Hoxie Leads Universal Ranch Riders in Newest Western.

Supported by the Universal Ranch Riders, a score of neck-or-nothing daredevils, in a great race and steeple chase followed by a hand-to-hand struggle on the brink of a roaring precipice, Jack Hoxie stages one of the most exciting series of adventures in his career in "Daring Chances," his new Universal feature showing these days at the Star theatre.

"Hoxie, whose vivid work in "Deliverance," "Way Down East," and "Judson's Husbands," gave him an enviable reputation, is the Mrs. Kate Constock of the story; Gertrude Olmsted, leading woman of "Cameo Kirby," plays Edith Carr; Raymond McKee, star of "Down to the Sea in Ships," Cullen Landis, star of many pictures, his latest being "The Fog," Raabe; Yearsley of "Tomb Raider" fame; Ruth Stonehouse, Myrtle Vale, Virginia Boardman, Arthur Currier, Alfred Allen, Arthur Millet—all these are members of the remarkable cast which Mrs. Porter chose for the screen adaptation of her famous book.

Rare Camera Art Disclosed in "The Sea Hawk"

In Frank Lloyd's production of "The Sea Hawk" now enjoying unusual popularity at the Arcade Theatre, the photography is one of the most discussed points of the big First National spectacle.

The script called for several difficult night scenes of ships at some points more than half a mile away from the camera yet Norbert F. Brodin, the camera man, with the co-operation of Mr. Lloyd and the crews of the ships has produced some startling results.

Screen Classic Ends Run at Sherrys With Showing Tonight.

"Nobody knows what the Bird Woman did, what she said or how she acted, better than I do," said Gene Sinton-Porter while she was producing the picturization of her popular book, "A Girl of the Timberland."
