

REPORT FEVER AT UNION NOW

UNION (Special)—The Union Tailoring company has moved from the Odd Fellows building on the east side of Main street to part of the building formerly occupied by the Hanson clear store.

Miss Alice Marquardt, county health nurse, was in Union the first part of the week to investigate the breaking out of scarlet fever in the school here. Two families are reported as having children with this disease. The Van Treas children from the Advent school and the Pacey children who attended the public schools. So far, no one else in the school is shown, and they are the only cases in or near Union.

W. R. Geisler, state deputy for the grange, was over Wednesday evening to help organize the local grange. Several of the members of the Tolocast grange came down to assist in the work. With about 25 members the work was organized, officers elected and installed and the new lodge members were instructed along the lines of the routine work by Mr. Geisler. Although the new grange is starting off with only a small membership, much interest is shown, and an early head office, Dr. Phy, said, there is much work to make the meetings interesting and profitable and the grange can be of much benefit to the community.

Another meeting was called to be held at the experiment station on the 25th of this month. The Tolocast grangers promising to be present again and furnish one literary program. After the installation was finished a short program was enjoyed and refreshments were served.

Miss Laura Hayes, a nurse at the Grande Ronde hospital, is in Union visiting her sister, Mrs. Jennie Conklin.

First Meeting Held.
The commercial club at its first meeting of the year, Monday evening, decided to entertain the teachers next Monday at a 6 o'clock dinner at the Union hotel. The dinner to be followed by a social time. A number of other matters were talked of and plans laid for observing fathers and sons week by treating the boys to another dinner, the form of entertainment following the feed being left to a committee. Harry McInnis, W. W. Stevens, and W. W. Connor. The club also planned to repeat last year's community Christmas entertainment at the gymnasium and call on the school children to get up a program for the occasion. A membership committee, consisting of Fred Hest, George Seibert and Tom Cook was appointed, each member to choose his successor and resign as soon as he has secured one new member for the club. Irvin Hest and a committee of his own selection is to have charge of the club dance at the gym.

Thursday evening at the L. D. B. church a farewell social was held in honor of the two missionaries William Baxter and Francis Halling, who started for Chicago Wednesday morning. They will make Chicago their headquarters and conduct their work in several of the nearest states. Their mission is to last two years.

Tuesday evening a miscellaneous shower was given at the home of Mrs. Mae Haght in honor of her daughter who was recently married to Walter G. Carrio of Portland.

A social meeting of the Methodist church Aid was held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. P. Dater of Elgin for the Portland first of the week. The Union people going in delegates to the K. P. convention which convenes in the latter part of this week.

Fax has volunteered on the Oregon Experiment station and live through the winter, but growth is not a good practice. Best results have been received with early April sowing on a firm seed bed.

When Prince Visits Chicago

The magnificent estate of Louis Swift Jr. will be the stopping point of the Prince of Wales on his forthcoming visit to Chicago. The prince plan to spend only a few hours in the mid-western metropolis, however.

Bachelors Bother Her So She Makes Apology

(By FLORA BARRIE)

Since writing my article on California, I have received by letter and by word notification from ten bachelors in the city of La Grande, all bald headed too, that they objected seriously to being brought into the limelight and written about in the newspaper. They said they didn't mind being put in the birth and death notices and one even went so far as to say that he would not object if his name appeared in the marriage notices, but that it all he wanted to do his own picking.

To be very truthful, for a change, I must admit that these letters took the wind out of my sails. When I tell you that all the men who appear in my articles are pure fiction, I hope you will all feel better. I try to picture an impossible man; but it seems there is nothing impossible, just from the fact that I was taken up so quickly. It goes to prove my theory that all men are connected. Imagine, ten men, each thinking I referred to himself, personally. In order to relieve the minds of these dear bachelors, I would state, for their information, first, never have I considered a bachelor as a future husband. They all were want when you make pennekes and pannekes, when you make toast. They insist on having all their buttons on; and to have a man running around the house calling, "Flora, where are my socks?" That is a thing I just couldn't have. I might pray to the Lord, Lord, possess my soul with patience; but this Lord known darn well, it could not be done. To impress still further on these bachelor minds that I am not trying to infringe upon their lives and liberty, I will say that I wrote to two men when I was in California. I like them both, very much. If you can't make one of them, you will find the man I am going to love, honor and love.

growing since last February. I want to say that I like all women and most men. I got along nicely with women. Of course, you know I am clever. I still prefer it. Any darn fool woman can get along with a man, if she wants to and has a big stock of flattery on hand, but it takes a clever one to get along with a woman.

