 "What would you do if I found you dead?" she asked shyly, as they sat on the parlor sofa.
 The young man looked straight ahead, but said nothing. After a few minutes of silence she nudged him with her elbow and said, "Didn't you hear my question?"
 He looked around apprehensively.
 "I beg your pardon," he replied, "I thought you were addressing the gas."

A few tested rules for fishing that may be helpful. Try them:
 1. Feed worms dynamite. Feed worms to fish. Throw rocks at fish. Good results.
 2. Dash madly up stream shouting, "I am Bryan and drunk as my monkey ancestors." Pick up stunned fish.
 3. Dig ditch, running stream through swamp. Fish catch themselves in swamp. Haul away in trucks.
 4. Dive down to bottom. Tell her time story. Fish go to sleep. Grab fish without walking.
 5. Tie mirror on face. Fish see how they look and launch themselves to death. Gather in baskets.

A collector was trying to get a slow account settled and said sharply to the debtor: "Your bill should have been paid long ago. I must have the money at once."
 "How can I pay you when I haven't the money?" said the debtor. "You can't get out of a turmp."
 But the collector was ready for him. "You're not a turmp—you're a head," was the reply.

 Women would be safer behind a steering wheel. If you could tell what they were driving at.
 Our expert opinion is that the man who calls sweat perspiration doesn't know much about it.
 A common dog is the safest watch dog. Get a pedigreed pup and they may steal him too.
 Watch your reputation. When you lose a good reputation it may take you years to find another one.
 This world could be twice as bad as it is. The seasons on Mars are twice as long as ours.
 Bet the man who names collars gets sorry for what he has done later.
 Men are known by the company they keep; women by the clothes they keep on wearing.
 After practicing eating grass for 40 or 45 years some men still spill it on their vests.
 Men are not always superior to animals. When a dog starts itching he can scratch anywhere.
 The only way for the weather to satisfy people is not to have any.
 Beauty and brains together are twice too much.
 Wouldn't it be fun if we all made what we claim we do?

 How to Grow Cheap Cotton BUENOS AIRES, (AP) — The cost of producing cotton in Argentina is cheaper than in the United States, according to a report on the new cotton growing industry in Argentina by Ernest L. Tutt, the American cotton expert attached to the Argentine ministry of Agriculture. The cost for each pound last year in the United States was 25 cents, compared with about 15 cents in Argentina. The marketing expenses are higher in Argen-

 George Eliot Letters Destroyed.
 LONDON, (AP) — Hundreds of interesting letters from George Eliot to her niece, Miss Emily Susthress, annah Clarke, of Thanet, have been destroyed as requested in the will of Miss Clarke, who died recently. A relative who burned the letters said that if given to the world they might have formed a remarkable contribution to literature, in addition to furnishing an intimate autobiography of the authoress.

Income and Marriage

Here now is a proposition for legislation, sponsored by a women's organization, compelling a man about to marry to prove his economic standing and his mental capacity first, and requiring a would-be bride to show that she could support herself and her children if her husband died.
 Both are excellent ideas. The man who marries ought to be able to support a family, and a widow with young children on her hands who can take care of herself and them without assistance has a position of independence which is worth while. But why laws on the subject? Do we really need any more laws of any sort?
 Such matters may fairly be left to the individual. No doubt a man ought not to marry recklessly. But he might make a very good husband and father though he took financial chances when he married and could not measure up to some legislative standard of income. As for women, the number of them who are unable to earn their own living if called upon to do so is comparatively small in these days.
 According to a Berlin professor January 1 will mark the end of the bobbed hair craze. But Berlin professors are not infallible and women do not go to Germany for styles.
