

Why BEAU BRUMMEL HID HIS HAT

BEAU BRUMMEL had such a valuable hat that fear for its safety became his chief delusion. He spent his last days hiding it, then frantically searching for its forgotten hiding place.

The youthful lines that make a young man snappy and the value for his money that makes every man happy are our reasons for recommending the new COLEMAN, O. (By the Associated Press)—Plans for the holding of the 1925 Pike convention at Portland, Oregon, will be discussed there the latter part of this month. John G. Price of Columbus, new grand exalted ruler, visits that city to complete arrangements for what he expects to be Blanton's greatest.

Mr. Price will make many addresses on his Pacific tour. While the greater part of them will be

COVE BAZAAR NETS BIG SUM

COVE (Special)—The community bazaar, sponsored by the Women's club held at the Macedonia hall Friday was a success in every detail and added more than one hundred dollars to the library fund. The Ladies Aid and P. O. E. society served a dinner, in catering style, between the hours of 5 and 7. The Ladies Guild had a fancywork booth. Many other attractive features were also shown. A short program was given in the evening in which the school orchestra contributed two excellent numbers. A fine community spirit was shown at the bazaar.

Mr. and Mrs. P. O. E. county assessor, and wife, were in Cove Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Huntley have gone to Yakima for a few weeks.

The chautauqua festival closed Wednesday evening. Cove people were very pleased with the entertainment that they staged for another year.

Mrs. J. P. Dean, who is seriously ill at Hot Lake sanatorium, is thought to be slightly improved at this time.

R. Severs is at Hot Lake sanatorium for medical attention.

Mrs. Ed. Millard is very seriously ill at her home in Cove.

F. H. Kelly is doing his duty as jurymen at La Grande.

Mrs. A. R. Orton has charge of the drug store during his absence.

The apple picking is nearly completed in Cove. The unusually fine weather has hastened the work.

Miss Ethel Quinby is spending the weekend with friends at Union.

Theodore McMillan, George and Everett Williams, William Hovater, Oscar Johnson and Earl Starby, who went to Canada a couple of months ago to work in the harvest, returned to their homes in Cove a few days ago. They report that winter has arrived in Canada and that snow is a foot deep.

devoted to fraternal discussions he will also urge all members of the order to take an active part in the November election.

"We, as good citizens," he said, "owe it to ourselves and to our country to help direct affairs of our government by the use of the ballot. Every one should vote in November and use his influence to send all others to the polls."

Leaving here October 22, Mr. Price's itinerary includes stops at Dore, Harts, St. Louis, Kansas City, Pueblo, Colorado Springs, Denver, Ogden, Salt Lake City, San Francisco, Portland, Seattle, Livingston, Billings and Chicago returning here November 15.

MANY BILLS ON BALLOT IN NATION

navy and marine corps from paying poll tax; Kansas would recognize the service of volunteers in the Spanish-American war; Philippine Insurrection and China relief expedition with compensation at the rate of $1 a day for each day of service, the maximum to any veteran to be $500; Louisiana would increase pensions to Confederate veterans; Maryland and Montana would provide aid or adjusted compensation for the question in the latter state depending upon the compensation amendment being carried; Oregon would extend the provisions of the soldier bonus amendment to female residents of the state who were engaged in the war department during the World War; and veterans of the Spanish-American war, Philippine adjusted compensation for veterans of the World War, Spanish-American war, Philippine Insurrection and the Civil War; Texas would extend the privilege of pensions to all Confederate veterans and widows of Confederate veterans who moved to the state prior to Jan. 1, 1915. The present limitation of residence is Jan. 1, 1910.

Too Many Laws.
South Carolina and Georgia apparently are getting too much state legislation, and in both the voters are asked to approve constitutional amendments providing for biennial sessions of the legislatures instead of the annual sessions as at present.

The question of legislating out of existence all private and parochial schools will come before the voters of Michigan and Washington. In the former it is proposed as a constitutional amendment, while in Washington it is put before the people as an initiative measure, and proposes to close all private schools to children under 14 years of age. In that state it would affect schools conducted by the Roman Catholics, Lutherans, Episcopalians and Seventh Day Adventists, as well as numerous military academies for boys and private schools for girls.

Oregon Law Up.
A similar law passed in Oregon was declared unconstitutional in the federal district court of Astoria. The case then was taken to the supreme court of the United States, which is expected finally to determine the question of constitutionality at the term which was convened this month.

California will go into the power of business on an extensive scale if the voters approve a proposal to develop and distribute water and electric energy and to loan $50,000,000 worth of bonds to further the projects.

Questions affecting aliens are to be voted upon in California and Nevada. The former would put a poll tax on every male inhabitant of the state for educational purposes, compelling persons paying such a property tax. In Nevada it is proposed to repeal that portion of the state constitution which authorizes to allow the marriage of natives born in respect to possession, enjoyment and ownership of property.

Arizona and California voters will decide two questions of interest in the sporting fraternity. The former would provide for the regulation of state racing commission and authorize the operation of pari-mutuel betting machines in Arizona, California, which in that state has been the scene of many championship ring contests, who limits bets to four rounds. It is proposed to create a state athletic commission and to permit betting and betting machines for prizes or purses. The latter house is to be limited to 12 rounds.

Many Other Measures.
Other proposals will be voted upon as follows:
Kentucky, to set a $25,000,000 bond issue to complete the state's primary road system.
Mississippi, to levy income, succession and estate taxes.
Montana, to repeal law providing for special primary election usually held in May of general election years, to select candidates for president and vice president.
New Jersey, to provide for nomination to direct primary of candidates for United States senator, representatives in congress and state and county elective officers.

Oregon, to provide that all voters must read and write the English language; to repeal income tax law; to make compulsory application of workmen's compensation law.

New Jersey, to bond issue of $10,000,000 to aid in the completion of railroads to be built under the Hudson river between Jersey City and New York, and the Delaware river, between Camden and Philadelphia.

Arkansas, to bond issue of $5,000,000 for a paved highway from Phoenix to Byrde, Ark.

Massachusetts, to decide whether the state shall have an amendment to the federal constitution prohibiting the employment of children in industry, whether the designating law shall be continued in operation; whether the word "male" shall be stricken from the statute in order that women shall be eligible to hold state, county or municipal offices.

Higher Wages in Hawaii Draw Natives from Luzon
MANTLA. (AP)—Women have replaced men in many kinds of work in the two Ilocos provinces in northwestern Luzon, according to Director Cruz of the bureau of labor, who has received reports that a large percentage of the laborers in the fields and in the construction of public works are women. Many of the men are leaving those provinces for Hawaii where higher wages are obtainable in the sugar cane fields, the prevailing wage for farm labor in these provinces being only 20 cents a day.

Director Cruz, however, is not in favor of the bill now before the legislature permitting the importation of foreign laborers, because he says there are thousands of Filipinos without work in various parts of the archipelago.

Japan to Mark Permanent Air Routes Across Empty
TOKYO. (AP)—Aerial routes across Japan, already traced by American, British and French aviators, are to be permanently established and equipped as trunk air routes, according to plans of the aviation bureau of the Department of Communications. The department's estimates for the 1925 and 1926 budget contain an item of 5,000,000 yen for these routes. The program outlined by the aviation bureau covers five years.

rolling for a total expenditure of 25,000,000 yen. This 25,000,000 yen to be asked for the next fiscal year would be spent as follows: 5,000,000 yen for ordinary maintenance of existing routes; 10,000,000 yen for the acquisition of other equipment on the routes; 10,000,000 yen for the establishment of air current, altitude and other observations and the establishment of new routes; and the establishment of new routes, and the maintenance of existing routes.
