Hordford also register from Portland. They are both descendants of some of the Rose City's earliest families and Captain Hordford is owner of the only excursion boats which run between Portland and Astoria.

Four Baker residents to register as patients at the Sanatorium Tuesday morning are Mrs. J. H. Neider, H. S. Tamen, Tom Keikitt and S. Kolkitt.

Mrs. K. Martha, wife of the prominent Condon rancher, has come to the sanatorium for consultation and treatment. With her are her children.

Miss Beth Martin, teacher in the grade schools of Echo, was among the last of the week arrivals at Hot Lake.

George H. Buhl is a retired Lebanon business man, who is a patient at the sanatorium. Buhl formerly owned a small chain of Williamsite valley stores.

Mrs. Sam Hanson, a patient in the hospital from Union, continues to show improvement. After spending several days in the hospital at the sanatorium, Mrs. Hatlie McDonald returned to her home in La Grande the first of the week.

E. L. Meyers, of La Grande, who underwent a surgical operation here the last of the week, continues to gain nicely.

W. S. Lewis, taking treatment at the sanatorium, is a farmer from Baker.

Mrs. Doris Palmeter, who has come down from Joseph for consultation and treatment, is the wife of a farmer of the upper Walla walla valley.

Connected with the Pendleton Sheep company is Charles S. Plourd, a patient from Echo.

Mrs. and Mrs. E. M. Todd are registered here from Portland. Todd, a salesman with the Hirsch Ayley company, as a patient while his wife is taking the baths.

A member of the Idaho Hardware and Plumbing company, C. A. Black, is among the Boise patients at the sanatorium.

Many interesting tales of Alaskan mining experiences are told to sanatorium patients by R. G. Amundson, Amundson, who has come down from Seattle for medical attention, is a mining engineer.

Miss Edie Swan, a patient from Caldwell, Idaho, is employed at the Beckins Furniture company.

L. Johnson, whose home is in Astoria, is a patient here.

New Treatment For Swollen Glands

People who have enlarged glands ought to know that by freely applying Emerald Oil daily the gland can be brought to a head and all the germs and poisonous secretions discharged and destroyed.

Furthermore the opening will heal surely and speedily and without leaving an unsightly scar.
