

RANGE CATTLE TAKEN NORTH

CLOVER CREEK (Special)—Jim Hand has been rounding up and delivering range cattle the past week. He made a trip to Grand Ronde valley delivering cattle to Mr. St. and Mr. Townley. Mr. Hand has been riding range along this summer and up until July had only 750 head, he was then given 250 head more from the Burnt river section, which kept him very busy. He reports that the feed was very short the latter part of the season and that many of the stock are in poor condition at present.

Autumn with its beautiful colors adorns the hills valley at it this season. The fruit trees and others are shedding their leaves. Many colors may be seen on the hills.

Miss Bernice West is teaching her fourth week at the Clover creek school. She likes it very well here.

Ben Blaine began plowing on the Holmes place this week and seems to be progressing nicely, even though the ground is very dry.

Snow Falls.

Upon arising the morning of October 10 the residents of Clover creek were surprised to see everything clothed in a blanket of snow. This is the first snow of the season.

R. J. Kitchen of La Grande was a business visitor to Clover creek this week.

The hunting party composed of Mr. Aughey and two sons, Chester Watkins and the two Gardner brothers is still in the mountains.

Edison McCashe was a La Grande visitor recently.

Fred Hoadley and Edison McCashe were recent visitors to Union.

WOMEN OF INDIA DEMAND SEATS IN LEGISLATURE

LONDON (AP)—From distant India comes a cry of the women for further political rights and privileges. The Women's Freedom League, which, under the leadership of Mrs. Pankhurst, used to smash windows and pour kerosene into the mail boxes in an endeavor to convince men that women should vote, has received from India an account of the struggle going on there to give women the right to membership in the legislatures.

At a representative meeting of Indian women held recently at Simla under the presidency of Lady Staff, the question of the disqualification of women for election as members of the several legislatures was discussed. The following resolution, supported not only by the Simla women but by the Bombay Women's Council and the Women's Indian Association, Madras, was passed unanimously:

"This meeting of Indian women, belonging to different parts of India, places on record its very strong opinion that the disability of women to stand as candidates for the legislatures be removed forthwith, and that the rules under the government of India act be amended accordingly."

The memorandum of the reforms committee states that "it is not necessary to recapitulate the arguments for and against woman franchise in British India. Our contention is that it is an anomaly that women may not be members of the legislatures in provinces where they are granted the right to vote. We feel that the right to vote ought to include the right to be a member of the legislatures."

The officials of Venice have ordered that in the future all the gondoliers of that city must be driven by a gasoline motor instead of having a man stand in the stern and use a single oar. This will no doubt increase the efficiency of the city but it will destroy the gondola which for centuries has been the town's claim to uniqueness and charm.

Never Know When Your Home's Safe!

Burglars and fires are not all the householders has to worry about these days. He has to be on his guard against unexpected visits from strange airplanes, too. Just look at Ralph Sweigart's home in Dayton, O., after one had "dropped in" unannounced. His house is just three squares from McCook Field, and the plane was on its way back there when the accident occurred. Lieutenant H. A. Johnson, pilot, and his passenger W. F. Gearhardt, were seriously injured.

Swede Professor Says U. S. Leads the World

STOCKHOLM (AP)—Americanization is the key to the future progress of the world, and America, clearly on her way to the cultural hegemony of the world has in the short period of 150 years built up a majestic national structure which has no counterpart in the history of the world according to Professor Johan Bergman, leading political figure in Sweden's liberal party, in one of the most striking speeches in the present electoral campaign, delivered at Visby and published throughout the Swedish press.

Professor Bergman, who is incidentally a leader of the prohibitionist movement in Sweden, said that the reasons for the gigantic growth of the United States were to be found, not in natural resources alone, since other unexploited regions of the world had resources that were virtually just as great, but in the fact that the American people, whose leaders are gifted with enterprise, foresight and daring, have labored industriously and with common sense, maintaining a high standard of moral living under liberal laws. He urged Sweden to follow America's example, to show bold

FATHER OF 11 ACCUSED

BAKER, Ore.—Isiah Abbott, who lives near Huntington and is the father of 11 children, was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Lansing of Baker and Hannon of Huntington on a charge made by his wife and which involves their 19-year-old daughter, Mrs. Abbott said she surprised her husband and the child and that Abbott threatened murder if ever a word of the attempted crime should be mentioned.

Mrs. Abbott informed officials and the arrest followed, but only in time to save Abbott from possible violent treatment from citizens of Huntington who had learned of the incident. Abbott was taken before Justice of the Peace

SKELETON OF MAN FOUND

MEDFORD, Ore.—A grim tragedy was revealed when two deer hunters, Attorney Harry Skryman of Medford and Harry Ström of Central Point, discovered the skeleton of a large sized man covered over with three inches of leaf mold in a forest nine miles from Trail. It was estimated death had occurred 15 to 25 years ago.

A partially decomposed pair of rubber boots, five cartridges, a key ring with a brass trunk key and a padlock key, a pocket knife and an old style 40-60 caliber rifle were found with the skeleton.

Australia is slightly larger than the United States in size and has a population of five and one-half million.

Canal to Be Completed.

SALEM, Ore.—The Jordan Valley irrigation district feeder canal, which has been under construction for several months, probably will be completed within the next 60 days, according to Elmer Luper, state engineer, who returned here from eastern Oregon. The canal extends from Jordan creek, which is the source of the water supply, to the Antelope reservoir. Mr. Luper said 350 teams and as many men are now engaged in constructing the canal.

ROAD FETE TO BE HELD

CORVALLIS, Ore.—Plans are well under way here for celebrating the opening of the new Corvallis-Albany highway next Friday, Salem, Jefferson, Albany, Corvallis, Monroe, Philomath and various rural communities agreed to join in the celebration. The Clatsop highway commission, the new highway commission, Governor Pierce and Roy Klein, state highway engineer, have promised to attend. The dedicatory speech will be made by J. P. Yates of Corvallis. The parade is expected to arrive in Corvallis about 1 o'clock and proceed at once to the armory, where the exercises will be held. A prize of $50 is being offered to the community joining the parade with the most cars.

BERRY PRICE RISE SEEN

ASTORIA, Ore.—Reports were circulated here of an expected advance of 50 cents a bushel in the price of cranberries. East coast berries were reported to be selling at $12 a barrel, which would bring the bushel price for these berries on the coast to about $5.50. The western berries have been selling at $4.50 a bushel f. o. b. at the local market.

The Hwaco peninsula harvest is finished, with 25,000 bushels in the warehouses. The Oregon harvest is about 65 per cent complete and will run close to 13,000 bushels, or considerably above early estimates.

PRESBYTERY IN SESSION

MEDFORD, Ore.—The fall session of the southern Oregon Presbytery opened here with Rev. Arthur Rice of Klamath Falls preaching the opening sermon as moderator. Business sessions will be held and Dr. B. A. Thompson of Portland, superintendent of national missions for Oregon, will address the Presbytery.

The feature of the closing session Wednesday night in the Presbyterian church at Jacksonville will be an address by Dr. Harold L. Bowman of Portland, moderator of the synod of Oregon.

LINN VOTER LIST GROWS

ALBANY, Ore.—Registration of Linn county voters has been increased 567 since the primary election last spring. The increase was evenly divided among the two leading parties, according to the percentage of the majority that the republican party holds over the democratic party in the county. The total registration is 11,151, of which 6674 are republicans and 3819 democrats.

The increase in registration was mostly made up of women voters, who showed a larger increase since the primaries than the men. The total number of male voters is 6647 and women 4504. There are 7947 republican men registered and 2727 republican women; 2340 democratic men have registered against 1479 democratic women.
