MANY HUNTERS GET THE LIMIT

Chinese Pheasant Season Opened Yesterday with Nimrods Scoring Consistently.

When an inquiring reporter attempted to get a list of the local sportsmen who went pheasant hunting yesterday morning he found after a very few minutes of earnest endeavor that such a compendium would contain the name of practically every person of the male sex in the city.

Everyone who could beg, borrow or steal a gun and perhaps a dog and a car piled himself to the field yesterday in search of "China." Herding's place and other restaurants down town looked like prospectors were staking a gold rush at 2 o'clock Sunday morning.

The pheasants are, or more probably were, before yesterday, quite plentiful in the valley this year. Many hunters returned to their homes at nightfall yesterday with the limit of birds. Of course quite a number were unsuccessful but largely due to inability with the gun rather than a lack of birds.

THIRD GAME IS WON BY GIANTS, 6-4

deared to throw the game, today declared he would delay his departure to California when shown a letter alleged to have been written by a Broadway gambler. The anonymous letter, printed in a New York newspaper, said a certain group had wagered $100,000 that the Giants would win the league championship by two games and $5,000 had been paid a Giant player in the bribe effort. The crippling of the team worried gamblers about "those two games" undoubtedly referring to the last two of seven with Philadelphia.

By winning today the Giants forged ahead in the world's series play:

W. L. Per.	W. L. Per.
Giants..... 2 1 .667	Washington..... 1 2 .333

Ryan replaced McQuillan for the Senators. In the seventh Martina took the mound for Washington and again, in the eighth, the Senators had a new hurler—Speece.

POLO GROUNDS. New York (By the Associated Press)—Batteries for today's world series conflict here are: New York: McQuillan and Gowdy; Washington: Marberry and Ruel.

The lineup follows:
New York: Lindstrom, 2b.; Fitch, 2b.; Young, rf.; Kelly, cf.; Terry, 1b.; Wilson, lf.; Jackson, ss.; Gowdy, c.; McQuillan, p.
Washington: Liebold, cf.; Harris, 2b.; Ities, cf.; Gostin, lf.; Judge, 1b.; Bluege, 2b.; Peckinpough, 22.; Ruel, c.; Marberry, p.
The weather is good for the third game here today. An attendance of 45,000 is expected.

School News

(By INEZ BERT)

The junior class held a meeting Thursday afternoon to make plans for a picnic. They decided to hold it after school Friday evening, but due to the A. G. S. dance held on that evening it was postponed to a later date.

The seniors held a class meeting Thursday afternoon. Miss Bennett explained the making of the Mimir dummies and the president urged them all to be original in their dummies. Mr. Towler also gave a short talk on the Mimir along the lines of finance and the support of every member of the class for the editor that will be chosen.

The class decided to send flowers to Lucille Gardner, one of their members who is in the hospital. The president appointed a committee to buy the flowers and the meeting adjourned.

A junior class meeting was held Thursday afternoon to discuss the picnic plan. The play picked out is "Baby Long-Legs" which will be presented in the near future under the direction of Miss Bennett. The try-outs for the play will be held the first part of next week.

George Glass who broke his arm a week ago in football practice was around school again Thursday afternoon but didn't attend his regular classes.

Wilford Stoddard who broke his arm cranking his car is back at school this week.

Lucille Gardner, a senior, who is in the Grande Ronde hospital following an operation is doing nicely.

The A. G. S. gave a matinee dance Friday evening after school. Alice Jennette Cooper and her sister May Ellingth played two numbers on the violin. The two girls, age nine and six play on violins made by their father. They come from Walla Walla where they are well known in music circles. After dancing had been enjoyed delicious refreshments were served.

The president of the A. G. S., Phyllis Schramm called a meeting of the chairman of the committees Wednesday evening after school. The president opened the meeting. Miss Bennett, Dean of the Girls, spoke of the things the girls should try to accomplish. The following chairman told of the plans of their committees and what they hoped to do this year:

Helen Williams—Constitution.
Gess Gebel—Service.
Lavel Miller—Decorating.
Marjorie Warnick—Pamphlet.
Orville Gray—Program.
Wilma Gaskell—Social.
Dorothy Funk—Big Sister.
Margery Nisby was appointed chairman of the refreshment committee.

It was announced that an assembly would be held Thursday morning but as Mr. Gilbert could not be present then, it was postponed until Friday morning. Mr. Towler, after making a few announcements turned the assembly over to Mr. Gilbert. He led a few yells and also a few songs with Lucie Lynch and Edie Nelson at the piano.

One of the things Mr. Gilbert emphasized was to always watch our yell leader when yelling. This was the first "pop" meeting of the year. The plan was adopted to hold "pop" meetings on Tuesdays and Thursdays after school. There are now 13 boys that wish to try out for yell leader. The leader will be chosen by nomination as the season progresses. They expect to have picked him by the end of this month. The one chosen will receive a letter and also a sweater has been

APPEAL CASE BEFORE COURT

Due to the inability of the attorneys to be present, the case, O'Sman and Harrington vs. Baker county, which was due to open the current term of the circuit court here this morning, was postponed until later in the session.

An appealed case, City of La Grande vs. C. H. Getchel opened this morning. The case is an appeal from the police court on the charges of traffic violation.

A liquor case, City of La Grande vs. George Carlisle is scheduled for tomorrow.

promised him by one of the business men.

After the assembly Friday morning there was a short A. G. S. meeting to find out how many girls were coming to the matinee dance after school and to approve of the plan to send Lucille Gardner flowers. Miss Bennett and the president also at this time urged each big sister to become well acquainted with her little sister.

Florence Miller, a former student of L. H. S., visited at the school Thursday. She has been in California over the summer and will now make her home in Baker.

The Glee club will start work on their operetta "Once in a Blue Moon" as soon as the books arrive. They are now holding the try-outs.

The girls' chorus will sing for the Parent-Teacher meeting Wednesday afternoon.