In conclusion, my advice to bachelors is "Don't be so self-centered. Think of someone besides yourself. You get so self-conscious and in getting that way you think really of grace-widows are ready to fall on your necks." As for trying to analyze an article especially a woman's article, dear bachelors "it can't be did."

This article is an apology. It was a case of writing an apology or less any job. Living on back in California was not enough for me, I had to go to La Grande. From all such things, dear Lord, deliver me, and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors—Amen.

Prince Falls in Business.

LONDON (AP)—Prince Andrew of Russia, who recently tried to retrieve a part of his lost fortune as the proprietor of a country club, has landed in the bankruptcy court. He owes $42,500 and has no assets. Most of the debts were contracted in building the club house and grounds.

HOW THE OTHER HALF LIVES IS DUKE'S PROBLEM

LONDON (AP)—The Duke and Duchess of York are about to join the Prince of Wales as royal ambassadors to their father's domains. Since their marriage in April, 1923, the duke and duchess have been constantly on the jump, visiting the important cities of Great Britain, particularly the factory districts, where their delight has been to investigate the conditions of the working people. They have recently made trips to Ulster and Scotland, and almost daily during their residence in London have attended some public function.

Now the royal couple have signified their intention to extend their activities to points outside the British Isles and to undertake, as their first journey, a trip to the less frequented spots of British Africa. It has been made known that they will visit Mombasa, the capital of British East Africa, in December, and leave a few days later for Nairobi and Uganda.

This will be the first time that these possessions have been officially visited by any member of the royal family, and probably the first time that other than a diplomat has been to a possession.

Statistics show that the world's consumption of timber is doubling every fifty years. Even in countries where wood is scarce it is increasing because the people are learning new uses for wood and becoming acquainted with those known in other countries.

Keep Coolidge and Elect Dawes

VOTE FOR THE COMMON-SENSE CANDIDATES—THEIR RECORDS RECOMMEND THEM

"I Am For Economy. After That I Am For More Economy" --Coolidge

He proved his faith by his works. This administration has saved the people $6,000,000 daily in taxes as compared with 1921. It has lopped off 95,453 employees from the federal payrolls.

Dawes, the budgeteer, put the country on a business basis by cutting out the deadwood in governmental affairs. Deficits in former years have been turned into surpluses. The national debt has been reduced $2,750,000,000 in three years.

FOREIGN POLICY SPELLS PEACE ABROAD AND PROSPERITY AT HOME

The Dawes plan has made possible rehabilitation of Europe, which means better markets and better prices for America's farm crops. Limitation of armaments is an administration policy and makes for peace as well as reduced costs of government.

The Republican tariff, linked with restrictive immigration, has brought prosperity to the man who toils. Wages were never so high, they would never buy so much, as today.

COOLIDGE POLICIES HAVE RE-ESTABLISHED PROSPERITY—CONTINUE THEM

When this administration took office, it faced all the problems of reconstruction. Deporable conditions existed. The people were suffering from a tremendous deflation. Interest was high and capital scarce. There was general acute financial distress. Our citizens were compelled to sell their government bonds around 85 that they had bought in wartime at par.

A complete change has been accomplished. Never before in peace time has there been such constructive accomplishments as since March, 1921. Prosperity for all the people has replaced general distress. Industrially, the country was never on firmer ground. Agriculture, in dire plight when the Republican party came into power, faces a brightening future. Our depreciated government bonds have all risen above par and one is selling at better than 106.
