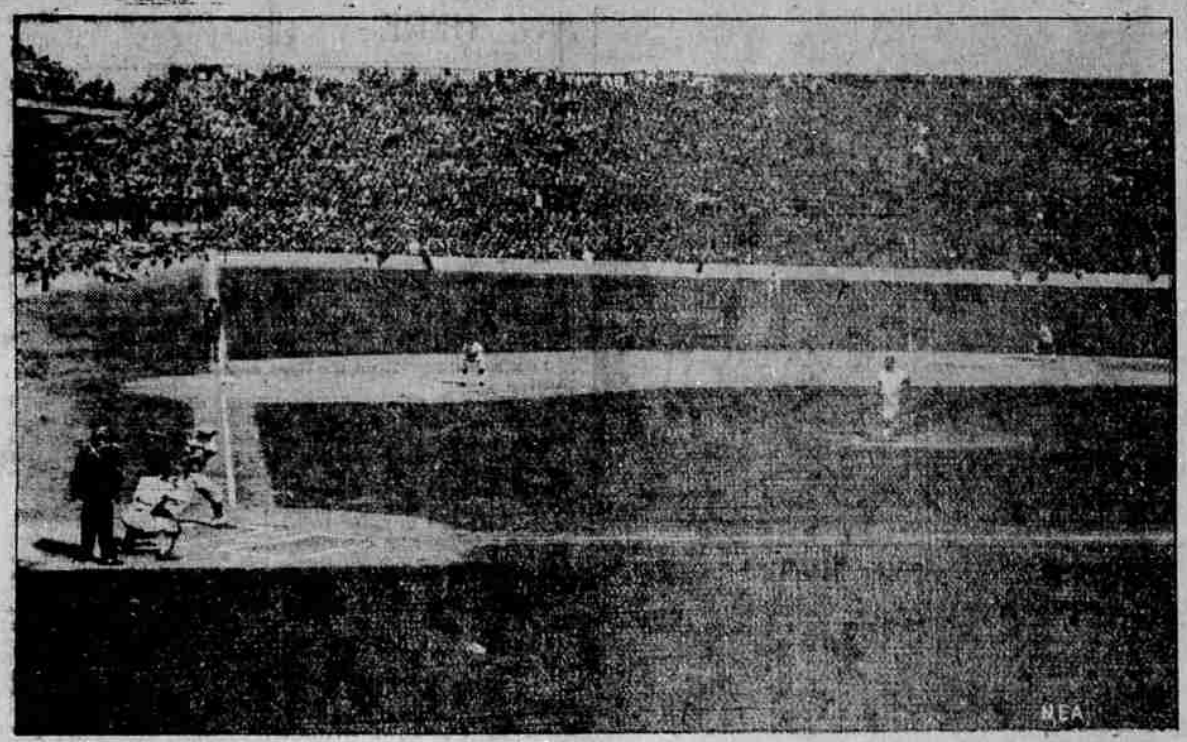
slush fund" to be expended in buying the election of doubtful states.

In a telegram sent Tuesday to Senator Borah, Republican, Idaho, chairman of the committee, the independent presidential candidate said he had urged him to issue subpoenas for "William M. Butler, chairman of the Republican national committee; W. T. Mellon, brother of the secretary of the treasury; Edward T. Stotesbury, a business associate of J. P. Morgan; Joseph R. Grundy, president of the Pennsylvania Manufacturers' association; Samuel M. Vauclain of the Baldwin Locomotive works, and S. D. Warriner, a Pennsylvania anthracite operator.

Senator La Follette told the senate committee chairman that he had reason to believe "a slush fund of four or five million dollars was being sought" and that the campaign to raise the money was based on the "circulation of malicious slander and libel."

If these Chinese don't quit fighting soon there will be nothing left except chop suey.

First Picture of 1924 World Series Arrive In La Grande



The First Ball—Walter Johnson, after 18 years of wonderful pitching for the Washington team, pitches his first ball in a world series while the thousands packed inside the ball park and outside roar their applause. The man at bat is Fred Lindstrom who wasn't even one year old when Johnson started to pitch for Washington. With two balls and one strike pitched, Lindstrom, the Giant third baseman, flied to McNeely, Washington centerfielder, for an easy out. Thus ended the big moment for the veteran and the novice. Muddy Ruel is seen catching for Washington, with Umpire Connolly behind the plate to call balls and strikes.

SLUSH FUND CHARGED TO G. O. P. PARTY

subpoena Chairman Butler, of the Republican national committee; W. L. Mellon, Stotesbury, Joseph Grundy, president of the Pennsylvania Manufacturers association, who, according to his Scranton address, he believed had a hand in the effort to raise a "slush fund of three or four million dollars."

