

NEWS of SOCIETY

A marriage was solemnized Monday evening, Oct. 13, at the Mrs. Rosenbaum home, when Miss Scheewe and Everett Rosenbaum were united in marriage by F. D. Hanks of the L. D. S. church. Rosenbaum is well known in La Grande having lived here for many years and is employed by the Grande National bank. Miss Scheewe also has many friends here, having spent some time in La Grande employed by the Oregon Hardware and Implement company the capacity of bookkeeper. The happy young couple will make La Grande their home.

The Art Study Department of the Neighborhood club met yesterday at the club rooms and a very interesting time was spent. Mrs. H. C. Weaver, chairman of the department, had charge of the meeting and gave an excellent talk on "Historic Art." A large number of women interested in art were present and a very enjoyable afternoon was spent.

The next meeting of the department will be held Tuesday, October 22.

Grace Wood Jess, noted singer of folk songs, will appear tomorrow evening at the L. D. S. Tabernacle, sponsored by the La Grande neighborhood club. Miss Jess specializes in folk songs and has devoted her voice and art exclusively to that fascinating musical field. Her success in it that she is now universally recognized as America's greatest singer of folk songs.

Miss Jess' program for tomorrow evening follows:

(a) The Kentucky Mountain Folk—The costume worn for this group was part of the wardrobe of Mrs. Abraham Lincoln, when she was mistress of the White House.

(b) The Gypsy Bride—Old English.

(c) The Wailing Frog—Harlan county.

(d) An Old Maid's Song—Poland County.

(e) The Plantation—

(a) Swing Low, Sweet Chariot—Arr. by H. T. Burleigh.

(b) Little David was a Shepherd—Arr. by David Guion.

(c) Spain—

(a) Don Simon—Arr. by Caroleo.

(b) Ay-Ay-Ay—Cuban-Creole.

(c) Clavelito—Arr. by Valdes.

(d) Russia—

(a) Song of a Street Singer—Czechoslovakia.

(b) Child, May Dear God Have—Arr. by Arladna Roumanian.

(c) The Goat—Mongolian.

(d) France—

Melodies Populaires des Provinces de France.

(a) Les Belles Manieres du 17th Century.

(b) C'est le Mai—17th Century.

(c) Le Vigneron—16th Century.

(d) Le Phonographe—18th Century.

She will appear in the appropriate costume for each group of songs and will be accompanied by Raymond McBeckers of the piano throughout the concert.

Mrs. Anna Yount Gardner of a Bernardino, California, who is visiting here was delightfully entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Reece McAllister recently.

The attendance was the ends of Mrs. Gardner when she visited here. She left here in 1874 and has visited many places since that time. The afternoon was spent in talking over former days, delicious lunch was served, after which Mrs. Gardner recited a poem entitled "The Dried Apple," which she recited at the La Grande school 48 years ago. Mrs. Patricia Stotts Young sang a solo which all enjoyed.

At a late hour all bid Mrs. Gardner good-bye, hoping she will also another visit before many years. Those present were Mrs. Annette Myers Tuttle, Fannie G.

Picturesque Sleeves

THE picturesque sleeves are the most noticeable feature of the brown more frock. They are of a pleated chiffon a few shades lighter than the dress. The chiffon is also introduced in the under panel and the scarf that is a part of the outfit. Two very large buttons of brown composition serve as a trimming and also a fastening. This is a very charming outfit for afternoon tea or the matinee.

Members of Crystal Holbrook lodge, No. 50 and a number of their friends—over a hundred in all—were entertained with an exceedingly interesting program recently.

Those taking part in the program were ladies who belong to the "covered wagon" type; and Mrs. James Moss managed the entertainment which was a scream from start to finish. A goodly number of the ladies wore costumes that were considered the very latest from Paris a quarter of a century ago.

Following in the program: Song, "Bobbed Hair Brigade," by Mrs. James Moss; Miss Gladys Bonham; Mrs. Nellson; Mrs. Meyer; Mrs. E. J. Brown; Mrs. Mollie Buck; Miss Mamie Woodell and Miss Lydia M. Hug; Introductory speech, by Lydia M. Hug; Reading, by Mrs. Sarah McChure; Harmonica solo with piano accompaniment, George Meats, who was asked to respond again and again; Reading, by Mrs. Mattie Goshen; candidate on the Democratic ticket for county treasurer; Song, "An Old Fashioned Girl," by above named group; The Gossypers, by Mrs. E. J. Brown and Mrs. Mollie Buck; Accordion solo, by William Sion, which was received in the same spirit as the harmonica; Dialogue, "Going Somewhere," by Mrs. Mollie Buck and Lydia M. Hug; Mrs. E. J. Brown; Miss Gladys Bonham and others; "Three Bobbed Hair" time of "Three Blind Mice," by same group; Song, "When You and I Were Young Mangle."

At the close of the program all were liberally treated to "all-day suckers," accompanied by an apology explaining that lack of time prevented a more elaborate display of refreshments. But just before the move was made to depart a surprise awaited them by hostess.

Otto Segrin Says Tanlac Restored Health and Strength.

"Seven years of stomach trouble cost me lots of money, but Tanlac made a well and happy man of me and it only took about six bottles of the medicine to do it." is the striking statement of Otto Segrin, 81 E. 78th St., North, Portland, Ore.

"I had dyspepsia so bad I couldn't keep my breakfast down at all and if I ate anything at night I couldn't sleep. I always felt fagged out and was hardly able to do a day's work."

"Tanlac made my stomach feel and act like new and gave me a new start on the road to good health. I also gained 20 lbs. and never felt better in my life than now. My daughter, age 15, has also taken Tanlac with fine results and I have a brother who is delighted with what the medicine is doing for him. I never fail to speak out for Tanlac."

"Tanlac is for solely all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 40 million bottles sold."

Announcing the WINNERS in the Star Car Slogan Contest

"Tomorrow's Car Today"

Is the unanimous first choice of the jury of awards. The winning slogan, "Tomorrow's Car Today," was suggested by George L. Hammond, East 2919 Thirty-fourth Avenue, Spokane, Washington, and by Evo DeConcini, 1301 East Speedway, Tucson, Arizona. Each as an individual entry in the contest.

As both suggested the same slogan, in the judgment of the jury both are entitled to and were awarded a Special Sport Star Touring Car.

The double first award eliminates the second prize, and the third prize of Fifty Dollars in Gold is awarded to Clarence W. Cooke, Hotel Portland, Portland, Oregon, who suggested the slogan, "Successful from the Start."

"Tomorrow's Car Today," the winning slogan, exactly expresses the advanced engineering features of the New Star Car. The New Star Car is so far in advance of its competitors that there is really no comparison. As an example, today the Star Car offers as one of its many exclusive features a smooth, easy-working Disc Clutch. No other car in its class has a Disc Clutch today.

The executives of the Star Motor Company of California and the jury of awards take this means of extending their thanks to the entrants in the contest for their interest and enthusiasm.

250,000 slogans were carefully examined and checked, and the task of picking the winner was not an easy one. The winners may well feel proud in their distinction. But, in justice to those who did not win, the decisions were close, very close, between many contestants.
