Divorces Useless in Vienna Because of Flat Shortage

VIENNA. (AP)—Vienna still struggles with problems arising from housing shortage, and every new and then some new phase of the situation draws public attention.

Just now it is the question of accommodations for divorced parents. Apartments are so scarce that in a great many cases divorced couples are compelled to go on living under the same roof. A man in such circumstances recently went to court to compel his former wife to move away as he wanted to marry again. The judge ruled she should go.

Two airplanes dusting calcium arsenate over 5,000 acres of cotton in the southern part of Texas completely eradicated the boll weevil from that area.

Permanently waved, wavy or curly hair should be Water-Waved

The water-wave is soft and natural in appearance. In no wise can it possibly harm the hair.

Moles, warts, superfluous hair permanently removed without scar

All Work Guaranteed.

All-Star Cast In "The Female" At the Star.

Betty Compton is supported by a unique cast in "The Female," her new Paramount starring picture directed by Sam Wood. The story is an adaptation of Cynthia Stockley's "Dalla, the Lion Cub." All of the scenes are laid in South Africa.

Leading the strong supporting cast are Warner Baxter and Noah Berry, Dorothy Cummings, Helen Butler, Pauline French, Edgar Norton and Florence Wit. Also have important parts.

There are other featured players who get no credit in the advertising, but they don't care. They are an assortment of boys, fourteen in number, ranging in size from tiny tots to grown-ups. All the boys in Southern California were scoured by Director Wood and his assistants to find African lions of just the right size and temperament.

"The Female," which will be shown at the Arcade theatre today and Friday is a story of a beautiful young (Rose) girl, who knows no life outside the African wild. She meets and falls in love with a handsome young Englishman far above her station in life, but this one is different. He is strangely cold and ignores her, and his people, the "Englishers," insult Dalla (Miss Compton). The rest of the picture is a gripping and unusually entertaining story of the carrying out of this girl's plans for revenge—against all the ultra-smart of the English colony in general. The picture closes with her winning over the young Englishman.

Warner Baxter has the leading man's role in the production. Noah Berry plays the part of Dalla's suitor. Others in the supporting cast include Dorothy Cummings, Freeman Wood and Helen Butler.

"Lillies," a Story Of Rare Beauty And Strength.

They come to the Arcade theatre today a picture that we urge all of our readers to see, because in our estimation it has not been excelled as an emotion-stirring photodrama, and because it contains the finest cast that we have ever beheld in a single production.

The offering is "Lillies of the Field," a First National picture co-starring Carolee Griffith and Conway Tearle, supported by Sylvia Desamer, Myrtle Soodman, Alma Bennett, Crawford Kent, Charles Murray, Phyllis Haver, Cissy Fitzgerald, Edith Hanson and Charles Gerrard. All of those names are familiar to you, and we believe you will agree with us that they represent a cast of unusual excellence.

"Lillies of the Field" was adapted from the stage success by William Hurbutt, and was directed by John Francis Dillon, who made "Flaming Youth."

If we have ever seen a screen story with such a gripping quality we cannot recall it. "Lillies of the Field" is the life story of a beautiful young wife who, patiently bearing mistreatment at the hands of her husband, is deserted by him and robbed of her child. Unable to find them, she resigns herself to her fate and tries to untangle the snarled skein of life. A great love comes into her life, just as she is being sucked into the whirlpool of forgetful misery, and through this love the happiness she has lost is restored to her.

There is a humanism about this picture which will endear it to all those who see it.

Rex Beach's "Recoil" Showing at Sherrys Today and Tomorrow.

A new production made by J. Parker Reed, Jr., for distribution by Goldwyn-Cosmopolitan, will be screened at the Sherry theater for two days, beginning today. It is "Recoil," from a short story of that title by Rex Beach, published in one of the big popular magazines a year or so ago.

Mr. Reed took his company to France to film the sequences in the locations where the action is supposed to take place. He engaged T. Hayes Hunter to direct the picture and Betty Hlythe and Alison Hamilton to play the leading roles. Other parts are played by Clive Brook, Fred Paul and Ernest Hilliard. The continuity was prepared by Gerard C. Duffy.

Some of the most important scenes were photographed at Deauville, the famous French bathing resort; others at the Casino in Monte Carlo and yet others in Paris. The entire picture was made abroad.

The story is a melodrama filled with stirring action. Gordon Kent, a modern Crusoe, who made his fortune in South America, falls in love at Deauville with a penniless American girl who lives by her wits. They are married after a whirlwind courtship. Unhappiness results and the woman soon leaves him for Marchmont, in reality a famous crook who had been following her about. Kent decrees that the two shall live together forever and employ his great wealth to see that his orders are carried. It turns out that the girl's husband is not dead as she has supposed, but is living in New York. He is killed by Marchmont and Kent, who has become convinced that the girl really loves him, takes her to South America. Comedy showing "Wandering Wain-Lines."

Japan Decides to Teach Trade of Arms in Schools

TOKIO. (AP)—Military instruction in middle schools, higher schools and universities in Japan, along the lines of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps in American colleges, will be instituted shortly, according to plans of the War Office.

Officers of the regular army on active service will be attached to each middle school and higher school in the country. Since the army is planning a reorganization that will decrease its units by four divisions, about 2,000 officers will be released from duty with troops for this service.

Military drill is already part of the curriculum of Japanese schools, from grammar grades up, but theoretical instruction is not given, and in the higher grades the training is not compulsory. The new system would make the training compulsory for three hours a week.

Century-Old Clergyman Still Enjoys His Pipe

PONYPOOL, Wales. (AP)—Rev. Christopher Cook, rector of Mammhillad, the oldest benefited clergyman in the United Kingdom and in all probability the oldest active clergyman in the world, will shortly celebrate his 100th birthday.

Mr. Cook was born in September, 1824, and has held the living at Mammhillad for 72 years. He has a son, 75 years old, who is vicar of Rhyolaston, Llanillo. His father served as a naval surgeon in the Battle of Trafalgar, and died at a great age. The centenary clergyman has not preached for some years, but he is diligent and regular in his attendance at the services of the church. He is surprisingly vigorous, enjoys his pipe and takes an active interest in his garden, where he has spent much time the past season.

Air Flyover's Advent Predicted.

GERSEFELD, Germany. (AP)—The advent of the air flyover is predicted by experts studying lessons from the national air glider contests held here. Sailplanes with auxiliary motorcycle engines of eight to 12 horsepower surpassed the motorless gliders in every respect.

Early American Thrills Abound in "Leatherstocking"

"Leatherstocking," a new ten-chapter Pathé serial featuring Edna Murphy and Harold Miller, coming to Sherry's soon, makes one forget the telephonon, radios, submarines, airplanes and other scientific marvels of our highly civilized twentieth century and takes us back through the magic of the silversheet to the thrilling and stirring events of nearly two hundred years ago, as related by James Fenimore Cooper in his world-famous "Leatherstocking" Tales.

Then tribes of wandering Hurons swarmed the shores of the lakes making war on the settlers and slaying themselves with the French and English, who were fighting the supremacy over the country from which the Indians were slowly and surely being driven. Principally concerned in the story are "Leatherstocking" and a hunter who had lived with the Indians, his Mohican friends, Chingachcook and Wah-tah-wah, and Tom Hunter, an ex-pirate, and his two beautiful and courageous daughters, Judith and Betty. Each episode thrills with action and thrills with suspense. Epitome one will be shown Saturday matinee only.