La Follette in last night's address assailed C. Bascom Slemp, Coolidge's secretary, declaring "it appeared likely Slemp would be selected to handle this huge slush fund."

CHICAGO (AP) — Chairman Butler, of the Republican national committee, replied to La Follette's slush fund charges today with the assertion that "the whole story is bunk" asking Republicans to "contribute liberally to our fund."

ARMORY IS NEAR; FUND INCREASED

commerce and the American Legion.

$50,000 Needed.

It is estimated that a total of $50,000 is needed for the armory, according to Ray Williams, commander of the local post of the American Legion. The cost of the building has been taken up with Adjutant General White and closer figures will be available in a short time.

The reason for action on the matter lies in the fact that the bill for the La Grande armory must be presented to the state legislature at the current session or the affair will lie dormant until the next meeting of the legislature two years from now.

Should the building cost $50,000 it would be necessary for La Grande and Union county to raise one-half of the total between them. With the funds available at present this would make it necessary for the county and La Grande to raise $7,500 each. Of course these figures are merely in the way of speculation and are given to show how the building will be financed. No matter what the building costs the proportions will remain the same.

Apple Harvest Speeded

HOOD RIVER, Ore.—With perfect weather and growers working full crews it was estimated that a record number of boxes of apples for any single day was picked in the valley. The day's picking, it was declared reached 200,000 boxes. If weather remains good picking here will be practically completed by Saturday night.

ACCUSED BOY RELEASED

HOOD RIVER, Ore. — Wesley Carter, 17-year-old The Dalles youth, held last week to the grand jury on a charge of attempted criminal assault on Lillian McRae, West Side girl, has been released on bail. His stepfather, Edward Hill, refused bail money for the boy until he revealed the source of liquor obtained before he left for Hood River.

Leland George, held as an accomplice of Carter, was released from custody. Norman Berry, 16 remained in jail, unable to furnish bail. He was held to the grand jury as an accessory.

Miss Emma Zook, a patient from Union, underwent a surgical operation here Monday. Although her condition is still serious, she is getting along as well as could be hoped.

Tales of Dr. Fly's boyhood days and escapades are being told in the hospital by Ephriam Miller, of High valley. Miller, who is now more than 90 years old, worked on the John Fly place when Dr. Fly was young "Billy" Fly.

Mrs. Mary B. Davis is among the Portland arrivals. Her husband is an insurance man of that same is an insurance man of that city.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond L. Edwards, farmers of Genesee, Idaho, are both patients at the sanatorium.

Mrs. Ruby Godding of Enterprise has come down to the sanatorium for a surgical operation.

Following a fall from the family automobile little Virginia Brock of the Summerville district, was brought to the sanatorium the first of the week with a badly broken arm. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Brock.

Among La Grande residents who have come out to the sanatorium as patients this week are William A. Daniels, Charles Pickard and Jack Otoskey.

J. E. Gallicrath, who manages the Cunningham, Wm. warehouse of the Seattle Grain company, brought his wife down to the sanatorium for consultation this last week.

Chadwick J. Benson, a first of the week arrival in the sanatorium hospital, is the owner of a clothing store in Bailey, Ida.

C. A. Smith, of Cove, came over to the sanatorium this past week with his son, Raymond. Young Smith is now a patient here.

Mrs. C. F. Bishop has come down from Lewiston to spend a few days with her husband, a patient here. Bishop is a game warden of Idaho.

Anthony Blackhawk, of Cayuse, is a patient in the hospital. He is a step-son of Gilbert Minthorn, one of the most famous of the Cayuse Indians.

Albert Hay, fruitman of Emmett, Ida., has come down to the sanatorium to undergo an operation the latter part of the week.

Mrs. Stella Newton, wife of the Pendleton dentist, has been registered at the sanatorium this week with her friend Hortense MacMaster, also of Pendleton.

JUDGE NOT SELECTED

SALEM, Ore.—Governor Pierce has announced that he had not yet decided whom he would appoint to succeed the late George G. Bingham, circuit judge for Marion and Linn counties, but that the appointment probably would be made upon his return from Portland.

A. S. McMahan of Silverton, who has been mentioned prominently in connection with the appointment, announced while in Salem that he was not a candidate.

Speculation now centers on John Rayne of Salem, Sam Garland of Lebanon and J. K. Weatherford of Albany. Friends of Mr. Weatherford said he would decline to accept the office.

It was announced here that U. B. McMahan, Salem attorney, and member of the house of representatives in the state legislature, would be a candidate for the office of circuit judge at the November election to succeed the late Judge Bingham.
